Eddie George
1995 Heisman Trophy Winner

Eddie at the Bob Hope Show taping.

On Dec. 7, 1995, Eddie George became Ohio State's sixth Heisman Trophy winner. The senior from Philadelphia began the season by winning MVP honors in the Kickoff Classic. During the next 11 weeks, he rushed for 100 or more yards in each of the Buckeyes' games, including 212 versus Washington, 207 against Notre Dame and a school record 314 against Illinois.

In addition to the Heisman, Eddie received the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, the Doak Walker Running Back Award, the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football Award and the Maxwell Award.

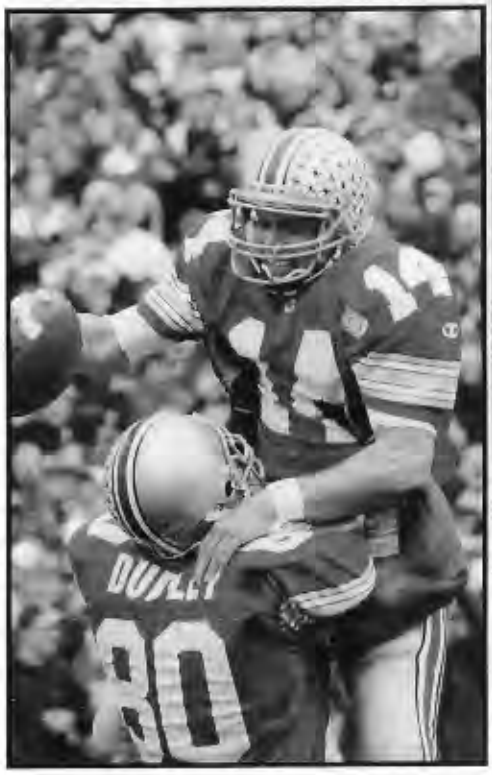
Bob Hoying
Draddy Award Winner



Bobby with Coach John Cooper.

Quarterback Bob Hoying also soared to new heights in the 1995 season. The St. Henry, Ohio, native proved Ohio State's commitment to academics and athletics when he received the Vincent dePaul Draddy award, presented annually by the National Football Foundation to the nation's top senior scholar-athlete. Ohio State President E. Gordon Gee called the award "The Academic Heisman".

Hoying, who graduated this past December with a degree in Production & Operations Management, also received the National Football Foundation and NACDA post-graduate scholarships and was named one of the Burger King Scholar Athletes.

On the field, he virtually rewrote the Ohio State record book, setting new marks in passing yards, touchdowns and completion percentage. Hoying led the nation in passing efficiency most of the season, was a finalist for the Johnny Unitas Award and ended the season as a first team all-Big Ten pick.

Hoying is proof that those willing to work hard both on and off the field will achieve great things at The Ohio State University.

And the list doesn't stop here.

The Biletnikoff & Lombardi Awards

Terry Glenn

Orlando Pace

Here are two more notables.

Terry Glenn, winner of the 1995 Biletnikoff Award, is one of the great Cinderella stories in the history of college football. A virtual unknown at the start of the season, he burst on the national scene with one spectacular catch after another and is now regarded as one of the finest receivers ever to play in the Big Ten. In addition to the Biletnikoff, Glenn earned first team spots on the Associated Press, Football Writers, Walter Camp and Football News All-America teams.

Orlando Pace has already etched his name alongside the likes of former Buckeye greats Jim Parker, John Hicks, Jim Lachey and Korey Stringer as one of the greatest offensive linemen to play at Ohio State. He may be the best of the lot! The 1995 Lombardi Award winner and Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year virtually put on a clinic every week, but continued to work hard to get even better.

George, Hoying, Glenn and Pace are just a few of the players striving to carry on the great tradition of Ohio State football. The tradition will continue in 1996 with great student-athletes making big plays in the Horseshoe on Saturday afternoons.

THE OHIO STATE EXPERIENCE

IMPRESSIVE ACADEMIC PROGRAMS

- The Columbus campus, with a combined student population of 49,542, is not only the largest in the nation, but is one of the most beautiful as well, featuring a pleasing blend of turn-of-the-century buildings and modern research laboratories.
- The school's rich athletic tradition is matched only by its impressive academic programs. With nearly 220 majors in 19 different colleges, student-athletes can pursue almost any future career ambition.
- Personal attention, a distinguished faculty, outstanding facilities, unlimited academic choices and a hallowed tradition of excellence make Ohio State a great place for student-athletes to continue their academic and athletic careers.

ACADEMICS
OHIO STATE OFFERS

✔ More than 11,000 courses.

✔ A student-to-faculty ratio of 13-to-1. More than 97 percent of the faculty hold doctoral or professional degrees.

THE OHIO STATE EXPERIENCE

GRADUATION IS OUR GOAL

Joey Galloway, a first round draft choice of the Seattle Seahawks, receives his degree.

You receive much more than a handshake and a diploma at Ohio State! Backed by one of the largest alumni associations in the world, your network of contacts in the job market is nearly unlimited.

- The Athletic Department's Student-Athlete Support Services Office works with student-athletes in all areas of academic endeavors, including career guidance.

Head Coach John Cooper attends graduation with his players.

The Buckeyes Speak

Why Ohio State?

"I chose Ohio State because I hope to win a national championship."
— Matt Finkes

"I can get a top of the line education, while also playing Big Ten football, which I love."
— Greg Bellisari

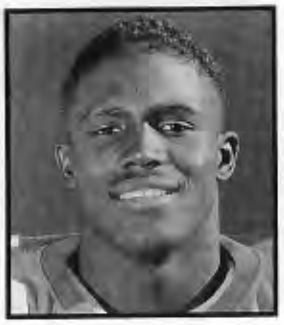
— Eric Gohlstin

"It has a great academic and athletic environment."
— Ty Howard

"I like the chemistry between the players and the total college atmosphere."
— Juan Porter

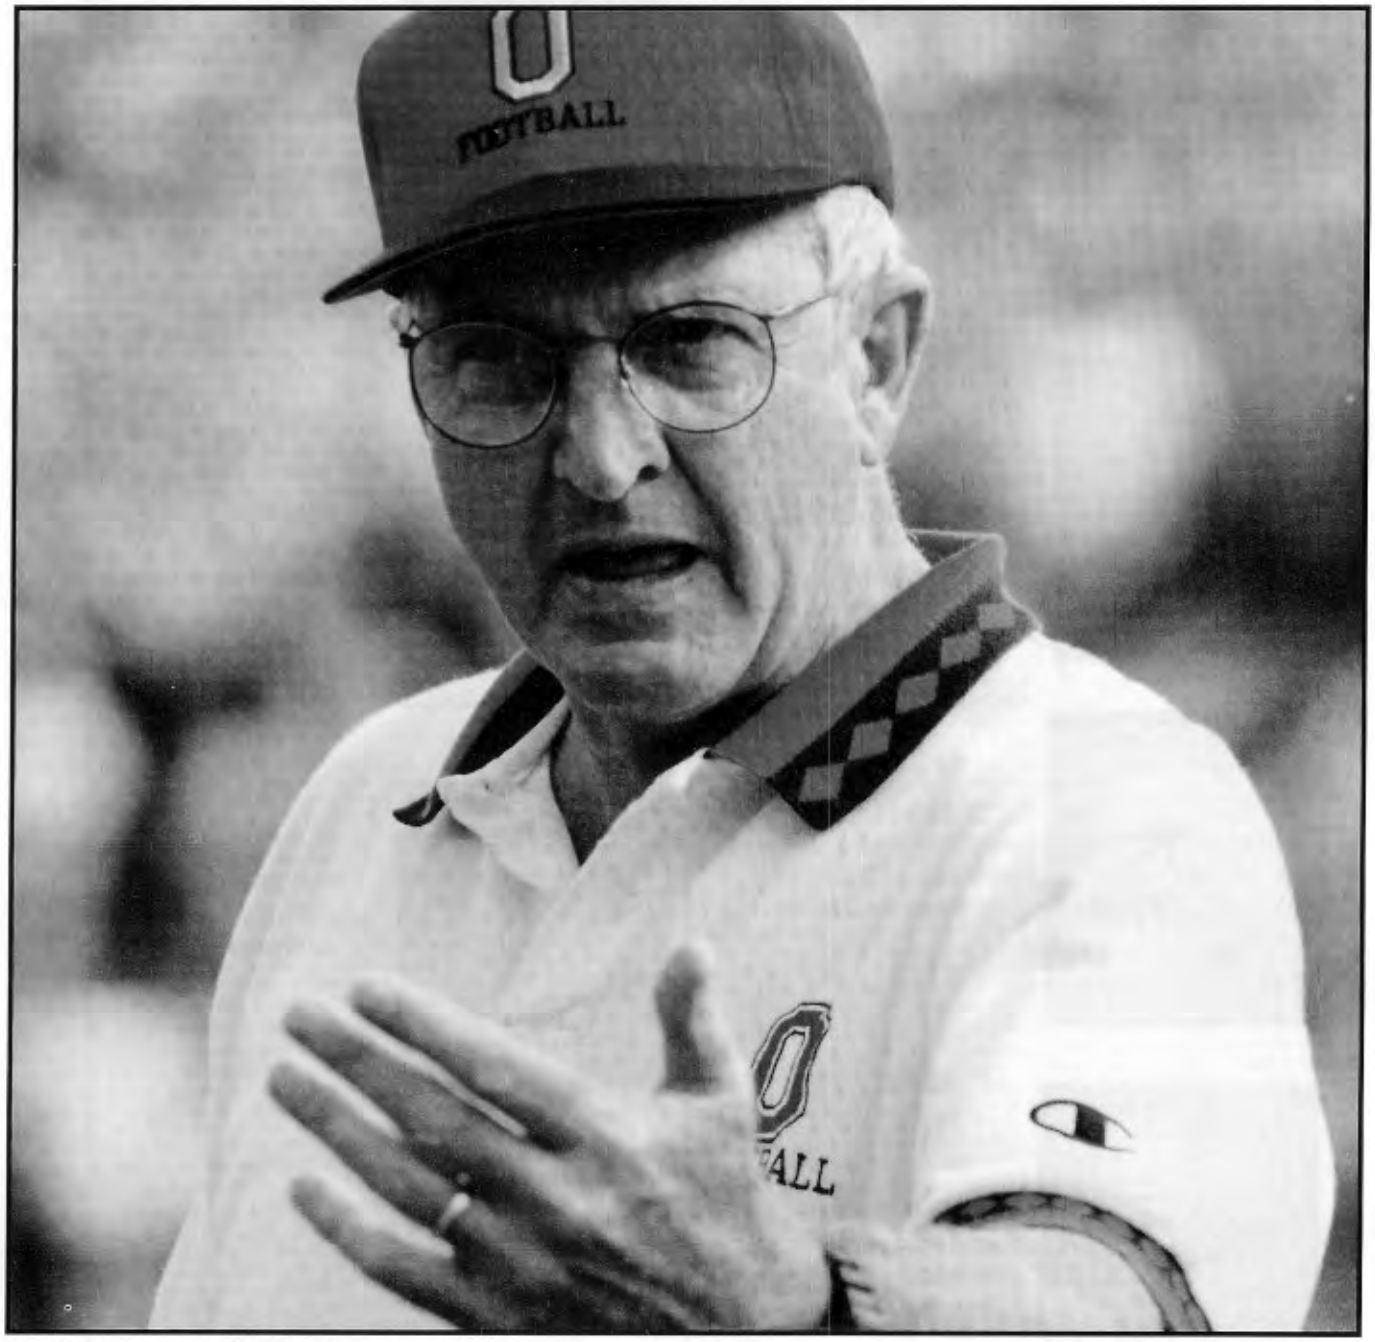


"Because there's no better place to be."
— Shawn Springs

"It felt like a home away from home."
— Stanley Jackson

Head Coach John Cooper

Leading the Buckeyes for a ninth year



John Cooper is one of college football's most successful coaches.

Head Coach John Cooper

Leading the Buckeyes for a ninth year

John Cooper owns the best record in the Big Ten the past three years.

- Coach Cooper has been a finalist for National Coach of the Year two of the past three years.
- Coach Cooper owns the best record in the Big Ten the past three years at 30-7-1.
- Coach Cooper is past president of the American College Football Coaches Association.
- Coach Cooper has produced 10 first round draft picks since 1990.
- Coach Cooper has produced a Heisman Trophy winner, a Lombardi Award winner, a Biletnikoff Award winner, 10 first team All-Americans and four Academic All-Americans since coming to Ohio State.

The Coaching Staff

Second to none

Head Coach John Cooper and Offensive Coordinator Joe Hollis confer with Buckeye quarterback Bobby Hoying.

Running Backs coach Tim Spencer is just one of the former Buckeyes on John Cooper's staff.

- Ohio State's coaching staff is second to none.
- Former head coaches, former NFL players and assistants and veteran college coaches with knowledge and compassion make up the Buckeye staff.
- Three of Ohio State's assistant coaches played for the Buckeyes and know what it means to wear the Scarlet and Gray.

We Care About You

OSU's Conditioning & Medical Staffs

- At Ohio State athletes receive the very finest in professional medical care.
- Dr. John Lombardo, head team physician, oversees a staff of internists, surgeons, dentists and counselors who monitor the health and physical condition of each athlete.
- Bill Davis, Doug Calland, Mike Bordner, Linda Daniel, Monica Baugh and Vince O'Brien form one of the most highly respected training staffs in all of collegiate athletics.

Monica Baugh

Vince O'Brien

- All Ohio State student-athletes participate in individually designed weight conditioning programs.
- Head Strength and Conditioning Coach Dave Kennedy heads a staff of four full-time strength and conditioning coaches.
- The various weight facilities house state-of-the-art equipment which is available to student-athletes year round.

Ohio Stadium

ready for its 75th season

- Ohio Stadium has served as the home of the Buckeyes for the past 74 seasons.
- The horseshoe-shaped stadium is one of college football's most recognizable landmarks.
- With crowds averaging more than 93,000 per year, Ohio State is annually one of the nation's leaders in attendance.
- The state-of-the-art scoreboard in the south endzone adds to the uniqueness of the stadium.
- Prescription Athletic Turf was installed in 1990, providing the safest possible competition surface for OSU athletes.

Ohio Stadium

The home of the Buckeyes

WINNING IN THE 'SHOE

✔ Ohio State has won its last nine games in Ohio Stadium and has compiled a 21-2-1 record in The 'Shoe over the last four years.

✔ An average of 93,510 fans crammed into The 'Shoe for each game last season, including a school record of 95,537 for the historic 45-26 victory over Notre Dame.

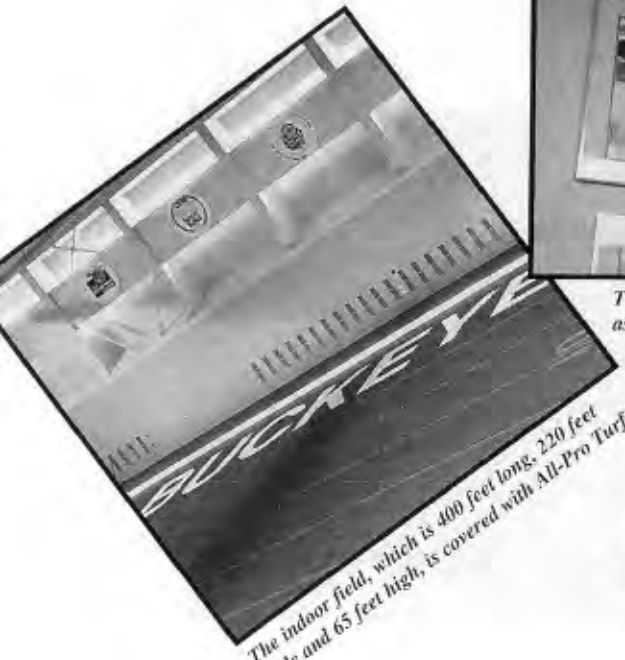
The Woody Hayes Center

The nation's finest indoor facility

The Woody Hayes Athletic Center was dedicated in November of 1987 in memory of the late Woody Hayes, Ohio State's legendary football coach.

The Wall of Champions features past OSU Big Ten and national championship teams, as well as pictures of All-Americans and academic honorees.



The indoor field, which is 400 feet long, 220 feet wide and 65 feet high, is covered with All-Pro Turf.

- The nine-year-old Woody Hayes Athletic Center is one of the best indoor facilities of its kind in college athletics.
- Besides a full-length indoor field, the facility also includes an 8,000-square-foot weight room, a spacious training room, individual position meeting rooms, an auditorium for team meetings and a player lounge.
- The coaches' offices are also housed in the Hayes Center.
- The northern corridor and atrium are adorned with Ohio State history, including Big Ten and national championship team displays, Heisman Trophies and photos of All-Americans and Academic All-Americans.

Media Coverage

Getting the word out about the Buckeyes

- Media coverage of Ohio State football is second to none.
- ABC nearly became the "All Buckeye Channel" as all 13 games were televised last year. OSU's first six games were on ABC. For the season, the Buckeyes were on ABC nine times, ESPN three times and ESPN2 once.
- WBNS, the flagship station for the Ohio State Radio Network, has developed one of the largest networks in the nation with 69 affiliates throughout Ohio and West Virginia.
- There is also plenty of regular media coverage from Columbus television, radio and newspapers, plus special coverage from the Midwest and national media.
- The Ohio State Athletic Communications staff keeps reporters up to date with weekly updates.

ABC could have meant the "All Buckeye Channel" as nine of OSU's 13 games were televised by the network last season.

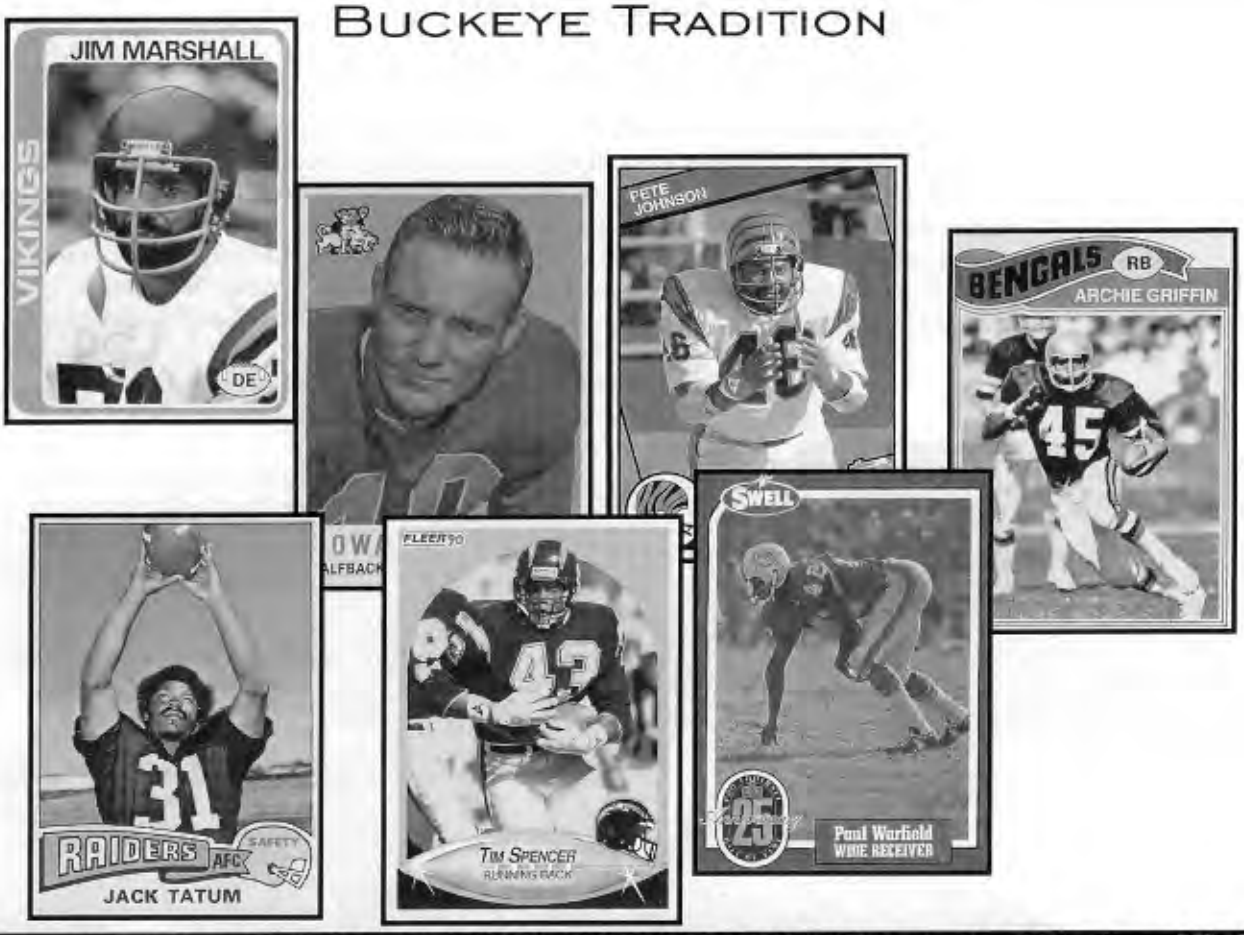
Buckeye Tradition



The late Les Horvath is shown here receiving a plaque from Director of Athletics Andy Geiger, celebrating the 50th anniversary of Horvath winning the 1944 Heisman Trophy. Also on hand for the presentation were Ohio State's other Heisman winners—the late Vic Janowicz, Howard "Hopalong" Cassady and Archie Griffin. Horvath and Janowicz both passed away last winter.

Archie Griffin is college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy winner.

- Few schools in the country can boast the overall history of success that the Ohio State Buckeyes have enjoyed over the years.
- Ohio State boasts six national championships, 143 All-Americans and college football's only two-time Heisman Trophy honoree, Archie Griffin (1974-75).
- The Buckeyes have also won 26 Big Ten championships, have participated in 28 bowl games and have had numerous players go on to participate in the NFL, including 44 first round selections.
- More than 30 million fans have witnessed 423 home games in Ohio Stadium the last 74 years.
- Other traditions include the annual Captain's Breakfast, the Buckeye Grove (a Buckeye tree planted for each All-American), the awarding of Buckeye leaves on game helmets for outstanding play and miniature Gold Pants for defeating Michigan.

Head Coach Woody Hayes led Ohio State to a sparkling 205-61-10 record, five national championships and 13 Big Ten titles from 1951-78.

Chris Spielman, an All-Pro Linebacker who is now with the Buffalo Bills, won the Lombardi Award in 1987.

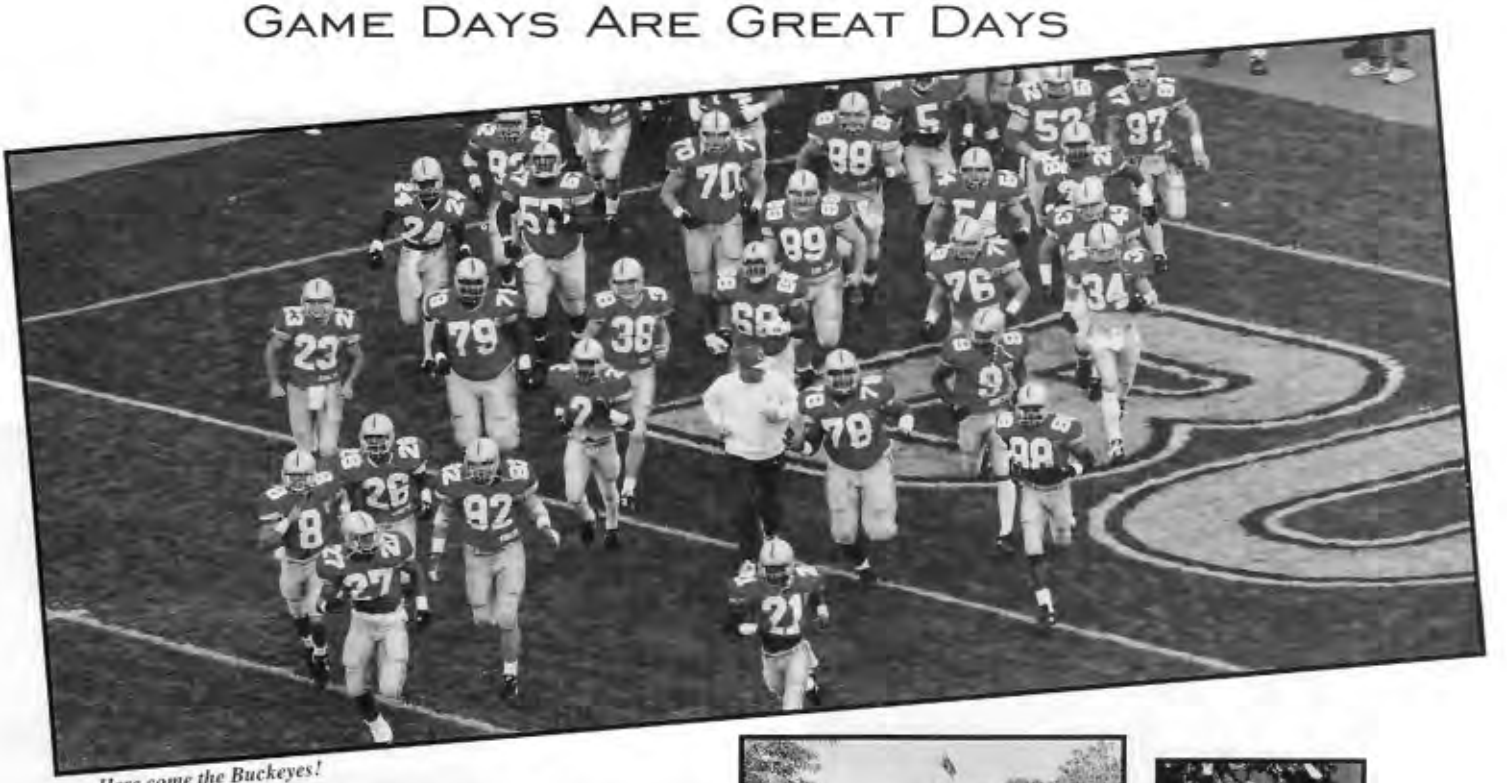
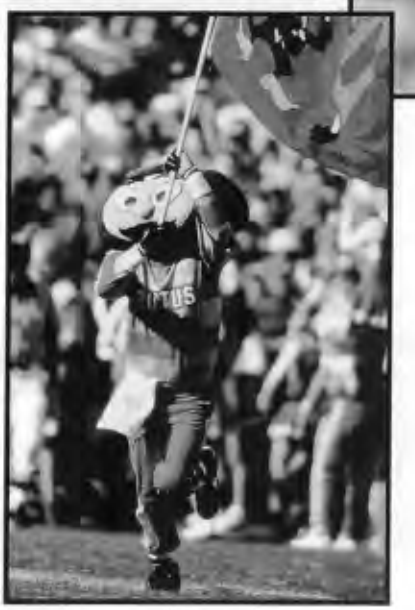
Game Days Are Great Days



Here come the Buckeyes!



Columbus

The home of The Ohio State University

- Columbus is one of the nation's largest metropolitan areas with 1.4 million residents.
- The city is fun and exciting. The downtown is alive with special events, like the Columbus Arts Festival; Red, White and BOOM! over the Fourth of July; the Jazz and Rib Festival and the Picnic with the Pops concert series.
- Shopping is easy at the enormous City Center mall, and the Ohio and Palace theatres and new Polaris Amphitheatre host some of the finest musical and entertainment acts in the country. There's also the "Short North" area, full of boutiques, galleries and coffee shops.
- Everywhere you turn, there are new and different ways to spend your free time. With so many different things to offer, Columbus is truly an exciting city.

For the Media

Athletic Communications – The Ohio State Athletic Communications Office is located in room 124 of St. John Arena. The mailing address is 410 Woody Hayes Dr., Columbus, O. and the phone number is (614) 292-6861. Steve Snapp is the Director of Athletic Communications, Gerry Emig is Associate Director and D. C. Koehl and Liz Cook are the assistant directors.

Media Guide – The Ohio State football guide is intended to assist you in your coverage of Ohio State football. Every effort has been made to ensure its accurateness. It is our hope that this guide will be an invaluable asset to you during the upcoming season. Members of the media needing additional guides should contact the Athletic Communications Office.

Fall Practice Dates - The Ohio State freshmen are scheduled to report on Aug. 12 and the upperclassmen on Aug. 15. Picture Day is Aug. 16 and the first full team practice is scheduled for Aug. 17. Per NCAA requirements, Aug. 21 will be the first day in pads.

Weekly Press Luncheon – Ohio State coach John Cooper conducts a weekly press conference each Tuesday. This year's luncheons will be at the University Ramada Hotel in Septmber and November and at the University Golf Course Restaurant in October. Lunch is served promptly at 11:30 a.m., followed by Coach Cooper's interview session. When the schedule permits the coach of the opposing team will be available by phone.

Weekly Release – Ohio State's weekly release and stat package, which includes notes and two-deeps, is available each Monday over the Big Ten's Fax-on-Demand service. Releases are not mailed unless specifically requested. Members of the media are asked to contact the Athletic Communications Office for the Fax-on-Demand phone number.

Satellite Up Link – Coach Cooper's weekly press luncheon, along with interviews with key Ohio State players and game footage from the previous week's game, will be available via satellite each Wednesday, beginning Sept. 4 and running through Nov. 20. Please contact Athletic Communications for time and coordinate information.

Coach and Player Teleconference – From time-to-time throughout the season, Coach Cooper and selected Ohio State players will be available on a teleconference call between 1:30 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. Please check with the Athletic Communications Office each Monday for the phone number. This service is designed to aid out-of-town and national media.

Practices – The Ohio State football team practices at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center on Olentangy River Rd. Please check with the Athletic Communications Office concerning covering practice.

Player Interviews – During preseason, the best time for player interviews is immediately after lunch at Fawcett Center. Once fall camp is over, players are available before practice on Tuesday and after practice on Wednesday. Please keep in mind that from time-to-time players will not be available because of late classes or other commitments. All interviews should be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office.

Coach Cooper Interviews – Coach Cooper is generally available for short interviews after practice. To arrange anything of a longer duration, please contact his secretary, Julie Bonfini, at (614) 292-7620.

Cooper Call-in Show – Coach Cooper's weekly radio call-in show can be heard at 7 p.m. each Tuesday during the season on WBNS AM & FM in Columbus and on the WBNS statewide radio network. Please check with Ed Douglas at WBNS (614 460-3850) for the station in your area.

Cooper Television Show – Coach Cooper's weekly television show airs in Columbus and around the state on Sunday mornings at 11:30 during the season. WBNS-TV (Channel 10) is the outlet in Columbus. Other stations include: WLWT (Cincinnati), WLIO (Lima), WTRF (Wheeling), WHIO (Dayton), WTVG (Toledo). The Cooper Show will also air on two paid cable networks, SportsChannel Ohio and KBL Sports Network in Pittsburgh.

Credentials – Season credentials will be mailed out approximately two weeks before the season. Single-game passes will be mailed to the opposing team's Sports Information Director approximately one week before the game for distribution. All other single-game passes will be held for pick up at the Parke University Hotel, 3025 Olentangy River Rd., and will be available beginning four hours before game time on Saturdays.

Ohio Stadium Press Box – The Press Box is on the west side of Ohio Stadium. The Press Box elevator is located near gate 19. Members of the media should enter the stadium through game 19 and take the elevator to the "P-2" level. The Press Box opens three hours before kickoff.

Photographers – Those persons requesting photo credentials will receive a letter of authorization that must be exchanged at gate 19 for an armband. Armbands are to be worn on the arm at all times. Armbands are good for access to the Press Box before the game and at halftime, but not during the game. Photographers are asked to kneel on the sideline and stay behind the 12-foot restraining line and out of the bench area.

Radio Reports – Non-broadcasting stations that receive credentials for the game are restricted to 60-second reports between quarters and at the half. Live reports while the game is in progress are not permitted. This policy also applies to Ohio State's away games. Violators of this policy will have their credentials revoked.

Game Times – Ohio State home games start at 1:30 p.m., but are subject to change because of television. If ABC selects a game, the normal starting time is 3:36 p.m. Games selected by ESPN begin at 12:36 p.m.

Ohio State on the Road — Ohio State will depart for each site via a charter airplane on Friday evenings and will return to Columbus immediately following the game. Hotel information follows:

Buckeye Notes

Last Year – The Buckeyes finished the 1995 campaign with an 11-2 record and were ranked sixth in the final Associated Press poll and eighth in the CNN/USA Today voting. Last year's sixth place finish in the AP poll was OSU's best showing since 1986.

1996 Major Awards Candidates – Offensive tackle Orlando Pace (Heisman Trophy, Lombardi Award, Outland Trophy), Linebacker Greg Bellisari (Butkus Award), Cornerback Shawn Springs (Thorpe Award), Tailback Pepe Pearson (Doak Walker Award), Wide receiver Buster Tillman (Biletnikoff Award)

John Cooper – The veteran mentor is in is ninth season in Columbus. His record with the Buckeyes is 65-28-4 and includes a Big Ten mark of 42-18-4. At 24-6-2, he owns the best record in the conference over the past four years. His last three teams have a combined record of 30-7-1 and are 19-4-1 in Big Ten play. Cooper, whose 19-year career record is 147-68-6, has been a finalist for National Coach of the Year in two of the past three years.

More Cooper – As noted earlier, Cooper has completed eight seasons with the Buckeyes. Only three head football coaches have experienced longer tenures at Ohio State. Woody Hayes served for 28 years (1951-1978), John Wilce for 16 (1913-1928) and Earle Bruce for nine (1979-87).

Staff Changes – There are several changes on this year's football staff. Fred Pagac has taken over as defensive coordinator, replacing Bill Young who went to Oklahoma. Pagac (pronounced Pug-itch) will continue to coach the OSU linebackers, while Jim Heacock will take over Young's duties as defensive line coach. Heacock (pronounced Hay-cock) comes to Ohio State from Northern Illinois, where he had been head coach for eight years. The other new face on this year's staff is Jon Tenuta, who replaces Lovie Smith as defensive backfield coach. Tenuta comes to Ohio State from the University of Oklahoma, where he coached the defensive secondary.

Pagac Note – Fred Pagac is starting his 15th year as a member of the Ohio State football staff. Only Ernie Godfrey with 33 years of service (1929-61), Esco Sarkkinen with 32 (1946-77) and Harry Strobel with 19 (1949-67) have served longer stints as Buckeye assistants.

Key Losses – Gone from last year's team are Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George (1,927 yards and 25 touchdowns), three-year starting quarterback Bobby Hoying (3,269 yards and 29 touchdowns), Biletnikoff Award winner Terry Glenn (64 receptions, 17 TDs and 1,411 yards) and tight end Rickey Dudley (37 catches, 575 yards and seven TDs). Left guard Jamie Sumner, a two-year starter, and defensive tackle Matt Bonhaus are the other two departees.

1995 All-Americas – George, Glenn, Pace and Vrabel all earned first-team All-America honors last year, marking the first time since 1977 that the Buckeyes have had four first-team picks.

1995 All-Big Ten – In addition to the previously mentioned foursome, Hoying, Springs and Dudley were all named to last year's all-Big Ten team. Pace was selected as the Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year and Vrabel chosen as the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year.

Drafted - Ohio State had three first-round picks in last year's NFL Draft (Apr. 20): Glenn to New England, Dudley to Oakland and George to Houston. Additionally, Hoying was taken in the third round by Philadelphia. Ohio State has produced 10 first-round choices in the 1990s, seven of which have come the past three years.

Academic Success – Ohio State's success last year was not limited to the football field. The Buckeyes also fared well in the classroom with Greg Bellisari being named to a first-team berth on the GTE CoSida Academic All-America team and Hoying winning a National Football Foundation Scholarship and the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award as the top senior scholar-athlete in college football. Additionally, a total of 12 players were named to the Big Ten's All-Academic Team. They were: Dave Becker, Bellisari, Brooks Burris, Luke Fickell, Brian Heinen, Bob Houser, Bob and Tom Hoying, Josh Jackson, D. J. Jones, Jerry Rudzinski and Brian Stoughton. In order to be eligible for that team, a player must have a GPA of 3.00 or better.

Five-Year Starter — Senior nose guard Luke Fickell has started 38 consecutive games since the beginning of the 1993 season. Fickell also started the 1992 Bowling Green game (he was hurt in practice the next week and missed the remainder of the season, however), giving him 39 career starts heading into the current season. Assuming he starts every game this year, and the Buckeyes play in a bowl game, he will have a school-record 51 starts to his credit at the end of the 1996 campaign.

All-time Record – The Buckeyes' all-time record now stands at 678-272-53, including a Big Ten mark of 365-140-24. This is Ohio State's 107th year of football.

Big Ten Titles – Since joining the Big Ten in 1913, Ohio State has won 26 conference championships, including a league best 15 outright crowns.

Transferred – Defensive tackle Marcus Spriggs transferred to Troy State at the end of the 1995 Fall Quarter. Spriggs, from Washington, D. C., was expected to be a backup for Winfield Garnett. He played a total of 24 minutes in eight games last year, collecting three tackles.

Jones Given Green Light – Tight end D.J. Jones, who missed the 1995 season after undergoing open-heart surgery, will return to action this year. Jones, a starter in 1994, had surgery in June of 1995 to remove part of the pericardium, which had hardened and was restricting the expansion of the heart during exercise. The hardening of the heart resulted from a condition known as histoplasmosis. Following the surgery, which involved cracking the sternum, Jones began lifting weights in the fall and was given the OK to practice last spring.

Attendance Records Shattered – Ohio State drew a total of 561,057 fans last year, setting a school record for six home games with an average of 93,510. The old mark for six games had been 93,114 in 1993. The Buckeyes also broke the single-game Ohio Stadium record last year with a crowd of 95,537 against Notre Dame on Sept. 30.

Individual Leaders – George led the nation in scoring last year with an average of 12.0 points per game. He also finished fourth in all-purpose running (185.42) and fifth in rushing average (152.17). Glenn finished first in average yards per catch (23.09), fourth in receiving yards per game (119.16) and eighth in scoring (9.45). Hoying, meanwhile, was second in passing efficiency (170.4) and 13th in total offense (254.67).

Team Totals — The Buckeyes finished sixth nationally in scoring offense with an average of 38.4 points per game (regular-season games only). They were also fifth in total offense at 490.58.

Luke Fickell

Buckeye All-Star Candidates

Orlando Pace
6-6, 320, OLT, Jr.

The 1995 Lombardi Award Winner . . . consensus All-America . . . runner-up Outland Trophy . . . Big Ten Offensive Lineman of the Year . . . will be in his third year as a starter . . . may well be the best player in college football this year and is a Heisman Trophy candidate.

Matt Finkes
6-2, 258, DE, Sr.

Three-year starter . . . Ohio State's Defensive MVP in the 1995 & 1996 Citrus Bowls . . . ranks third in career tackles for loss with 43 and fourth in career sacks with 19.

Mike Vrabel
6-4, 260, DE, Sr.

The 1995 Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year . . . first-team All-America . . . set school records for single-season sacks (13) and tackles for loss (26) . . . will be in his third year as a starter.

Shawn Springs
6-0, 190, CB, Jr.

In his third year as a starter . . . 1995 All-Big Ten, led Ohio State in interceptions, even though he played hurt most of the year . . . 1996 preseason All-America pick.

Greg Bellisari
6-1, 230, LB, Sr.

Led the team in tackles last year with 98 . . . one of 10 finalists for the Butkus Award . . . First-team Academic All-America . . . will be on his third year as a starter.

Buster Tillman
6-2, 192, SE, Sr.

Ohio State's leading returning receiver . . . has 63 receptions the past two years, including 30 for 538 yards last year . . . can play either split end or flanker . . . has played in the shadows of Joey Galloway and Terry Glenn the past two years, but is expected to emerge this year.

Luke Fickell
6-4, 270, NG, Sr.

In his fourth year as a starter . . . coming off another solid year in which he finished with a career-best 61 tackles and had nine tackles for loss . . . a vastly underrated player.

Juan Porter
6-4, 295, OC, Sr.

In his third year as a starter . . . coming off his best year . . . second on the offensive unit in playing time in 1995 . . . makes all the calls at the line of scrimmage . . . another underrated performer.

1996 Ohio State Football Outlook

His arms folded, John Cooper, clad in a white T-shirt and red coaching shorts, leaned back in his chair at the Woody Hayes Athletic Center. On the wall behind him was a large picture of Ohio Stadium that was adorned at either end with a strand of Buckeyes on scarlet and gray twine. In the locker room next to his office, players traded good-natured barbs as they finished their individual workouts.

"We expect to have another very good football team," said Cooper, analyzing the Buckeyes' prospects for the forthcoming 1996 season. "Our strengths will be a veteran defense and an experienced offensive line. Our concerns are replacing the great football players that we lost, especially at the skill positions on offense, and developing depth in a couple of areas.

"But I expect us to be very competitive. This is a senior-dominated team and our players know what it takes to get the job done."

The Buckeyes return 40 lettermen, including 18 starters — 10 on defense, six on offense and two kickers — from last year's 11-2 team, a squad that soared to No. 2 in the national polls in late November and wound up sixth in the final rankings. Thirteen of those returning starters are seniors.

The list of holdovers includes junior All-America tackle Orlando Pace, arguably the best football player, at any position, in college football, defensive ends extraordinaire Mike Vrabel and Matt Finkes and cornerback Shawn Springs, a leading candidate for the Thorpe Award. They, along with center Juan Porter, split end Buster Tillman, nose guard Luke Fickell and linebacker Greg Bellisari, will form the nucleus of Cooper's ninth Ohio State team.

The losses, however, are significant.

Gone from last year's record setting offense are Heisman Trophy winner Eddie George (1,927 yards and 25 touchdowns) at tailback, Biletnikoff Award recipient Terry Glenn (64 receptions, 17 TDs and 1,411 yards) at flanker and three-year starter Bobby Hoying (29 touchdown passes and 3,269 yards throwing) at quarterback. Statistically, they rank as the three most productive players at their respective positions in Ohio State history.

Also gone on offense are tight end Rickey Dudley (37 receptions and seven TDs) and Jamie Sumner, a two-year starter at left guard. The lone loss on defense is co-captain Matt Bonhaus, a two-year starter at tackle.

Cooper and his staff, which includes two new faces this year, plugged some of those holes in the spring.

"We answered some questions," said Cooper, leaning forward in his chair. "But there are still some that are unanswered, including quarterback. Replacing Bobby will be our No. 1 priority in the fall."

Holdover Stanley Jackson and junior college transfers Joe Germaine and Mark Garcia are the candidates to succeed Hoying. None of the three gained a decisive edge in the spring.

"One of them has to step forward in the fall and show us he can get the job done," said Cooper.

There is apparently no question whatsoever at tailback, where junior Pepe Pearson has clearly established himself as George's replacement.

"Pepe has separated himself from the other tailback candidates," said Cooper. "I expect great things from him this year. I'll be disappointed if he doesn't rush for 1,500 yards."

"I think he is ready to become the player we all thought he could be," said Cooper of the 6-6, 310-pound defensive tackle. "He can be a real force."

Cooper called fullback Matt Keller and defensive end Clinton Wayne the biggest surprises of the spring. Keller, a redshirt freshman, was switched from tailback to fullback in the spring and made the transition smoothly and willingly. Wayne, a true freshman, enrolled at the beginning of Spring Quarter and impressed the coaches with his aggressiveness and physical style of play.

"Unless I miss my guess, both of those young men will help us this year," predicts Cooper.

Cooper looked at a schedule card on his desk. On the front was a picture of several of the individual trophies won by the Buckeyes last year.

"Next year we need to make sure the Big Ten championship trophy is on these cards," he said as he rose from his chair and headed for the coaches' meeting room.

Offense

The six returning starters include four of the five interior linemen. Also back is tight end D.J. Jones, who started two years ago, but sat out last season after undergoing open-heart surgery. Depth along the front is a concern, meaning several of the incoming freshmen will get a look during fall camp.

As Cooper noted, the skill positions have been depleted. Besides Dudley George, Glenn and Hoying, fullback Nicky Sualua's status is uncertain because of academic concerns. Hoying's leadership qualities and coolness under fire will be missed, so will Glenn's electrifying quickness and game-breaking speed.

Wide Receiver — Buster Tillman returns at split end and Dimitrious Stanley is expected to take over for Glenn at flanker. Both players can play either position and will probably flip-flop from time-to-time during the season. Tillman caught 30 passes last year and is OSU's top returning receiver. Stanley had 13 receptions and four touchdowns and is an elusive runner after he catches the ball. Dee Miller (five catches for 47 yards in 1995) and redshirt freshman Jimmy Redmond (OSU's fastest receiver) are the backups at split end and flanker, respectively, but they, too, are interchangeable in terms of positions. Walk-on Matt Furry was impressive enough in the spring to merit a longer look in the fall and the coaches, who are looking for a burner, will give incoming freshmen Vanness Provitt, David Boston and Darik Warnke a chance to show what they can do.

Tight End — Thanks to the return of Jones, a 6-4, 260-pound senior who had 18 receptions for 254 yards in 1994, this is one of the deepest positions on the squad. Also back are three-year letterman Bob Houser, who has five career starts to his credit, and has been a steady, heady performer throughout his career; sophomore John Lumpkin, a 6-9, 270-pound diamond-in-the-rough; and redshirt freshman Steve Wisnewski. Additionally, Tommy Hoying moved over from quarterback in the spring and could be a factor.

Tackle — Pace, who will be in his third year as a starter on the left side. At 6-6 and 320, he dominates opposing defensive players with an unbelievable blend of speed, strength and agility. He is unquestionably one of the finest offensive linemen ever to play for the Buckeyes and a cinch bet to reap numerous national honors again this year. Eric Gohlstin, meanwhile, returns at right tackle. The 6-4, 300-pound junior led the team in playing time last year an played well in his first year as a starter. Larry Waldon, who sat out last year because of academic difficulties, will be the third tackle. The 6-6, 320-pound junior was a solid backup to Korey Stringer in 1994 and would have challenged Gohlstin for a starting spot last year had he been eligible. Additonal depth will have to come from the freshman class.

Guard — Steady and dependable LeShun Daniels (6-2 and 295) returns for his third year as a starter on the right side. A fine athlete and an excellent one-on-one blocker, he has become one of the Buckeyes' most consistent linemen. Brooks Burris (6-6, 285) and Rob Murphy (6-5, 250) are the candidates to replace Sumner. Burris was the Buckeyes' third tackle last year and was switched to guard in the spring. Murphy is a highly thought of second-year freshman. Both had good springs. Burris is especially valuable because of his ability to play guard or tackle.

Second-year frosh Drew Elford will back up Daniels.

Center — Senior Juan Porter (6-4, 285) will again anchor the OSU middle. In his third year as a stater, he is one of the top centers in the Big Ten and should be in the running for postseason honors. Going into fall practice, Gohlstin is listed as the backup, but that will change once the freshmen arrive.

Quarterback — With the switch of Tom Hoying to tight end, junior Stanley Jackson is the lone holdover and he played just 55 minutes last year. Junior Mark Garcia and sophomore Joe Germaine, both junior college products, are the other two candidates. The threesome battled to a draw in the spring, so the position appears to be wide open heading into the fall. Jackson has the advantage of knowing the system and is an exceptional athlete who really worked hard in the off-season in terms of mental preparation. Garcia is another solid athlete and has a "big-time" arm and delivery. He threw for 31 touchdowns last year at Modesto JC. Garcia was another pleasant surprise in the spring. Counted out by some people, he just refused to go away and played particularly well in the Spring Game. The coaches like his savvy, patience and willingness to take what the defense gives him.

Tailback — For the first time in four years, the Buckeyes won't have a big bruiser at running back. But don't expect any letdown. At 5-10 and 206, Pearson may not have the size of 1993 regular Raymont Harris (6-2, 230) or 1994-95 starter George (6-3, 227), but he does have excellent acceleration and speed and is blessed with tremendous vision and instinct. Running behind one of the best offensive lines in college football, he is a threat to go all the was any time he touches the ball. Junior Jermon Jackson is a solid backup and Joe Montgomery has thrown himself into the mix with an impressive spring effort. The OSU freshman class is loaded with talent at this position, so running backs' coach Tim Spencer will have plenty of choices in the fall.

Fullback — The 5-11, 260-pound Sualua is an immensely talented football player who can block, run and catch with the best of them. But if he is unable to play, fifth-year senior Matt Calhoun and Keller will share the duties. Calhoun has played in 34 games and has five starts during his career. He is a fine blocker and short-yardage runner. Keller is a good all-around athlete and a sure-handed recevier. But Sualua is a key player and certainly would be missed.

Defense

After 14 years as linebackers coach, former OSU tight end Fred Pagac takes over as defensive coordinator. Look for the Buckeyes to be more aggressive and more physical under his tutelage. The two biggest questions heading into the fall are: can someone step in at middle linebacker and allow incumbent Greg Bellisari to move back outside where he started two years ago, and where to play exciting sophomore Antoine Winfield?

D-Line — Vrabel and Finkes return for their third year as the starting defensive ends. Between them they have collected 91 tackles for loss and 46 sacks the past three years. They also have combined for nine fumbles caused, three recoveries and five blocked kicks. Vrabel set school records for tackles for loss and sacks last year. Finkes was OSU's defensive MVP in the Citrus Bowl. Both are superb football players. Jeff Wilson, a very promising sophomore, and second-year freshman Tony Eisenhard will be the backups.

Fickell will again be the nose guard. One of the most underrated players in the Big Ten, he will be in his fourth year as a starter and is a rock in the middle. The 6-4, 270-pound senior had a career-high 61 tackles last season. Shane Clark, a walk-on who has since been converted to scholarship, will be Fickell's backup.

Garnett gives OSU a physical presence at tackle that really has the coaching staff excited. If he plays in the fall like he did in the spring, the Buckeyes' front four will be as good as any in the country. John Day, a converted defensive end, will add depth. Wayne, the freshman from Ontario, can help either at end or tackle.

Linebackers — Greg Bellisari, Ryan Miller, Kevin Johnson, Jerry Rudzinski, Marc Willis, Roedell Dupree and Matt LaVrar are the pieces in a complicated puzzle that could also include incoming freshmen Andy Katzenmoyer and Na'il Diggs. The challenge for Pagac and staff is to see who best fits where.

Bellisari (6-1, 235) started in the middle last season and led the team in tackles with 98. But he could move back to the boundary this year (where he started in 1994) if either the 6-3, 245-pound Dupree or the 6-4, 250-pound Katzenmoyer (last year's USA Today High School Defensive Player of the Year) demonstrate in the fall that they can get the job done in the middle.

Miller returns on the wide side and Johnson on the boundary. But if Bellisari does move outside, there could be some wholesale shuffling. And if there isn't, both players will have to fight off challenges — Miller by the athletic Willis, a converted safety who is still learning the intracacies of the position, and Johson by Rudzinski, the starter last year until being hurt in practice the second week of the season.

LaVrar, a hard-hitting redshirt freshman, had an excellent spring, and Diggs, the last player signed by the Buckeyes last winter, is another very talented athlete.

Defensive Backs — This is another revolving door. Shawn Springs and Ty Howard are the returning corners and Anthony Gwinn and Rob Kelly the holdovers at the two safety spots.

The talented Springs did not practice in the spring because of medical reasons (he will be 100 percent in the fall), so Howard and Winfield were the corners. Kelly, meanwhile, moved from strong to free safety and emerged from spring ball with a slight edge over Gwinn. Sophomore Damon Moore, a playmaker and a hitter, took over for Kelly at strong safety.

How they will line up in the fall is still up for discussion. One scenario has Springs moving back to free safety, with Winfield and Howard at the corners and either Moore or Kelly at strong safety. That lineup would put a premium on speed and allow Pagac to play more man coverage and increase his blitz package. Sophomores Central McClellion and Ché Bryant are capable reserves.

The Kicking Game

The Buckeyes actually return three kickers from last year. Consistency will be the buzz word in the fall for Cooper who is hoping for better production in all areas, including the return game.

Punting — Sophomore Brent Bartholomew returns at punter. After some early season jitters, he finished the 1995 campaign on a strong note, turning in two of his best performances against Michigan and Tennessee.

Placekicking — Senior Josh Jackson is in his third year as the Buckeyes' PAT and field goal specialist. He has made 26 of 34 field goal attempts during his OSU career, including10 of 15 last year. Junior Mike Malfatt will once again handle kickoffs and field goal attempts of 40 or more yards.

Returns — Stanley and Springs are sure-handed punt returners, and Springs also runs back kickoffs. Pearson and Jackson also are possibility for the latter, as are several of the incoming freshmen backs.

Summary

Topping last year will not be easy, but the Buckeyes again have a talented football team and Cooper believes that this is a team that can challenge for the Big Ten title.

Brent Bartholomew - 41

6-2 • 198 • Sophomore • P
Apopka, Fla. (Apopka) • 10-22-76
Major: Communications

Will be in his second year as the Buckeyes' punter . . . one of just two true freshmen who saw action last year for OSU . . . won the starting punting job in the fall and did all the Buckeyes' punting . . . was inconsistent through the first half of the season (a 53-yarder in the opener with Boston College and a seven-yarder at Wisconsin in game six) but finished on a strong note and wound up with a 36.9 average on 42 punts . . . his three best games were against Penn State (47.7 on three kicks), Michigan (44.1 on seven) and Tennessee (48.1 on seven) . . . had 11 kicks downed inside the 20 and just five touchbacks . . . longest kick of the year was 65 yards in the bowl game (he had three kicks of 50 or more yards against Tennessee) . . . 52 yarder at Michigan was his best effort in conference play . . . has a big-time leg and is kicking with a lot of confidence as he heads into the 1996 campaign.

Other — Plans to major in broadcasting . . . outgoing and articulate . . . both of his parents are graduates of Florida State.

High School — Averaged 46 yards per kick as a senior and 48 as a junior . . . also kicked off . . . from the same high school that produced former OSU receiver Cedric Anderson and Miami All-America Warren Sapp.

6-5 • 255 • Junior • DT
Youngstown, O. (Ursuline)
11-20-73 • Major: Criminology

Reserve defensive lineman who has played both end and nose guard the past two years and now moves to tackle . . . was moved to the latter spot in the spring in an effort to find a backup for Winfield Garnett and develop some overall depth . . . had a good spring and impressed the coaches with his effort . . . has just 16 minutes of career playing time and no career tackles, but that could change this year . . . was a very sought after high school player, but a basketball knee injury has hampered his development in college . . . began last season as an end, but was moved to nose guard midway through the year in an effort to shore up the depth at that position . . . saw limited action in three games (Pittsburgh, Purdue and Iowa) . . . total playing time last year was six minutes.

1994 — Played in two games as a backup defensive end for a total of 10 minutes.

1993 — Hurt his knee playing basketball as a high school senior and underwent surgery in the summer, and did not enroll at OSU until Winter Quarter of 1993.

High School — Won Honorable Mention All-America as a senior on the Street & Smith team . . . also ran track (the hurdles).

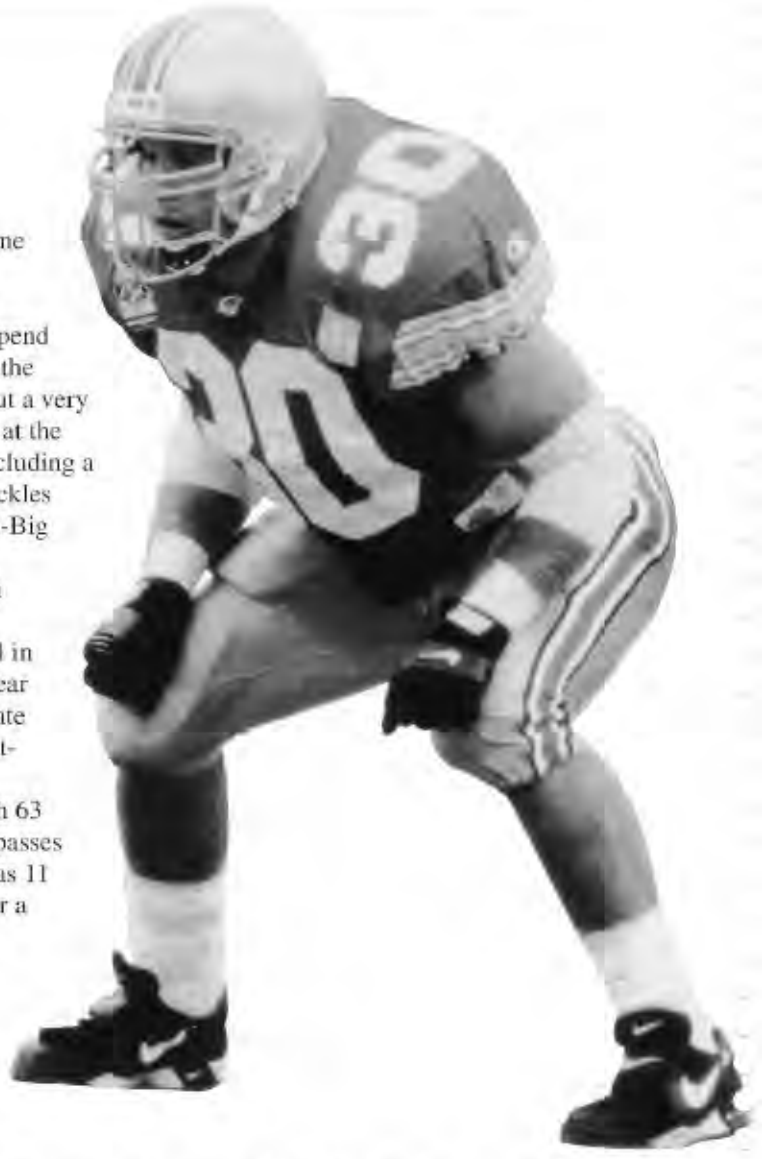
6-1 • 230 • Senior • MLB
Boca Raton, Fla. (Community)
6-21-75 • Major: Pre-med



A first-team Academic All-America and one of 10 finalists for the Butkus Award last year . . . will be in his third year as a starter . . . started on the outside as a sophomore and in the middle last year . . . could spend time at both spots this season and is capable of playing any of the three linebacker positions . . . not real big as linebackers go, but a very intelligent player, who has a knack for being in the right place at the right time . . . led the Buckeyes in tackles last year with 98, including a team-high 54 solos . . . also had three interceptions and five tackles for losses . . . postseason honors also included second-team all-Big Ten honors in a year when the conference boasted a bevy of outstanding linebackers . . . top game in terms of tackles was a career-high 12 against Notre Dame . . . also had 10 tackles against Washington and has shown a penchant for playing well in big games . . . will be a candidate for postseason honors this year and a nominee for a National Football Foundation Post Graduate Scholarship . . . outstanding leader . . . the consummate student-athlete.

1994 — Started all 13 games at the boundary and finished with 63 tackles, including 41 solos, four tackles for loss, a sack, three passes broken up and a team-high three interceptions . . . top game was 11 tackles against Michigan . . . his 35-yard interception return for a touchdown at Michigan State was the first such runback by a Buckeye linebacker since the 1987 Cotton Bowl.

1993 — Backed up Mark Williams at the boundary and played in 11 of the 12 games . . . had 12 tackles.

High School — First team all-state (class AAAA) and South Florida Player of the Year as a senior . . . also a standout baseball player . . . a National Football Foundation scholarship winner.

Other — Named to the Big Ten's All-Academic team each of the past three years . . . also picked on the District IV Academic squad each of the past two years . . . his mother, father, a sister and an aunt and uncle are all Ohio State grads.

Ché Bryant - 18

6-1 • 200 • Junior • SS
Canton, O. (McKinley) • 1-8-75
Major: Communication

Moved from free safety to strong safety in the spring and will vie for the starting spot . . . talented young player with excellent speed . . . also a valuable member of the special teams . . . played in all 12 regular-season games last year, but did not see any action in the bowl game . . . logged a total of 67 minutes, with 13 of those minutes coming against Iowa for his longest stint of the season . . . finished the 1995 campaign with 16 tackles, 10 of which were solo stops . . . three tackles against Purdue was his top game in terms of number of tackles . . . had his first career interception and a pass broken up against Boston College in the Kickoff Classic . . . also had a pick at Minnesota, returning that one 35 yards to set up an OSU touchdown . . . gets a great jump on the ball.
1994 — Was impressive early at safety and was pressing for playing time, but injured his right knee in practice and underwent surgery in September, prematurely ending his rookie season.
High School — Named to a first-team berth on the Parade All-America team as a senior . . . won first-team all-Ohio honors on offense at running back as a junior (1,816 yards his last two years) and at defensive back as a senior . . . helped lead McKinley to a 9-1 record as a junior and an 8-2 mark and a spot in the state playoffs as a senior . . . recruited by everyone.

Brooks Burris - 67

6-6 • 295 • Junior • OG
Logan, O. (Logan) • 10-31-75
Major: Business

Moved from tackle to guard in the spring and heads into the fall as the starter on the left side . . . fine athlete, who has added weight and has greatly improved his strength since coming to OSU . . . has the speed and quickness to pull and lead a sweep . . . could be an enormous asset on the line because of his size . . . was the Buckeyes' No. 3 tackle last year backing up both All-America Orlando Pace on the left side and Eric Gohlstin on the right as the need arose . . . stepped in for Pace (who had gone to the locker room with an upset stomach) on the last series of the first half against Notre Dame and helped the Buckeyes march 76 yards in 12 plays for a touchdown that gave Ohio State some much needed momentum going into the lockerroom (OSU won the game 45-26) . . . played in 11 of the 13 games (all but Penn State and Tennessee) . . . gained valuable experience the last half of the season, playing 17 minutes against Iowa, 11 against Illinois and almost 10 against Indiana . . . extremely valuable because of his versatility.
1994 — Did not see any playing time at tackle, but impressed the coaches with his raw talent.
High School — Prep All-America and the Ohio Southeast District Player of the Year . . . played in the Ohio-Pennsylvania Big 33 All-Star Game after his senior year. . . played a year of basketball and was a four-year letterman in track, winning the state indoor and outdoor shot put titles as a senior (56'4" and 57'8").
Other — One of several outstanding athletes to come out of Logan, including current Buckeye placekicker Josh Jackson and former OSU women's basketball All-America Katie Smith . . . his father, Robert, is an Ohio State graduate . . . Brooks' ambition after football is to own his own business.

Matt Calhoun - 39

6-0 • 237 • Senior • FB
Heath, O. (Heath) • 12-31-73
Major: Marketing Education

Fifth-year senior . . . has been a key reserve at fullback the past two years, playing in 25 of Ohio State's 26 games and starting five times . . . started the first two games last year (Boston College and Washington) and had a career long 27-yard run against BC . . . came in against Tennessee in the bowl game and played well when starter Nicky Sualua was on the sideline with an injury . . . wound the year up with 32 yards on three carries . . . longest playing stint was 17 minutes against Illinois . . . has been used primarily as a blocker throughout his career and has just 12 carries . . . has made the most of his opportunities, averaging 5.9 yards per carry . . . tough, hard working player who is always ready when called upon . . . also plays on the special teams.

1994 — Played in 12 games and started the Pittsburgh, Houston and Northwestern games . . . netted 20 yards on four carries . . . slowed by a shoulder injury the last half of the season and had surgery on that shoulder (his right) following the season.

1993 — Played briefly in nine games, logging a total of 25 minutes and scoring his only career touchdown on a one-yard run against Rice.

1992 — Did not see any playing time.

High School — Four-year starter, amassing 2,500 yards during his career . . . named to Blue Chip's preseason All-America team as a senior and responded by rushing for 1,387 yards and 20 touchdowns.

Buckeye Recruiting Class Grabs Headlines

19 Out Of 26 Players Signed Earned All-America Honors

Recruiting is the foundation of a program, the cornerstone that is laid down for future success on the field. When people talk about the 1996 Ohio State recruiting class, the words "number one" come to many experts' minds so the foundation has certainly been laid for Buckeye success for years to come.

The 1996 Buckeye recruiting class ranks as one of the top classes brought in by any school in the 1990s and could eventually rank as one of the top hauls of all-time.

In national rankings by seven publications, the Buckeyes have been judged to have the top class in six of them and were a close second in the other. Bluechip Illustrated, Tom Lemming of Prep Football Report, Bobby Burton of The National Recruiting Advisor, Phil Grosz of G & W (a Penn State based magazine), Max Emfinger of National Bluechips Recruiting and Bill Kurelic of The Ohio Football Recruiting News all rate the Buckeyes No. 1, while Allen Wallace of SuperPrep has OSU tabbed at No. 2.

The class is loaded with All-Americans. The Buckeyes have brought in two consensus All-Americans and a total of 19 out of the 26 players signed were All-America selections on at least one of the above seven publications, along with USA Today and Parade.

OSU Football Dateline

1890 - Varsity football began, and the Buckeyes won their opener at Ohio Wesleyan, 20-14. OSU lost its other three games by a combined score of 96-10. Alexander Lilley was the first head coach.

1897 - The first game with Michigan was played and the Wolverines won, 34-0.

1899 - The Buckeyes won their first state title and recorded their first unbeaten season at 9-0-1. OSU outscored its foes 179-0 in the nine wins and tied Case, 5-5.

1902 - Fred Cornell wrote the words to "Carmen Ohio" on the back of an envelope as the team returned from Ann Arbor following an 86-0 loss. It was officially recognized as the alma mater in 1916.

1904 - E.R. Sweetland became the school's first "all-year" football coach. Ticket prices ranged from 25 cents to a dollar for "deluxe" games with Michigan and the Carlisle Indians.

1910 - The first spring practices were held on Mondays and Tuesdays. That same spring, the Athletic Board approved a $5 all-year, five-sport student pass. A student season football pass cost $2.50.

1912 - Ohio State joined the Western Conference, which later became the Big Ten. With five minutes remaining in the Penn State game and OSU trailing 37-0, coach John Richards took the Buckeyes off the field because of alleged rough play, and PSU was awarded a 1-0 win.

1915 - Varsity manager William A. Dougherty wrote the fight song "Across the Field." The song was dedicated to coach John Wilce and was first performed at the Illinois game.

1916 - Ohio State won its first Western Conference title. The Buckeyes set a school scoring mark in defeating Oberlin, 128-0.

1919 - The Buckeyes gain their first win over Michigan, 13-3.

1921 - Ohio State made its first trip to the Rose Bowl but lost to California to finish 7-1.

1922 - Ohio Stadium opened and the Buckeyes defeated Ohio Wesleyan, 5-0. The stadium was officially dedicated two weeks later against Michigan.

1934 - The tradition of an annual Captain's Breakfast began in which all former grid captains are invited to a breakfast and welcome the current team captains.

1942 - The Buckeyes won their first national championship. Head coach Paul Brown led the team to a 9-1 record and the Big Ten title.

1943 - With the game apparently ending in a 26-all tie, Ohio State and Illinois left the field. But the teams were called back 20 minutes later when it was discovered the Illini were called for a penalty on the Buckeyes' final play. With little of the crowd remaining, John Stungis kicked a 27-yard field goal for a 29-26 win.

1947 - Ohio State was afforded three plays after time had expired due to Northwestern penalties and came away with a 7-6 victory in Ohio Stadium.

1949 - OSU beat California, 17-14, for its first Rose Bowl win.

1950 - Vic Janowicz won the Heisman Trophy and the famous "Snow Bowl" game with Michigan was contested.

1951 - Woody Hayes began his 28-year tenure as head coach. His initial Buckeye squad finished 4-3-2.

1954 - Hayes led OSU to the national championship and perfect 10-0 season, beating Southern Cal in Rose Bowl.

1955 - The first athletic scholarships were available at OSU.

1956 - Offensive guard Jim Parker won the Outland Trophy.

1957 - The Buckeyes were national champions after a 9-1 campaign and a Rose Bowl win over Oregon.

1958 - Defensive tackle Jim Marshall scored both Buckeye touchdowns in a 14-14 tie with Purdue. He returned a blocked punt and interception for scores.

1960 - Following a 7-0 win over Michigan, Head Coach Woody Hayes held an impromptu practice at dusk with Paul Warfield and Matt Snell south of the stadium. After a third place Big Ten finish, he was concerned about the 1961 season.

1961 - Ohio State finished 8-0-1, defeated Michigan, 50-20, won the Big Ten and was named national champion by the Football Writers. The school's faculty council voted to reject Ohio State's Rose Bowl bid.

1963 - Ohio State defeated Michigan in Ann Arbor, 14-10. The game was delayed a week as the nation mourned the death of President John F. Kennedy. The attendance of 36,424 was the smallest at Michigan Stadium in 20 years.

1968 - Ohio State's last undefeated (10-0), national championship team culminated the season with a 27-16 win over Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl.

1969 - A season-ending loss to Michigan ended OSU's 22-game unbeaten streak.

1970 - Jim Stillwagon won the Outland Trophy and the initial Lombardi Award as the Buckeyes finished 9-1, losing only to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Ohio State ended a three-year span with a record of 27-2.

1971 - Artificial turf was installed in Ohio Stadium at a cost of $533,544.

1972 - Tailback Archie Griffin came off the bench in his debut against North Carolina and rushed for a then-Ohio State record 239 yards.

1973 - Offensive tackle John Hicks won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award and finished second in the Heisman voting.

1974 - Griffin won the Heisman Trophy, becoming the fifth non-senior to win the award.

1975 - Griffin became the first two-time winner of the Heisman Trophy. He led the Buckeyes to their conference-record fourth straight Rose Bowl.

1977 - OSU won a share of its sixth straight Big Ten title and ended the six-year span with a 58-10-2 record.

1979 - A 17-16 loss to Southern Cal spoiled a perfect mark (11-1) in Earle Bruce's first season as head coach.

1980 - Illinois' Dave Wilson passed for an NCAA record 621 yards and six touchdowns, but the Buckeyes held on for a 49-42 win.

1981 - Art Schlichter completed 31 of 52 passes for 458 yards — all OSU records — but the Buckeyes fell to Florida State.

1984 - Keith Byars rushed for a school-best 274 yards and scored five TDs in leading the Buckeyes to a 45-38 win over Illinois. OSU won the conference championship and earned a Rose Bowl trip.

1985 - The first night game in Ohio Stadium history — thanks to portable light standards — saw the Buckeyes defeat Pittsburgh, 10-7. Flanker Mike Lanese became the first OSU gridder to win a Rhodes Scholarship. Iowa comes to Columbus ranked No. 1, but OSU sends the Hawkeyes home with a 22-13 loss.

1987 - OSU becomes the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl and defeats Texas A&M. Linebacker Chris Spielman won the Lombardi Award.

1988 - John Cooper was named the school's 21st head football coach.

1989 - Ohio State celebrated its 100th season of intercollegiate football. The Buckeyes overcome a 31-0 deficit to win 41-37 at Minnesota. OSU competed in the Hall of Fame Bowl, its 10th different postseason bowl appearance.

1991 - Thanks to 5,000 new bleacher seats, home (654,500), average home (90,500) and single game (95,357 vs. Iowa) attendance records fell.

1993 - OSU recorded its best record since 1979 by going 10-1-1, capturing a share of the Big Ten title and winning the Holiday Bowl.

1994 - The Buckeyes defeat Michigan 22-6, ending a six-game winless streak against the Wolverines.

In Memorial

Ohio State lost two members of its football family this past year with the unexpected deaths of former Heisman Trophy winners Les Horvath and Vic Janowicz. Les died last November in Los Angeles, where he practiced dentistry after retiring from professional football. Vic, a longtime Columbus resident, passed away in February.

During their glorious careers at Ohio State both men provided countless thrills for Buckeye fans. Horvath was the school's first Heisman recipient, winning the coveted bronze statue in 1944. Janowicz, regarded by many as the most complete athlete ever to play at Ohio State, won the award as a junior in 1950.

Both will be missed, but will live forever in the hearts and minds of Ohio State football fans.

John Cooper
Head Coach

Cooper's eight-year record with the Buckeyes is a glittering 65-28-4 and his lifetime mark stands at 147-68-6. In Big Ten play, Cooper has led the Buckeyes to a combined record of 42-18-4, a figure that includes one league championship and three second-place finishes. He owns the best record in the Big Ten the past four years (24-6-2).

After a 4-6-1 record his first year, Cooper's last seven Ohio State teams boast a combined slate of 61-27-3, including a 30-7-1 mark the past three seasons. His 1995 squad finished with an 11-2 record to become just the third team in Ohio State history to record 11 victories. The Buckeyes were ranked sixth nationally at the end of the season.

Cooper, 59 has won numerous national honors. He was National Coach of the Year in 1986 while at Arizona State, and he has been a finalist for that award in two of the past three years, including the 1995 campaign. He is also past president of the American College Football Coaches Association. Additionally, he has coached in the Japan and Hula Bowls, as well as the East-West Shrine game.

Prior to coming to Ohio State in 1988, Cooper spent three years at Arizona State, where he led the Sun Devils to a 25-9-2 mark, including a 10-1-1 record and the school's first ever Pac-10 title in 1986. He also spent seven years as head coach at Tulsa, guiding the Golden Hurricane to a 57-31 record and five straight Missouri Valley conference titles between 1977 and 1984.

Cooper grew up in Powell, Tennessee, a rural community near Knoxville. After graduating from high school, he spent two years in the Army and then enrolled at Iowa State. An outstanding high school athlete, Cooper resumed his athletic career at Iowa State, playing four years of football for the Cyclones. He was team captain and MVP as a senior.

Cooper graduated from Iowa State in the spring of 1962. He embarked upon his coaching career the following fall as the Cyclones' freshman coach.

Cooper has been a finalist for National Coach of the Year in two of the past three years.

In 1963, Cooper left his alma mater to become an assistant coach at Oregon State under Tommy Prothro. In 1964, the Beavers won the Pac-8 title and played in the Rose Bowl. Following the 1964 season, Cooper accompanied Prothro to UCLA. In his first year there, the Bruins won the Pac-8 championship and again played in the Rose Bowl.

Cooper left UCLA following the 1967 campaign to become defensive coordinator for Pepper Rodgers at Kansas. He spent five years on the Jayhawks staff, none more memorable than 1969, when Kansas won the Big Eight title and played in the Orange Bowl.

Cooper's last stop as an assistant coach was at the University of Kentucky in 1972. He left Kentucky to become head coach at Tulsa in 1977.

Cooper quickly breathed new life into the Tulsa program. After a 3-8 record his first year, the rookie head coach led the Golden Hurricane to six straight winning seasons, including five consecutive Missouri Valley Conference championships between 1980 and 1984.

At the end of the 1984 season, Cooper's record at Tulsa was an impressive 57-31 and included a 33-6 mark in league play. His eight-year stay at Tulsa was a golden era for the Golden Hurricane.

Having accomplished all that he could at Tulsa and eager for a new challenge, Cooper accepted an offer to become head coach at Arizona State University in 1985. As he had done at Tulsa, he quickly established himself at ASU, leading his first Sun Devil team to an 8-4 record and a berth in the Holiday Bowl. A loss to arch-rival Arizona on the last day of the regular season cost ASU its first-ever Pac-10 football championship. But the Sun Devils made history the following year by winning that elusive title and making their first-ever trip to Pasadena, where they capped off a 10-1-1 season with a 22-15 win over Michigan.

Despite heavy graduation losses in 1986, Arizona State went to a school-record third straight bowl game in 1987. A win over Air Force in the Freedom Bowl put the wraps on a 7-4-1 season and gave Cooper a three-year record of 25-9-2 with the Sun Devils.

Last year's recruiting class was one of the top-rated in the nation

With a resume that included a combined record of 82-40-2, six league championships and three bowl appearances, Cooper became the 21st head football coach in Ohio State history on Dec. 31, 1987. As he has done throughout his coaching career, Cooper attacked the Ohio State job with unrelenting enthusiasm and energy. The results of his efforts are reflected in his record, particularly in the accomplishments of his last three teams.

An outstanding recruiter, Cooper continues to bring some of the nation's top high school talent to Ohio. His 1996 recruiting class was ranked by many of the recruiting experts as the No. 1 class in the country.

In addition to his coaching responsibilities, Cooper is extremely active in the Columbus community and is involved with several charities, including Big Brothers/Big Sisters, United Way, the Alzheimer's Foundation, the Arthur James Cancer Hospital and Children's Hospital. As a hobby he enjoys collecting pocket knives.

John and his wife, Helen, have two children, John Jr. and Cindy, both of whom live in Columbus.

1996 Opponents Bold

Joe Hollis

Offensive Coordinator

Joe Hollis is in his fifth season as Ohio State's offensive coordinator and his sixth year as a member of John Cooper's coaching staff. Originally hired to coach the offensive guards and centers, Hollis was promoted to offensive coordinator in the spring of 1992.

During his four years as coordinator, the Ohio State offense has become one of the most productive and feared units in the Big Ten. That was especially true last season when the Buckeyes averaged a school-record 478.6 yards and 36.5 points per game and demonstrated the ability to strike at any time from anywhere on the field.

Hollis, 48, came to OSU from the University of Georgia, where he spent six years as the Bulldogs' offensive line coach. He also has been an assistant at Troy State, Auburn and Tulsa and the head coach at Jacksonville State.

A native of Florence, Alabama, Hollis is a 1969 graduate of Auburn. He began his coaching career in 1972 as an assistant at Troy State. He remained there for six years, leaving in 1978 to become the offensive line coach at Auburn.

In 1980 Hollis was lured away from his alma mater by John Cooper at Tulsa. As offensive coordinator, Hollis helped Tulsa to four Missouri Valley Conference titles and a glistening 20-1 league record between 1980 and 1983.

Hollis left Tulsa in 1984 to become head coach at Jacksonville State. He was there just one year before moving to Georgia in 1985. During his six-year stay at Georgia, the Bulldogs played in five bowl games.

Hollis joined the Ohio State staff prior to the 1991 season.

The Hollis family: Joe, Carole, Cole, William and Joseph.

Fred Pagac

Defensive Coordinator

Fred Pagac, an Ohio State graduate and a member of the football coaching staff since 1978, assumes a new role this year — that of defensive coordinator. The 44-year-old Pagac takes over for Bill Young, who resigned in January. In addition to his responsibilities as coordinator, Pagac will continue to coach the OSU linebackers.

A native of Richeyville, Pennsylvania, Pagac was a three-year starter at tight end for the Buckeyes during the 1971, '72 and '73 seasons. He led OSU in receptions both as a junior and a senior. During his career, the Buckeyes posted a 25-6-2 record, won 19 of 22 Big Ten games, claimed two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. The 1973 squad came a 10-0-1 record and came within an eyelash of winning the national championship, finishing second in the final Associated Press poll.

Following his collegiate career, Pagac spent four years in the NFL — the first two with Chicago, where he received the prestigious Brian Piccolo Award as a rookie in 1974, and the last two with Tampa Bay

Returning to school during the off-season to complete his course work, Pagac received his degree from Ohio State in 1975.

Pagac left the professional ranks after the 1977 season and returned to his alma mater in 1978 as a graduate assistant for his former coach, the late Woody Hayes. In 1982, he was elevated to full-time status and given responsibility for the outside linebackers by Hayes' successor, Earle Bruce.

In 1988, when John Cooper took over as head coach of the Buckeyes, he retained three of Bruce's assistants. One of those three was Pagac, who took over as coach of all linebackers.

A tough, relentless player in his own right, Pagac has demanded nothing less of his players over the years. Some of his more notable standouts include, Alonzo Spellman, Steve Tovar, Craig Powell and Lorenzo Styles, all of whom are currently playing in the National Football League.

Fred and his wife, Bernie, have two children, Jennifer and Freddie.

The Pagac family: Jennifer, Bernie, Fred and Freddie.

Bill Conley

Defensive Ends

Bill Conley is in his sixth year as a member of John Cooper's coaching staff. In addition to coaching the defensive ends, he also oversees the Buckeyes' recruiting efforts. This past year, thanks in large part to his efforts, the Buckeyes landed one of the top recruiting classes in college football.

Conley is in his second tour of duty with the Buckeyes. He coached OSU's linebackers between 1984 and 1987, helping to develop a number of outstanding players including All-Americans Chris Spielman and Pepper Johnson. Last year, end Mike Vrabel won first-team All-America honors and was the Big Ten Defensive Lineman of the Year.

Conley is a native of Columbus and a 1972 graduate of Ohio State. He played three years of football for the Buckeyes, walking on as a sophomore and eventually earning two letters as a reserve offensive lineman for Coach Woody Hayes.

Following graduation, Conley launched a highly successful high school career that included stops at London, Groveport and Middletown and resulted in a 12-year record of 78-39-3.

Regarded as one of the state's top coaches, he joined Earle Bruce's staff following the 1983 season. During his first four-year stint at OSU, the Buckeyes won two Big Ten championships and played in three bowl games, including the Rose and Cotton bowls.

Conley was head coach at Dublin High School from 1988 to 1990. He returned to Ohio State as recruiting coordinator in 1991, but a year later resumed his on-the-field coaching duties as defensive ends coach.

He has two sons, Billy and Craig.

The Conley family: Craig, Billy and Bill.

Walt Harris

Quarterbacks

Walt Harris is in his second year as quarterbacks coach at Ohio State. Last year, Harris was the mastermind behind an electrifying OSU passing game that enabled senior quarterback Bobby Hoying to throw for a school-record 3,269 yards and 29 touchdowns.

Harris, one of the game's most respected offensive strategists, has an extensive background that includes three years as quarterbacks coach for the New York Jets.

Additionally, the 49-year-old Harris has been assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Tennessee, quarterbacks coach at Illinois, linebackers coach at Michigan State and the University of California and head coach at Pacific.

During his career, Harris has helped develop a number of college quarterbacks who would later go on to become starters in the National Football League. Those players include Tony Eason, Dave Wilson and Jack Trudeau, all of whom played for Harris at Illinois. During his brief stay in New York, he also played a key role in the resurgence of Jets signal caller Boomer Esiason.

Born in Modesto, but raised in South San Francisco, Harris graduated from Pacific in 1968 and received his master's from UOP a year later. While at Pacific, he played defensive back under Buddy Ryan, who was defensive coordinator at the time.

After coaching high school ball at El Camino High School and serving as a graduate assistant at Pacific, Harris became Pacific's secondary coach in 1970. In that role, the first player he recruited was Pete Carroll, who would later become head coach of the Jets and is now on the staff of the San Francisco Forty-Niners.

Harris left Pacific after the 1973 season to become linebackers coach at Cal. He spent four years there (1974-77) before moving to Michigan State in 1978.

Harris took over the Illinois quarterbacks in 1980. He left the Big Ten after the 1982 season to become assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Tennessee.

Harris returned to his alma mater as head coach in 1989. His 1991 Pacific team ranked second nationally in total offense (511.3 yards per game) and third nationally in passing offense (342.9 yards per game).

Following the 1991 season, he joined the Jets' staff.

Walt and his wife, Nancy, have two children: Scott (13) and Summer (12).

The Harris family: Scott, Nancy, Walt and Summer.

Jim Heacock

Defensive Line

Jim Heacock joined the Ohio State football staff in February, replacing Bill Young as defensive line coach. Immediately prior to coming to Ohio State, Heacock spent eight years as head coach at Illinois State. He also has coached at Muskingum College, Bowling Green and the University of Washington and has 23 years of coaching experience as he heads into the 1996 season.

Heacock (HAY cock) is a native of Alliance, Ohio. He graduated from Muskingum in 1970 and is a member of that school's Hall of Fame. He also has a master's degree from Bowling Green, awarded in 1973.

Following his graduation from Muskingum, where he earned three letters as a defensive back, Heacock was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He played with the Packers and the Cincinnati Bengals during the 1970 and '71 seasons and then began his coaching career in 1972 as a graduate assistant for Don Nehlen at Bowling Green.

In 1973, Heacock returned to Muskingum as defensive backfield coach. He was named defensive coordinator in 1975, a position he held until 1978 when he left his alma mater to become defensive coordinator at Bowling Green. He remained at Bowling Green for six years and was assistant head coach during his last three years at the Mid-America Conference school. Bowling Green won the MAC title and played in the California Bowl in 1982.

In 1983, Heacock accepted an offer from Don James to become defensive line coach at the University of Washington. He spent five seasons in Seattle and during that time the Huskies appeared in the Orange, Sun, Aloha, Freedom and Independence bowls. Under Heacock's direction, the Huskies' defensive front was known for its intensity and tough, physical style of play and was one of the most respected in the Pac 10.

In 1988, Heacock was named head coach at Illinois State. After a 1-10 record his first year, Heacock directed the Redbirds to a 36-39-2 mark the next seven seasons. Playing a schedule that included several Division I opponents, his last three teams combined for a 16-14-2 mark.

Heacock, 47, and his wife, Sherry, have two daughters — Stephanie (14) and Shannon (12).

The Heacock family: Stephanie, Jim, Sherry and Shannon.

Mike Jacobs

Offensive Line

Mike Jacobs is in his second season at Ohio State, where he coaches the offensive line and has specific responsibility for the tackles and tight ends.

In 1995, Jacobs helped develop All-America tackle Orlando Pace, who capped off a brilliant sophomore campaign by winning the Lombardi Award; and tight end Rickey Dudley, who won first-team All-Big Ten honors and was a first-round draft choice in last April's NFL draft.

Jacobs came to Ohio State from West Virginia University. He spent 15 years with the Mountaineers, the last nine as offensive coordinator. He has coached, too, on the collegiate level at Bowling Green, Ashland College and Toledo.

Jacobs is a native of Berea, Ohio. He received his bachelor's degree from Wittenberg in 1972 and his master's from Bowling Green in 1974. He played offensive guard at Wittenberg, helping the Tigers to a 19-0 record his last two years and the Division II National Championship his senior year.

Jacobs began his coaching career at Willard High School in 1972. In 1974, he joined Don Nehlen's staff at Bowling Green, serving as the offensive line coach for three seasons. He moved to Ashland College for the 1977 and '78 seasons and spent the 1979 season as an assistant at the University of Toledo.

In 1980, when Nehlen took over at West Virginia, one of his first appointments was Jacobs as offensive line coach. Jacobs was named offensive coordinator in 1986, the WVU attack flourishing under his guidance during the next nine years.

Tim Spencer

Running Backs

Tim Spencer is in his third year as a member of the Ohio State coaching staff. He coaches the Buckeyes' tailbacks and fullbacks.

Spencer, a former star tailback for the Buckeyes, has had an immediate impact at his alma mater. Under his watchful eye, tailback Eddie George ran for 1,442 yards in 1994. Last year, George exploded for a school record 1,927 yards and scored 25 touchdowns en route to winning the Heisman Trophy as college football's top player.

Spencer is from St. Clairsville, Ohio. A high school All-America, he was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes, earning first-team all-league honors as a junior and senior. The starting fullback as a sophomore, he moved to tailback as a junior and led the team in rushing with 1,217 yards. As a senior, he amassed 1,538 yards and was the Buckeyes' MVP. He was also the MVP of the Holiday Bowl in 1982, rushing for 167 yards and two touchdowns.

With 3,553 yards, Spencer is third on the all-time OSU rushing list behind Archie Griffin (5,589) and George (3,768). He is also third in career rushing attempts (644) and career rushing TDs (36).

Following his senior year, Spencer was the second player taken in the USFL draft. He played a year each with Chicago, Arizona and Memphis before going to San Diego, where he started at fullback for four years.

Spencer retired from professional football following the 1990 season. He returned to OSU in 1992 to complete work on his degree, which he received in 1993. While at OSU, he worked as a volunteer with the Buckeyes' strength and conditioning program. When running backs coach Frank Falks left for a position in the NFL in 1994, OSU head coach John Cooper wasted little time naming Spencer to his staff.

Chuck Stobart

Wide Receivers

Veteran mentor Chuck Stobart, whose college coaching career has spanned three decades, is in his second season as Ohio State's wide receiver coach.

In Stobart's first year with the Buckeyes, his star pupil, flanker Terry Glenn, won All-America honors and received the Biletnikoff Award as the top receiver in college football. Glenn set numerous OSU records last year, including single-season marks for touchdowns (17) and receiving yardage (1,411). Not bad for a first-year starter.

Stobart is a native of Bradbury, Ohio. Prior to joining John Cooper's Ohio State staff, he spent six seasons as head coach at Memphis. Other stops for the 61-year-old Stobart include head coaching stints at Utah and Toledo, and assistant's positions at Arizona, Cincinnati, Marshall Miami (O.), Michigan, Pittsburgh and Southern Cal.

Stobart received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Ohio University in 1959 and 1962, respectively. He played quarterback for the Bobcats between 1956 and 1958.

Stobart launched his coaching career in 1959 at Berne High School in Sugar Grove, Ohio. He also coached a year at Gallipolis and four years at Mount Vernon before being named offensive coordinator at Marshall in 1965. He moved to the University of Cincinnati in 1966 as quarterbacks coach.

In 1967, Stobart was named quarterbacks coach at Miami under Bo Schembechler. When Schembechler took over at Michigan in 1969, Stobart went with him as offensive coordinator.

Stobart's first head coaching opportunity came at the University of Toledo in 1977. After two straight 2-9 years, his last three teams were 20-13, including a 9-3 mark in 1981 that included a Mid-American conference title and victory in the California Bowl.

Stobart moved to Utah in 1982. His first two teams notched 5-6 records, but his third went 6-5-1.

Following the 1984 campaign, Stobart became offensive coordinator at Pittsburgh. He left Pitt after one year to assume the same responsibility at Arizona. In 1987, he began a two-year stint at USC as associate head coach under Larry Smith.

Stobart took over the Memphis State program in 1989. Faced with another rebuilding task, his first two teams were 6-15-1, but his last three combined for an 18-15 mark.

The Stobart family: Diana, Chuck, D-Raye and John.

Jon Tenuta

Defensive Backs

Jon Tenuta was named defensive backs coach on March 8. He replaced Lovie Smith, who became the linebackers coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in February.

Tenuta, a 1975 graduate of Upper Arlington High School, has had extensive coaching experience at the collegiate level. Most recently he spent the 1995 season as defensive backs coach at the University of Oklahoma.

Before moving to Norman, Tenuta spent six years at Southern Methodist University. He was the defensive backs coach in 1989 before moving up to defensive coordinator in 1990. While at SMU, his defense ranked third in the Southwest Conference in scoring defense in 1993 (25.2 ppg). His Mustangs led the SWC in pass defense (182.3 ypg) and allowed less than 20 points in six of 11 games in 1992.

Tenuta also had assistant coaching stops at Virginia (1981-82), Maryland (1983), Vanderbilt (1984-85), Marshall (1986-87) and Kansas State (1987-88). He served as defensive coordinator at Marshall in 1987 and at Kansas State in '88.

Born in Madison, Wis., Tenuta earned a B.S. degree from the University of Virginia in 1981, where he was a starting defensive back for three years and Most Valuable Player his senior season.

Tenuta and his wife, Dori, have two sons, Zachary and Matthew.

The Tenuta family: (front) Matt and Zach. (Back) Jon and Dori.

Larry Petroff

Special Assistant for Football Operations

Larry Petroff is in his fourth year at Ohio State. As Special Assistant for Football Operations, he is intricately involved in the day-to-day operation of the football program and works closely with head coach John Cooper and Associate Athletic Director Archie Griffin.

Petroff came to Ohio State in March of 1993 as recruiting coordinator. Thanks in large part to his organizational skills and recruiting expertise, the Buckeyes landed one of the nation's top recruiting classes the following February.

When the NCAA eliminated the position of full-time recruiting coordinator, Petroff was named to his present position.

Petroff, 46, is a native of North Olmsted, Ohio. He graduated from Ashland College in 1973 and then coached for eight years in northern Ohio, with high school stops at Maple Heights (1976-78), Black River (1979-81) and Cleveland Heights (1982).

His first college position came in 1983, when he was named defensive line coach at Case Western Reserve.

Always closely allied to the high schools and regarded as a keen judge of high school talent, Petroff became recruiting coordinator at Illinois in 1987. A natural recruiter, he also held that position at Northwestern, Purdue and Pittsburgh before coming to Ohio State. He was at Pitt for three years.

Dave Kennedy

Strength and Conditioning

Dave Kennedy is in his eighth year as Ohio State's head strength and conditioning coach. While his main focus is football, he oversees all 34 varsity sports at Ohio State.

Kennedy, 35, joined the Ohio State staff in June of 1989. In the six years since, he has become recognized as a leading authority in the field of strength and conditioning.

Extremely popular with the Ohio State players, Kennedy received the Admiral's Trophy prior to the 1993 Holiday Bowl. The latter is voted on by the players and goes to the person whose dedication, hard work and spirit has most inspired the team.

Prior to coming to OSU, Kennedy spent seven years as assistant strength coach at the University of Nebraska. His responsibilities there included developing and monitoring the conditioning program for the Cornhuskers' football team.

At Ohio State, Kennedy has designed an individual program for each member of the football team. The computerized plan focuses on day-to-day improvement and is designed to enhance the mental and physical development of each player. He also has instituted a year-round conditioning schedule that has significantly increased the overall strength, speed and power of Ohio State's football players.

Kennedy is from Omaha. He graduated from Nebraska in 1985, earning his degree in exercise science.

Dave's wife, Julie, is also a Nebraska graduate. They have a two-year-old son, Benjamin David, and a son, Nicholas, who was born this past June.

The Kennedy family: Dave, Benjamin and Julie.

Bill Davis

Director Of Athletic Training

Bill Davis, a member of the Ohio State staff since 1984, was appointed Director of Athletic Training in 1995. The 38-year-old Davis oversees all aspects of the athletic training program and is responsible for all 34 varsity sports at OSU. He also serves as head trainer for the Ohio State football team.

Davis is from Carrollton, Ohio. He graduated from Ohio State in 1979 with a degree in health education. As an undergraduate, he spent four years on the training staff, working with a wide variety of different sports.

Following his graduation from Ohio State, Davis was a graduate assistant trainer for two years at Oklahoma State. He received his master's degree in education administration from Oklahoma State in 1981 and immediately went to work for the Cowboys as an assistant trainer, working primarily with the football program.

In 1984, Davis returned to Ohio State as assistant football trainer. In 1992, he was named co-head trainer and took over the administrative duties of the training program. In June of 1995, he was named to his present position and now oversees a staff that includes four other full-time trainers and a large number of students.

Davis belongs to the National Association of Athletic Trainers and the Ohio Association of Athletic Trainers. He is chairman of the Athletic Trainers' Licensure Board for the state of Ohio.

Bill and his wife, Tammy, an Oklahoma State graduate and a teacher in the Hilliard school system, have two daughters, Kelly (4) and Melanie (2).

Dr. E. Gordon Gee

University President

As the 11th president of The Ohio State University, Dr. E. Gordon Gee leads one of the nation's most comprehensive research universities with 55,000 students, nearly 18,500 faculty and staff, and an annual budget of $1.5 billion. Ohio State's Columbus campus, the largest in the nation, enrolls some 48,600 students. Its academic medical center in Columbus, including University Hospitals and the James Cancer Hospital, is one of the most comprehensive in the world. A land-grant university, Ohio State has four regional campuses. It is also home to Ohio State University Extension and a statewide agricultural research center and technical institute based in Wooster.

An outspoken and tireless advocate for higher education, Dr. Gee has launched an ambitious program to increase national public awareness of Ohio State's academic quality. He frequently travels throughout Ohio and the nation, sharing his vision for Ohio State and building support for the university among alumni, public officials, educators, friends and news media.

Working with faculty, staff and students, Dr. Gee has focused his energy on furthering the university's teaching, research and service missions. A comprehensive planning and restructuring process continues today to set institutional priorities for education in the 21st century.

Now in his third university presidency, Dr. Gee became chief executive officer of Ohio State on Sept. 1, 1990.

Born in Vernal, Utah, on Feb. 2, 1944, he received a bachelor's degree in history from the University of Utah in 1968 and a law degree and doctorate in education from Columbia University in 1971 and 1972, respectively. At Columbia, he was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar and a Kellogg Scholar.

Dr. Gee returned to the University of Utah, serving as assistant law dean from 1973 to 1974. He was a judicial fellow and senior staff assistant in the chambers of the Chief Justice of the United States from 1974 to 1975, and associate law dean and professor of law in the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University from 1975 to 1979.

He became one of this country's youngest college presidents when he assumed the leadership of West Virginia in 1981 at the age of 37. He had been dean of the law school there from 1979 to 1981. Dr. Gee became president of the University of Colorado in 1985.

Dr. Gee has received many honors in the field of law and education. He has written or co-written six books, including Information Literacy: Revolution in the Library, which won the American Library Association's G.K. Hall Award in 1990 for outstanding contributions to library literature. The third edition of Law and Public Education: Case and Materials was published in December, 1995.

He serves on numerous boards and commissions, including the Truman Scholarship Foundation, the Central Ohio United Negro College Fund, the Business-Higher Education Forum, the Rhodes Scholarship Selection Committee, the Advisory Council of Presidents to the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges, the NCAA Presidents Commission, and the Executive Committee of the Association of American Universities. He is Chair of the Kellogg Commission on the Future of State and Land-Grant Universities and serves on the Executive Committee of the National Association of State Universities and Land-Grant Colleges.

He and his wife, Dr. Constance Bumgarner Gee, an assistant professor of art education at Ohio State, live in Bexley. His daughter, Rebekah, is a junior at Columbia University.

Andy Geiger

Assistant Vice President and Director of Athletics

Andy Geiger, one of college athletics most dynamic and respected leaders, is in his third year at Ohio State. In his role as the Buckeyes' Director of Athletics, he manages a program that has 34 varsity sports and an annual operating budget of more than $31 million.

The 57-year-old Geiger has quickly breathed new energy into the Ohio State program. Since taking over the OSU reins in April of 1994, he has put the finishing touches on a new baseball stadium that will be ready for use in the spring of 1997; spearheaded a successful drive for a new 21,000-seat multi-purpose arena (the Schottenstein Center) that will be the home of Buckeye basketball and ice hockey beginning in 1999; announced plans for the renovation and expansion of the 75-year-old Ohio Stadium; and added two new varsity sports — women's crew and lacrosse — at a time when most schools are dropping sports due to financial constraints.

Additionally, Geiger, who has vowed to take Ohio State to an even higher level of accomplishment, has made a number of organizational changes within the department, including restructuring the compliance program and doubling the size of the student-athlete support services staff. In the personnel area, his very first move as Director of Athletics was to promote former Ohio State All-America and Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin to associate director of athletics and give him responsibility for 17 sports, including football.

A hands-on administrator, Geiger is a regular visitor at practices and games and enjoys spending time with his athletes and coaches. He is a favorite of the athletes because of his genuine concern for their well being, both in the classroom and on the athletic field.

Geiger came to Ohio State from the University of Maryland, where he spent three years as the director of athletics. Selected for his current position after an extensive national search, he also has been director of athletics at Brown University, the University of Pennsylvania and Stanford University.

Geiger is a native of Syracuse, New York. He graduated from Syracuse University in 1961 and was a member of the crew team as an undergraduate, winning a spot on the 1961 Pan Am team that captured a gold medal.

Geiger began his career in intercollegiate athletics in 1961 as the freshman rowing coach at Dartmouth College. He ventured into administration in 1964, when he returned to his alma mater as assistant athletics director. Geiger left Syracuse in 1970 to become assistant commissioner of the Eastern College Athletic Conference.

In 1971, at age 32, Geiger became athletic director at Brown University. He held that position until 1975, when he moved to the University of Pennsylvania in a similar capacity.

Geiger's next move was to Stanford. He began an extremely successful 11-year tenure there in 1979. During his stay at the Pac-10 school, the Cardinal won 27 national championships and produced countless All-Americas, both on the field and in the classroom. Stanford was considered one of the nation's elite college athletic programs during the Geiger era.

In 1990, Geiger left Stanford for Maryland. During his time there, he helped turn around a program that had been placed on NCAA probation. On April 29, 1994, Geiger left Maryland to become Ohio State's seventh director of athletics, officially taking over those duties on May 16.

Geiger is a past member of the NCAA Men's Basketball Committee. He currently sits on several Big Ten committees and is the only athletics director on the College Alcohol Study Advisory Board, which is sponsored by the Harvard School of Public Health.

Andy and his wife, Eleanor, have two adopted sons: Phillip, who is 9, and Gregory, age 8. During their stay in Maryland, Eleanor, who is also a Syracuse graduate, worked as a research assistant in mathematics education and specialized in the development of a new curriculum for middle school mathematics. Since arriving in Columbus, she has become involved in several community projects including serving on the Board of Directors of Opera Columbus.

Andy's hobbies include golf and all music, especially jazz, and playing the saxophone. He is an occasional lecturer on the history of jazz and is a member of the Columbus Jazz-Arts Board.

Paul Krebs

Senior Associate Athletic Director

Paul Krebs is in his 12th year at Ohio State. He joined the OSU staff in 1985 as ticket director and was promoted to assistant athletic director for administration in 1987. In 1992 he was named senior associate director of athletics. In his present capacity, Krebs is in charge of the day-to-day operation of the Athletic Department and is the senior administrator under Director of Athletics Andy Geiger.

Additionally, Krebs oversees the OSU Ticket Office, the Ice Rink and the University Golf Courses. He is in charge, too, of game management for football and men's and women's basketball, overseeing crowd control and timing on the day of the game.

Krebs chairs several committees within the Athletic Department and coordinates many outside activities such as concerts in Ohio Stadium and other civic endeavors. Most recently, he has been actively involved in the planning stages of the Schottenstein Center, the University's new 21,000 seat multi-purpose arena, slated for completion in 1998.

The 40-year-old Krebs is from Canfield, Ohio. He graduated from Bowling Green in 1978 and received his master's from Ohio State in 1981. While working on the latter in Sports Administration, he interned in the OSU Ticket Office.

In 1981, Krebs was named assistant ticket director at Oklahoma. He spent three years in that capacity before becoming the Sooners' ticket manager in 1983.

In 1985, Krebs was named ticket director at Ohio State. Shortly after taking over his new position, he implemented a new computer program that greatly enhanced the efficiency of the ticket office.

Paul and his wife, Marjori, a high school teacher in Worthington, have two children, a daughter, Taylor, who is seven and a three-year-old son, Jacob.

Archie Griffin

Associate Athletic Director

Archie Griffin is in his 11th year as a member of the Ohio State athletic department staff. As Associate Director of Athletics, he oversees a combination of 17 men's and women's varsity sports, including football.

Griffin is one of the legendary names in Ohio State's rich football lore. A three-time All-America between 1973 and 1975, he made college football history by winning the Heisman Trophy in 1974 as a junior and 1975 as a senior. During his brilliant career, the diminutive tailback rushed for an Ohio State record 5,589 yards and helped the Buckeyes capture four Big Ten titles and post an overall record of 40-5-1. He is the only Big Ten player ever to start in four Rose Bowls.

Griffin received a degree in industrial relations from Ohio State in 1976. A fine student, he graduated a quarter early and was chosen as one of the NCAA's Top-Five student-athletes as a senior.

Following graduation, Griffin was a first-round pick of the Cincinnati Bengals. After an eight-year stint in the NFL, he returned to the university in 1984 to work in the Office of Personnel Services. He moved to athletics in 1985 as Special Assistant to the Director. In 1987, he was named assistant director and took over the department's fund raising, marketing and promotional efforts.

On Apr. 29, 1994, the day that Andy Geiger was named Director of Athletics, Griffin was promoted to his present position. As associate director, Griffin is involved in all aspects of the football program, including scheduling, budgetary considerations and evaluating the coaches.

Ohio State's ambassador of good will, Griffin is a member of the Ohio State, Rose Bowl, Walter Camp, National Football Foundation and National High School halls of fame.

Archie is married to the former Bonita Davis and has three sons, Anthony, Andre and Adam.

Miechelle Willis

Associate Athletic Director

Miechelle Willis is beginning her third year at The Ohio State University. Named associate athletic director on Sept. 8, 1994, she oversees 17 varsity sport, including men's and women's basketball. She also serves as Ohio State's senior women's administrator to the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference.

Prior to joining the staff at Ohio State, Willis spent seven years at Temple University. At Temple, she was the primary administrator for 11 women's varsity sports and held department-wide responsibilities in the areas of compliance, personnel, drug and alcohol education and student-athlete services.

Willis also served on the Atlantic 10 women's basketball tournament and championship review committees, the league's field hockey and softball committees and on the Eastern Coast Athletic Conference Executive Council.

Her professional experience also includes stints at Montclair State College (1978-87) as the women's track and cross country coach, Giants Stadium as a ticket supervisor (1979-88) and as an independent running trainer for professional football players (1983-87).

As a student-athlete, Willis was a standout pentathlete at Grambling State University, where she graduated cum laude in 1976 with a degree in health and physical education. Willis earned her master's degree in sports administration from her alma mater in 1978 and had been pursuing her doctorate at Temple prior to her departure.

Willis is a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., and Delta Psi Kappa Fraternity.

Bill Myles

Associate Athletic Director

Bill Myles is in his 20th year as a member of the Ohio State Athletic Department staff. An assistant football coach for the Buckeyes between 1977 and 1984, he left coaching in 1985 to enter athletic administration.

From 1985 until 1993, Myles was in charge of the men's sports program and responsible for the day-to-day administration of all 18 men's teams. When the Athletic Department was restructured in 1994, Myles' duties were changed to include a combination of 16 men's and women's sports.

Currently, Myles administers the department's outreach program, which encourages former Ohio State athletes who have not graduated to return to school and receive their degrees. Because of his experience and strong ties to many former OSU athletes, Myles is ideally suited for this new and challenging role. Additionally, he coordinates special projects for the Athletic Department. He is also the departmental liaison with all booster groups.

Myles, 59, is a native of Kansas City, Missouri. A 1962 graduate of Drake University, he has a master's from Central Missouri State, awarded in 1967.

Following graduation, Myles spent 10 years as a high school coach in Kansas City. He was a head coach for seven years, compiling a 45-20-3 record.

In 1972, Myles became an assistant coach at the University of Nebraska. He remained there until coming to Ohio State in 1977 as an offensive line coach for the late Woody Hayes. Myles was retained by new head coach Earle Bruce following the 1978 campaign and during the next six years became recognized as one of the top offensive line coaches in college football.

Myles coached in 10 bowl games during his career, including the Rose, Orange, Sugar, Cotton and Fiesta bowls. He also is the recipient of his alma mater's two most prestigious awards, the Double D Award and the Distinguished Service Award.

Bill and his wife, Lorita, have two children, Debbie and Bill.

Tom Hof

Associate Director of Athletics for Development

Tom Hof has been a member of the Ohio State Department of Athletics since October of 1994. As associate director for development, his responsibilities include all athletic department fund raising activities, including funding for the Schottenstein Center, the university's new multi-purpose arena that is scheduled to open during the 1998-99 school year. It was Hof who designed an innovative seat licensing plan for the Schottenstein Center.

After receiving his undergraduate and master's degrees from Bowling Green State University in 1980 and 1981, respectively, Hof began his career at the University of Kansas as athletic ticket manager. In that position, he designed and prepared promotional materials for the Jayhawks' football, basketball and track programs and served as staff liaison to the "Hawks Club," a volunteer group developed to increase the football season ticket base.

Hof moved to development in 1983 as the Vice President for Annual Giving at Illinois State University. At ISU, he served on the capital campaign team responsible for raising more than $1 million for the construction of Redbird Arena.

In 1986, Hof moved to the University of Cincinnati's College of Law as Director of Development and Alumni Affairs. In that position, he implemented the college's first annual giving program.

In 1991, Hof came to Ohio State as Director of Development in the College of Law. At OSU, he completed the $15 million capital campaign for construction of the new law building and funding of endowed chairs, professorships, scholarships and library support. Through Hof's efforts, OSU's College of Law raised more than $2 million in gifts and pledges in the 1993-94 fiscal year.

Larry Romanoff

Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance Services

Larry Romanoff is in his third year as director of compliance services and his 20th year as a member of the athletic department staff.

A 1974 graduate of Ohio State, Romanoff returned to his alma mater in 1976 as an assistant athletic counselor. He became head counselor for academics in 1977 and was promoted to assistant athletic director in 1991. In June of 1994, he was selected to take over the compliance services program.

In his present capacity, Romanoff serves as Ohio State's liaison to the Big Ten and the NCAA. His responsibilities include, but are not limited to, compliance, certification and eligibility. He also administers the grant-in-aid program and is the departmental contact with admissions, financial aids and academic affairs.

Romanoff also sits on the OSU Compliance Committee, a committee of athletic department and university personnel charged with the task of educating the coaching staff, booster groups and alumni on NCAA rules.

The 44-year Romanoff is a native of Toledo. He has two undergraduate degrees from Ohio State, one in education and the other in social studies. As a student, he was a manager for the football team, serving as head manager for Coach Woody Hayes in both 1972 and '73.

Following graduation from Ohio State, Romanoff enrolled in the Athletic Administration program at Ohio University and received his master's in 1975.

During his nearly two decades as Ohio State's counselor, Romanoff helped mold the academic counseling office into one of the most progressive in the nation. During his tenure, Mike Lanese, a wide receiver on the football team, became the department's first Rhodes Scholar, winning that honor in 1985.

Larry and his wife, Debbie, a pre-school teacher, have three children: Jennifer, Michael and Steven.

Kate Riffee

Assistant Athletic Director For Student-Athlete Support Services

Kate Riffee was named assistant athletic director for student-athlete support services in January of 1995. In that role, she is responsible for overseeing five full-time counselors who assist Buckeye student-athletes in their academic, personal and professional developments.

Riffee has been a full-time member of the Ohio State staff since 1983, serving as an assistant counselor until being named interim director of that office in 1994.

A native of Springville, N.Y., Riffee received a B.S. in physical education from Ithaca College in 1980. She joined the Department of Athletics in the fall of 1980 as a graduate assistant in the counseling office.

Riffee, who received her master's in 1981, moved up to a full-time position in the academic counseling office in 1983. As Ohio State's counseling program expanded during the '80s, she became more involved in developing a "Life Skills" program that would emphasize career development, community involvement, health and wellness issues and personal development.

The result of Riffee's work was the CHAMPS (CHallenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success) program, which gained national recognition during the 1993-94 academic year when the NCAA designated Ohio State one of five national role models. In addition to the outstanding academic counseling and study table services, Ohio State's program directly involves student-athletes with community service programs such as Prom Promise, DARE and Right to Read Week. The CHAMPS program also assists Buckeye student-athletes in career development through workshops and placement interviews.

Riffee, who has a doctorate in counselor education, is extremely active, serving on Ohio State's NCAA Certification Committee and the NCAA's Task Force for Life Skills.

Buckeye fans will long remember the 1995 season

Years from now, when Buckeye fans are tailgating in the shadow of Ohio Stadium and reminiscing about the great teams of the past as they huddle around their grills and coolers, talk will inevitably turn to the 1995 football season.

And when it does, they will certainly smile at the memory of a glorious 11-game winning streak in which the Buckeyes defeated six top 25 teams and climbed from No. 12 in the preseason polls to No. 2 in the national rankings.

They will recall, too, with absolute clarity, every down of Ohio State's magnificent 45-26 win over Notre Dame in Ohio Stadium on Sept. 30; a victory that made it possible for those members of the 1935 OSU team who were still living to finally discard the still vivid memory of a bitter 18-13 defeat to the Irish 60 years earlier.

And they will undoubtedly reflect upon a murderer's row stretch of games midway through the season in which the Buckeyes, after downing Notre Dame, went on the road and defeated Penn State and Wisconsin in two of the most hostile environments in college football, running their record to a spotless 6-0. No one thought Ohio State, with that schedule, would be 6-0.

The Penn State game will stir memories of a dramatic last drive in which the Ohio State offense, stopped on its previous two possessions, refused to be denied on its final attempt and marched 58 yards in six plays to score the winning touchdown with 1:28 to play in a 28-25 triumph. And on that last drive, a third-and-ten catch by Buster Tillman and a 32-yard reception by tight end Rickey Dudley will become larger than life.

And how could they help but relive tailback Eddie George's record breaking 314-yard rushing effort against Illinois, one of three 200-yard games by George, as he cemented his hold on college football's most prized individual honor – the Heisman Trophy.

George, of course, will dominate the individual player conversation. Not only did he break the single-game rushing record with his showing against the Illini, he also shattered the season mark with 1,927 yards. As the wind whips through the parking lots that surround the Stadium, the Buckeye faithful will remember the chants of chants of "Eddie, Eddie" that rolled across the Ohio State campus in tribute to the school's sixth Heisman winner.

Flanker Terry Glenn will also get his fair share of oohs and ahs. Glenn, they will recall, burst onto the college scene virtually out of nowhere, catching 64 passes and setting school records for single season touchdown receptions with 17 and receiving yardage with 1,411. The acrobatic junior, who at the end of the season would decide to pass up his final year of eligibility and declare himself eligible for the NFL draft, capped off his record setting year by winning the Biletnikoff Award. Maybe, in particular, they will remember his brilliant performance at Penn State, where he caught nine passes and worked the sideline to perfection.

And as the tailgaters huddle closer to the toasty fire in hopes of ridding themselves of the chill brought on by the cold November winds, they will rave about the performance of giant offensive tackle Orlando Pace, whose 1995 accomplishments included becoming the first sophomore ever to win the Lombardi Award and finishing second in the Outland Trophy voting. Just how good was he they will ask.

And their hearts will race with collective excitement as they remember quarterback Bobby Hoying, who ran the explosive Ohio State offense to perfection, along the way setting records for most points and most first downs in a season. It was a shame, they will agree, that Hoying did not win All-America honors along with George, Glenn, Pace and defensive tackle Mike Vrabel. Certainly, he was the best pure quarterback in the country that season. Who possibly could have been better?

And finally, they will note that when the season was over, Glenn, George and tight end Rickey Dudley (Was that the same Dudley who played basketball for the Buckeyes?) were all first-round picks in the NFL draft.

Indeed, 1995 was a season fraught with excitement and accomplishment, one that will forever hold a special place in the hearts and souls of Ohio State fans.

In rolling to their ninth consecutive opening-day win, the Buckeyes recorded their largest margin of victory in an opener since a 56-7 win over Minnesota in 1973. The OSU offense, led by quarterback Bobby Hoying and tailback Eddie George, scored all five times it was in the red zone. The OSU defense picked off three interceptions, recorded three sacks, forced a fumble, stuffed two fourth-down attempts and limited the Eagles to just 91 yards in the second half. The play of the day was Shawn Springs' 97-yard kickoff return that put Ohio State on top 14-3 early in the second quarter. Equally spectacular was a 99-yard drive just before halftime that culminated with a 12-yard TD pass from Hoying to tight end Rickey Dudley and sent OSU into the locker room with a 21-3 lead. George accounted for 157 all-purpose yards and was the game's MVP. Springs, who also had an interception and six tackles, finished second in the voting. Terry Glenn also had a big day, hauling in passes of 46 and 47 yards from Hoying, who completed 17 of 26 aerials for 269 yards and one TD.

Like a crazed construction worker, tailback Eddie George bulldozed his way through the Washington defense for 212 yards and a pair of touchdowns as the Buckeyes disposed of the 18th-ranked Huskies, 30-20, in a game that was not nearly as close as the final score. Ahead 30-7 entering the fourth quarter, OSU turned the ball over twice in its own territory to set up a pair of Washington TDs. After the last Washington score, the Buckeyes drove from their own 30 to the Washington six, but again turned the ball over just before the game ended. George was brilliant. In becoming the only Ohio State runner to have three 200-yard games in his career, the 6-3, 227-pound senior carried the ball 36 times, 18 of those coming in the first half when he shredded the Husky defense for 149 yards and propelled Ohio State to a 23-7 lead. George's runs included a 51 yarder and an 12-yard scamper on a fake field goal that was the turning point in the game. Bobby Hoying completed 18 of 26 passes for 192 yards and a pair of touchdowns for OSU, a career-high seven of those tosses going to flanker Terry Glenn. The OSU defense was led by linebacker Greg Bellisari with 10 tackles. Outside linebacker Ryan Miller had nine stops and an interception that set up Ohio State's first score, while strong safety Rob Kelly had eight tackles, forced one fumble and recovered another. Both of the latter led to OSU scores. The Buckeye offense scored five of the six times it ventured inside the Washington red zone and converted 11of16 third down possibilities.

Bobby Hoying equaled his own school record with five touchdown passes and Terry Glenn set one school record and tied another as the Buckeyes ran their record to 3-0. Ohio State rolled up 636 yards in total offense, its highest total since 1986. Most of that yardage came through the air as three OSU signal callers combined to complete 23 of 33 passes for 421 yards and seven TDs, the latter still another school record. Glenn was unquestionably the star of the receiving corps, grabbing nine passes for 253 yards and four touchdowns. The yardage total eclipsed the school single-game record of 220 set by Gary Williams in 1981 and the TD figure tied Bob Grimes' 1952 record. The game was close at halftime, with OSU sluggish the first 30 minutes, but after Hoying threw three TD strikes in as many possessions to start the third quarter, it was no contest. OSU tailback Eddie George exited early in the third period, but still managed to pick up 122 yards rushing. Glenn finished with 315 all-purpose yards. The OSU defense forced five turnovers, including four interceptions, and held the Panthers to 264 yards. Middle linebacker Greg Bellisari had nine tackles to pace OSU. The potent Ohio State offense converted 10 of 13 third down situations.

In a game Ohio State fans had been waiting for since 1935, the Buckeyes gained a measure of revenge for the well-chronicled 18-13 loss to Notre Dame nearly 60 years earlier. And while that 1935 contest was later labeled by the national media as the greatest college football game in the first half of the 20th century, this game will go down in history as one of the greatest wins in Ohio State football lore. A record crowd of 95,537 jammed Ohio Stadium to see the much anticipated showdown, just the third meeting ever between the two giants. OSU started sluggishly and trailed 20-14 with five minutes to play in the third period. But the Buckeyes erupted for three touchdowns in the next five minutes (all three scores following Notre Dame turnovers) to take a 35-20 lead. The second of those TDs was a spectacular 82-yard catch-and-run by flanker Terry Glenn. Notre Dame scored its final TD of the day with 12:55 to go on a 13-yard run by Randy Kinder and trailed 35-26 after the try for two failed. But any hopes of a rally were quickly dashed by tailback Eddie George, who bolted 61 yards on the next play from scrimmage to set up yet another OSU touchdown. Three plays later, George scored that TD and the decibel level in Ohio Stadium reached an all-time high. George finished with 207 yards rushing (his second 200-yard game of the year and the fourth of his career), while Hoying threw four TD passes (giving him nine in two games), including two to Glenn (six in two games). Big plays were numerous, including Dimitrious Stanley's 17-yard TD reception just before the half that narrowed the Notre Dame lead to 17-14, and Mike Vrabel's hit at the OSU two-yard line that forced Notre Dame to settle for a field goal on its first possession of the second half. For 18 living members of the 1935 Ohio State team who were in attendance, it was a day worth waiting for.

Down 25-21 with 3:10 to play, the Buckeyes drove 58 yards in six plays to score the go-ahead touchdown and then shut down the Penn State offense on its final possession to salt away the win. Bobby Hoying completed a critical third-down pass to Buster Tillman to keep the final drive alive and then connected with tight end Rickey Dudley on the next play for a 32-yard gain to the Penn State 13-yard line. Tailback Eddie George took over from there, high stepping into the end zone two plays later on a six-yard run to complete a 105-yard day. The Buckeyes had failed on two other fourth-quarter drives, one ending on an interception and the other on an incomplete fourth-down pass. But given one final chance, and aided by a gutsy eight-yard punt return by Dimitrious Stanley, OSU chalked up its second victory over the Nittany Lions in three years. In addition to their final drive, the Buckeyes also marched 98 yards in the second quarter to take a 14-10 lead, overcoming an early 10-0 deficit. Hoying was brilliant, completing 24 of 35 passes for a career high 354 yards and three touchdowns. Flanker Terry Glenn was equally sensational with nine receptions, almost all of the acrobatic variety, for 175 yards and two of those TDs. The OSU defense stopped the Nittany Lions in their cut tracks on their last three possessions, twice on three-and-outs.

Despite a sluggish first half, that included a lost fumble on the second play from scrimmage and an interception in the end zone on their third possession, the Buckeyes overcame the "Madison Jinx" and rolled to victory No. 6 on the year. The Badgers, 4-2-1 at home vs. OSU since 1984, led 9-7 at the half, even though their best offense had been a pair of busted plays. OSU regained the lead in the third quarter on a two-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to Terry Glenn. Linebacker Ryan Miller set up the score with an interception and 33-yard return to the Wisconsin five. Down 16-13 heading into the fourth quarter, Ohio State marched 46 yards in eight plays with Eddie George going in from the one. George carried six times on the go-ahead drive. After the OSU defense forced a Wisconsin punt, the Buckeyes scored two plays later on a 51-yard burst by George, who had 103 of his 141 yards in the fourth quarter. Miller and Greg Bellisari had nine tackles each and ends Mike Vrabel and Matt Finkes combined for 10 tackles, including a pair of sacks, as the Ohio State defense turned in its best showing of the year, holding the Badgers to 271 yards in total offense.

The OSU defense held Purdue to 259 yards in recording its first shutout of the year. The Boilermakers, playing without their starting quarterback and tailback who were out with injuries, threatened only once all day, but were stopped on the OSU two-yard line as time ran out. The Buckeyes' punt return team set the tone early by blocking three punts (two were blocked and the punter was tackled with the ball for a 15-yard loss on the other). Quarterback Bobby Hoying and flanker Terry Glenn each etched their names into the records book. Hoying, who completed 20 of 29 passes and moved into first place nationally in passing efficiency as a result of that effort, threw three touchdown passes to tie his own school single-season mark of 19. Glenn caught two of those scoring aerials, giving him a school record 12 for the year. Hoying finished with 276 yards passing to became the first OSU signal caller to top the 200-yard mark six times in one season. Tailback Eddie George recorded his sixth straight 100-yard game before exiting early in the fourth quarter. True freshman Antoine Winfield made his first start, filling in for injured cornerback Shawn Springs, and had a team-high 11 tackles, including nine solos. It was his open-field tackle of Purdue quarterback John Reeves that ended the game. OSU recorded 13 tackles for loss, one shy of the school record.

The Buckeyes unleashed a fusillade of offensive weaponry in a brilliant 30 minutes of football and took a 56-7 lead into the locker room at halftime. The stunned Hawkeyes, who entered the game with just one loss and ranked No. 25 nationally, trailed 49-0 early in the second quarter as the Buckeyes scored touchdowns on each of their first six possessions. After amassing 396 yards on just 33 plays (12 yards per play), the entire first team offense sat out the second half. The offensive stars were numerous. Tailback Eddie George ran for 110 yards and a career-high four touchdowns on 15 carries, while Bobby Hoying threw for 273 yards and two scores, both to flanker Terry Glenn. Hoying's TD passes gave him a school record 21 for the year. Glenn, playing despite a stomach ailment, hauled in three passes for 149 yards and then spent the second half in the OSU training room. The OSU defense held the Hawkeyes to minus yardage on its first three possessions and picked off two first-half interceptions. The first, by linebacker Greg Bellisari, led to a Hoying-to-Glenn 56-yard scoring pass, and the second was returned 60 yards for a touchdown by cornerback Shawn Springs. The OSU defense had 12 tackles for loss on the day, giving the Buckeyes 25 in their last two games. The Buckeyes opened the game with a 55-yard Hoying to Glenn bomb. George scored from the three on the next play.

Bobby Hoying threw career touchdown passes numbers 50 and 51, breaking Art Schlichter's career record, and Eddie George rambled for 178 yards and three scores as the Buckeyes ran their record to 9-0 for the first time since 1979. George also had a career high eight receptions for 86 yards, coming within an eyelash of etching his name into the records book as the first Ohio State back ever to have 100-yards rushing and 100-yards receiving in the same game. Hoying and flanker Terry Glenn teamed up three times in the first quarter for 103 yards, including a 45 yarder on which Glenn's spectacular catch left the OSU wide receiver with a separated right shoulder, but did give him a school-record 1,141 receiving yards on the year. The OSU defense, facing the Gophers unique run-and-shoot attack for the first time, gave up 191 yards in the first quarter, but allowed just 179 in the last three quarters combined. The Buckeyes put on a memorable goal-line stand in the first quarter, stopping the Gophers six times from inside the two yard line. Defensive end Mike Vrabel finished with a pair of sacks and his first career interception.

It was a day no Ohio State fan will ever forget, and one that most Illinois fans would just as soon put out of their minds. With record-setting flanker Terry Glenn a last minute scratch because of a shoulder injury that didn't heal as quickly as hoped and the weather anything but conducive to throwing the ball, the Buckeyes decided to keep the ball on the ground. And run the ball they did as senior tailback Eddie George obliterated the school single-game record by rushing for 314 yards and a pair of touchdowns on 36 carries. When he left the game early in the fourth quarter, Keith Byars' old standard of 274 yards, which ironically had also been against the Illini in 1984, was a part of history. George had 128 yards in the first quarter alone and 180 at the half against a defense that had been allowing 109 yards a game rushing. When he ripped off a 64-yard run on OSU's first play from scrimmage in the third period, the record was only a matter of time. And just for good measure, he also had four receptions for 32 yards, including his first career touchdown catch. The OSU defense helped set the tone early by allowing the Illini just nine plays on their first three possessions — three-and-out, three-and-out, three-and-out. Illinois crossed the 50 just twice all day long.

Bobby Hoying delivered the knockout punch with two first quarter touchdown passes and then was KO'd himself in the third quarter, paving the way for backup quarterback Stanley Jackson to come off the bench and guide the Buckeyes to three second-half TDs and their 11th win of the year. With the Buckeyes leading the Hoosiers 21-3, Hoying suffered a concussion early in the third quarter and was done for the day. Enter Jackson, who promptly put the game away by directing OSU to three consecutive TDs on scoring drives of 77, 49 and 49 yards. The 42 points gave OSU 438 on the year, breaking the old school record of 437, set in 12 games in 1974. Terry Glenn, still tender from a shoulder separation, had five catches for 103 yards and two touchdowns in the first half and then sat out the rest of the game. Hoying's 202 passing yards gave him 2,737 for the year, breaking Art Schlichter's single-season record of 2,551 in 1981. Defensive end Mike Vrabel picked up his 19th and 20th tackle for loss, tying the school record that he and Matt Finkes had set in 1994.

Michigan rolled up 484 yards in total offense, including a school record 313 rushing yards by Tim Biakabutuka, to knock second-ranked Ohio State from the unbeaten ranks. The Buckeyes' normally productive offense totaled 392 yards, but could not punch the ball in the end zone when it counted. Twice in the first half, OSU marched inside the Michigan five, but on both occasions had to settle for field goals. An acrobatic interception by Shawn Springs set up a third field goal just before halftime and OSU seemed to have momentum on its side heading into the locker room. But a Michigan interception on the first play of the third quarter led to a 17-9 lead and swung the pendulum back to the home team. OSU closed the gap to 17-15 on a one-yard run by Eddie George that followed an interception by Mike Vrabel. But back came Michigan on its next drive, marching 65 yards in seven plays for a 24-15 lead. The Wolverines added another TD two possessions later and led 31-15 with 7:55 to play. OSU countered with its final touchdown of the day and a two-point conversion to cut the lead to 31-23 with 6:33 to play, but could get no closer. Vrabel recorded three tackles for loss to give him a school record 23 on the season.

The first-ever meeting between Ohio State and Tennessee resulted in a 20-14 Vols' victory and kept the 11-2 Buckeyes from becoming the first team in school history to win 12 games in a season. Playing in a driving rainstorm that reduced the field to a quagmire, OSU jumped off to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a two-yard dive by Eddie George. The TD followed a blocked punt by OSU's Central McClellion that gave the Buckeyes the ball on the Tennessee 23-yard line. OSU was in control most of the first half, but Jay Graham's 69-yard scoring run with 23 seconds left in the half tied the score and gave UT some much-needed momentum heading into the locker room. The Vols maintained that momentum by taking a 14-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 47-yard pass from Peyton Manning to Joey Kent that followed a roughing-the-kicker penalty against the Buckeyes. OSU battled back to tie the score at 14-all on a 32-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to tight end Rickey Dudley with 14:40 to play in the fourth quarter. But Tennessee responded by marching 59 yards in 13 plays on its next possession to take a 17-14 lead on a 29-yard field goal by Jeff Hall, and when Hall added another three pointer with 2:06 to play, the Vols were on top 20-14. OSU mounted one last drive, but a fumble at the Tennessee 38 ended that threat and the Vols ran out the remaining 57 ticks on the clock for their 11th win of the season against just one defeat. Dudley was OSU's offensive MVP, while defensive end Matt Finkes was the defensive MVP for the second straight year. The Buckeyes played most of the game without cornerback Shawn Springs, who suffered a shoulder injury on Tennessee's first possession of the game.

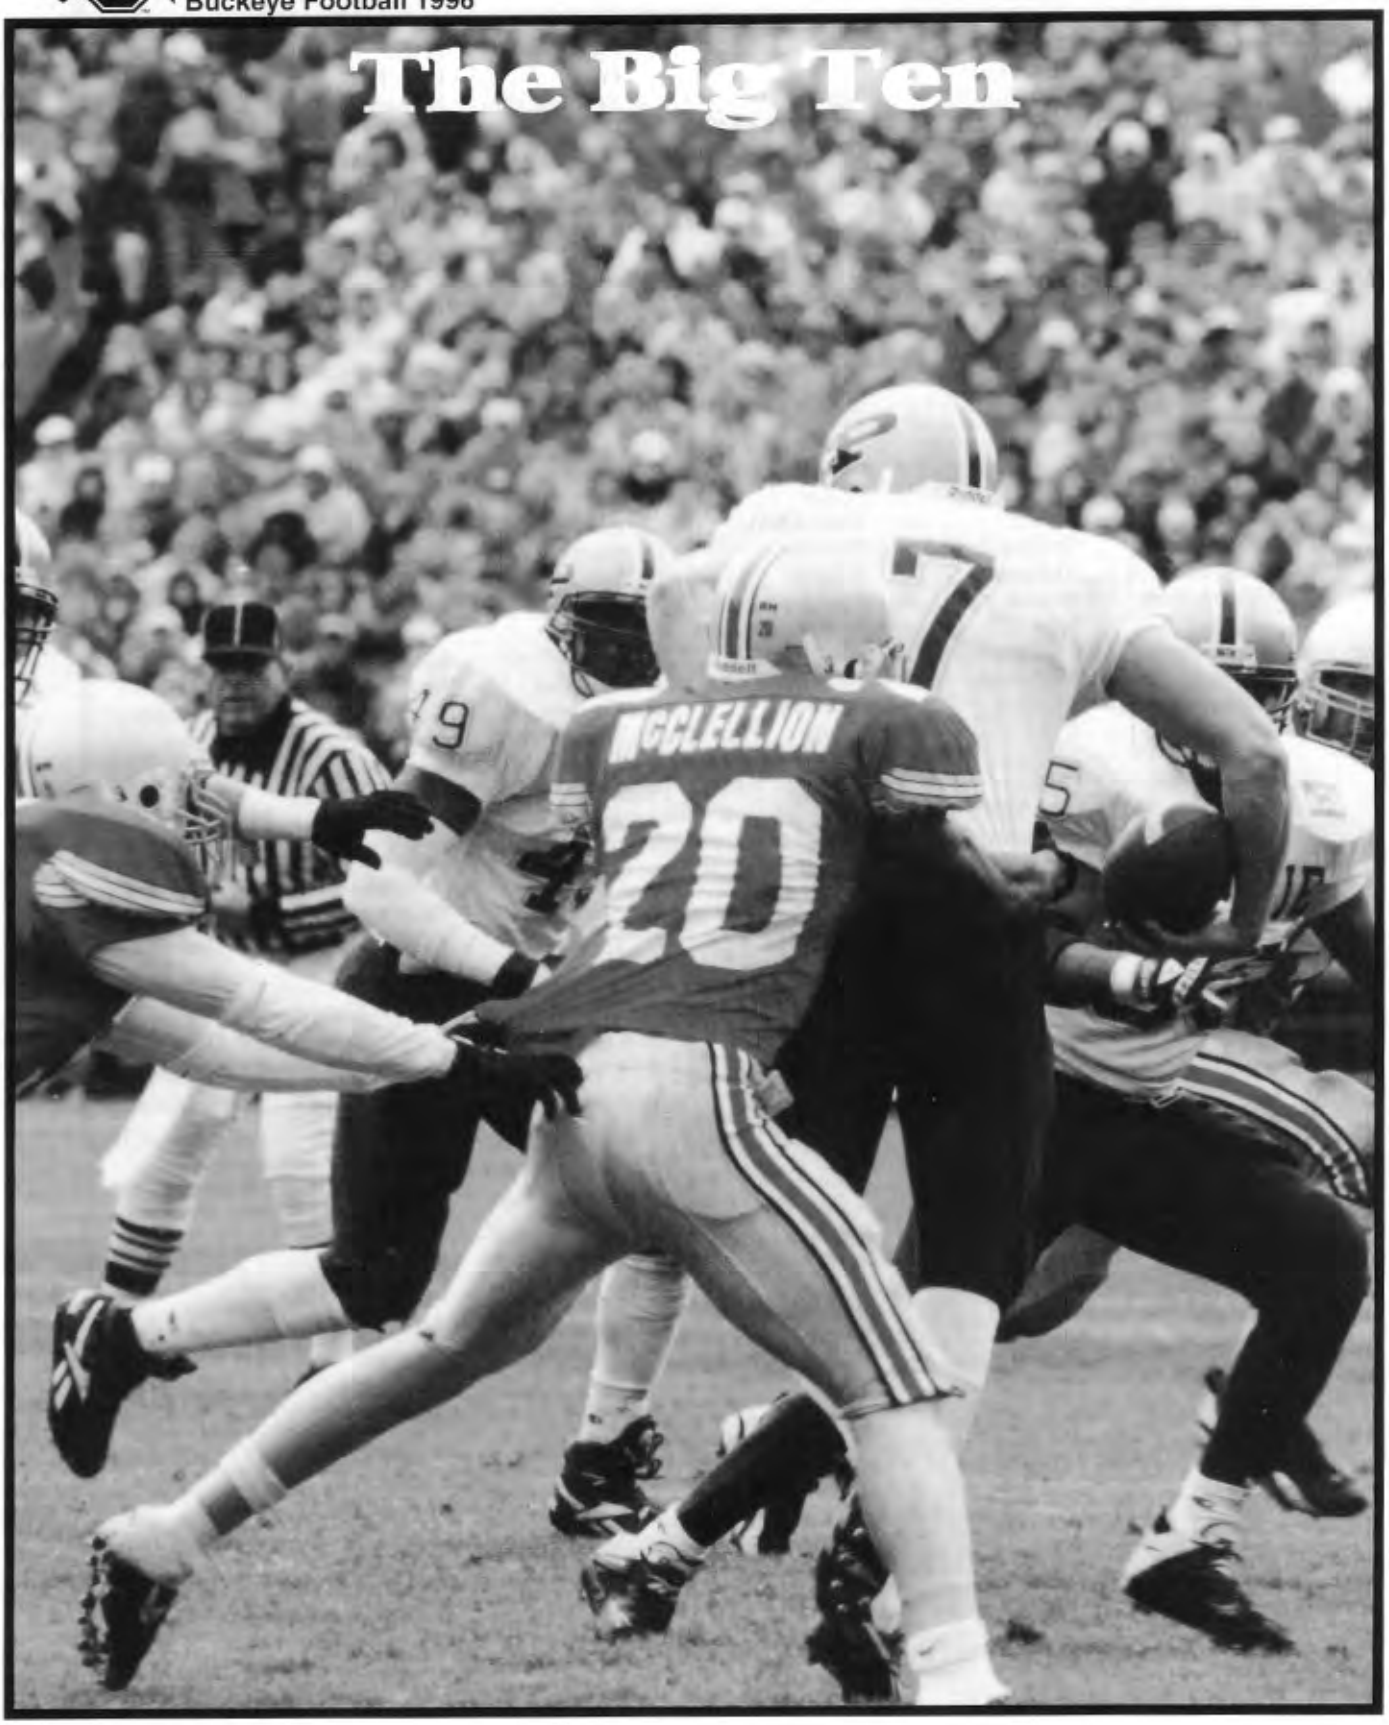
The Big Ten



The Big Ten Conference

The Story of a Conference – Rich in Tradition

A meeting of seven Midwest university presidents on January 11, 1895 at the Palmer House in Chicago to discuss the regulation and control of intercollegiate athletics, was the first development of what would become one of organized sports' most successful undertakings.

Those seven men, behind the leadership of James H. Smart, president of Purdue University, established the principles for which the Intercollegiate Conference of Faculty Representatives, more popularly known as the Big Ten Conference, would be founded. At that meeting, a blueprint for the control and administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first-known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies."

Eleven months after the presidents met, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House, and officially established the mechanics of the "Intercollegiate Conference of Faculty Representatives", or the "Big Ten Conference" or Western Conference." Those seven universities were: University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University, Purdue University and the University of Wisconsin.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa were later admitted in 1899. Ohio State joined in 1912. Chicago withdrew in 1946 and Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added three years later in 1949. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents voted to make Pennsylvania State University the 11th member of the conference.

Football and baseball were the popular sports prior to 1900. Wisconsin won the first two football championships in 1896 and '97. Chicago claimed the first three baseball titles also beginning in 1896. The first "official" sponsored championship was in outdoor track, held at the University of Chicago in 1901. Michigan won from amongst a field of nine teams competing at Marshall Field in Chicago.

Since then, there have been many different athletic events popularized on Big Ten campuses. Some became extremely popular — football and basketball, for example. Others, like boxing, fell by the wayside. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 24 championships, 12 each for men and women.

The office of the commissioner of athletics was created in 1922 "to study athletic problems of the various Western Conference universities and assist in enforcing the eligibility rules which govern the Big Ten athletics." Major John L. Griffith was appointed as the first commissioner and served in that position until his death in 1944. Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson, former director of the athletics at Northwestern, served from 1944 until he retired in 1961. Bill Reed, an assistant commissioner since 1951, succeeded Wilson until his death in 1971. Wayne Duke became the fourth Big Ten commissioner in 1971 and retired June 30, 1989. Duke was succeeded by James E. Delany on July 1, 1989. Delany came to the Big Ten with a legal background that also included having worked as an enforcement representative for the NCAA and served as the Ohio Valley conference Commissioner for 10 years.

Commissioner James E. Delany

Delany is only the fifth commissioner in the history of the Big Ten. He oversees the operation of the Big Ten Conference office and its 23-member staff that work out of the Big Ten Conference office headquarters and meetings center in Park Ridge, Illinois. The Conference office building is 10 minutes from O'Hare International Airport and has been designed to fully service the needs of the Conference's 60-plus different committees, coaches and governance groups that hold over 125 meeting days per year.

From the Conference office headquarters, Delany and his staff manage more than 200 live television events (more than any other sports entity), provide legislative and compliance services to member institutions and their personnel, manage championships and inseason competitive schedules for 24 sports, provide staff services to over 400 coaching and administrative personnel on Big Ten campuses, and service the needs and interests of media and fans that what to know about the Conference.

Under The Dome

Ohio State is making just its second trip to Notre Dame. The Buckeyes are 0-1 at Notre Dame, losing 7-2 in 1936. OSU's only points in that game came on a punt blocked out of the end zone . . . Quarterback Ron Powlus did not participate in spring drills. He was recovering from a broken left arm suffered in ND's 35-17 win over Navy Nov. 4.

Badger Bits

Ohio State, Michigan and Wisconsin are the only Big Ten schools to produce a 1,000-yard rusher in each of the last three seasons. The Badgers, however, are the only one to have three different players (Brent Moss, Terrell Fletcher and Carl McCullough) reach that plateau.

Led by All-Americans John Brockington, Jim Stillwagon, Jack Tatum and Mike Sensibaugh, the Ohio State Buckeyes claimed the Big Ten title and their most recent National Championship, the National Football Foundation crown, with a 9-1 record.

The national championship was Woody Hayes' fifth with the Buckeyes and the Big Ten championship was the third in a string of nine championships in 10 years. Despite the continued success with Hayes at the helm, some say the senior class of 1970 may have been the school's greatest ever. In three years, the team won 27 of 29 games, three Big Ten Championships and a pair of National Championships. They broke nearly every school record at the time plus all of the OSU attendance marks.

OSU rolled through the regular season 9-0 with a 7-0 Big Ten mark, but stumbled in a 27-17 loss to Stanford in the Rose Bowl. Still, the NFF selected the Buckeyes No. 1, while UPI had OSU No. 2 and the Associated Press had the Buckeyes No. 5.

OSU finished the season averaging 29 points per game, while the defense allowed a meager 12 points per outing.

Brockington led the OSU offense with 1,142 yards rushing and 17 touchdowns. Quarterback Rex Kern passed for 470 yards and three touchdowns and also rushed for 597 yards and seven touchdowns. Jan White was the team leader with 17 catches for 171 yards.

Tatum, Stillwagon and Sensibaugh led a defense that allowed only 263.2 yards per game and forced 32 turnovers. Stan White led the team with 106 tackles.

Tatum, Stillwagon, Sensibaugh, Brockington, Mark Debevec (c), Dave Cheney (t), Phil Strickland (g) and Tom DeLeone (c) earned all-Big Ten honors.

Ohio State opened the season with a 56-13 romp over the Texas A&M Aggies in front of 85,657 fans in Columbus. OSU totaled 513 yards offense to only 321 for the Aggies and seven different players found paydirt for the Scarlet and Gray.

In week two, the Buckeyes dropped their second non-conference opponent with a 34-10 win over the visiting Duke Blue Devils. Ohio State once again dominated the statistics with 481 yards to 249 for the Blue Devils. Leo Hayden rushed for 165 yards while Brockington and Kern added 117 and 113 each.

The Hayes-led Buckeyes rolled through the Big Ten schedule. OSU opened the schedule with a 29-0 win over Michigan State in East Lansing followed by a 28-8 win over the Minnesota Golden Gophers. In the Minnesota game, Brockington rushed for 187 yards and two touchdowns.

One week later, the Buckeyes' offense rolled up the big numbers in a 48-29 win at Illinois. Brockington scored three times in the game and Ohio State totaled 475 yards of total offense.

Ohio State continued to roll through the Big Ten schedule with wins over Northwestern, Wisconsin and Purdue. In the Northwestern game, Brockington rushed for 161 yards and a touchdown, while Kern rushed for a pair of scores. Brockington added three more scores a week later against the Badgers and he scored the Buckeyes' only touchdown in the Purdue game.

In an emotional Michigan game, Ohio State, much to the delight of a delerious Ohio Stadium crowd, avenged their only loss of 1969, downing the Wolverines 20-9. OSU limited the Wolverines to 155 yards and 10 first downs.

In the Rose Bowl, Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett led Stanford to 14 fourth-quarter points to clinch a victory. Plunkett was 20-of-30 for 265 yards and a touchdown. It was the only blemish on an otherwise perfect season.

Led by an amazing class of sophomores that included quarterback Rex Kern, defensive back Jack Tatum and defensive lineman Jim Stillwagon, the Ohio State Buckeyes rolled to a 10-0 record and the last wire service National Championship for a Big Ten school when it defeated Southern California in the Rose Bowl, 27-16.

The team compiled numbers that boggle the mind and beat teams that it wasn't supposed to beat. The Woody Hayes-led squad averaged 32 points and 440 yards per game, impressive numbers for that time, and the defense was stingy, allowing 15 points and 292 yards.

Eleven players from the team earned All-America honors during their careers and six players from the team were drafted in the first round of the NFL draft in either 1969 or 1971.

Jim Otis led the Buckeyes' rushing attack with 985 yards and 17 touchdowns, while Kern was the passing leader with 972 yards and seven touchdowns. Sensibaugh led the defense with five interceptions and Mark Stier recorded 87 tackles.

The unknown and young Buckeyes opened the season at home with a 35-14 victory over Southern Methodist. Despite an NCAA record performance from SMU quarterback Chuck Hixson, the Buckeye defense forced six turnovers and allowed only 50 yards on the ground. On the offensive side of things, the Buckeyes rolled along with 227 yards on the ground and another 145 in the air to tally five touchdowns.

OSU then rolled past Oregon 21-6 before playing perhaps the most important game of the season. With a 2-0 record, but still a questionable reputation, the wet behind the ears Buckeyes hosted the No. 1 ranked Purdue Boilermakers. It was this game that probably made the biggest difference in the Scarlet and Gray's season.

The Ohio State defense throttled a Purdue offense led by All-America candidates Mike Phipps and Leroy Keyes, allowing only 186 yards and no points. The defense also scored the Buckeyes' first touchdown as Ted Provost picked off a Phipps pass and cruised 35 yards into the end zone for all the points OSU would need. Quarterback Bill Long added a 14-yard run in the third quarter giving the Buckeyes a 13-0 victory and a piece of the national limelight.

From that point on, the momentum just snowballed through the rest of the season. The next week Hayes' squad drilled Northwestern 45-21 in Columbus on the strength of 565 yards of total offense. On Oct. 26 it was the Fighting Illini that took it on the chin when Kern and Otis combined for 129 yards and four touchdowns on the ground as OSU jumped out to a 24-0 halftime lead.

The Buckeyes defeated Michigan State, Wisconsin and Iowa before hosting the Michigan Wolverines in Ohio Stadium on Nov. 23. In a game that clinched the Big Ten Championship and a Rose Bowl berth, the Buckeyes scored 29 second-half points for a 50-14 win. Otis had 143 yards on the ground and four touchdowns and Kern added 96 yards and two scores as OSU tallied 421 yards and seven TDs on the ground.

The win over Michigan set up a showdown between No. 1 OSU and No. 2 Southern California in the Rose Bowl.

In one of the great games of all time in Pasadena, OSU overcame a 10-0 deficit and rolled to a 27-16 win. Though he scored on an 80-yard run, Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpspn was held to 91 yards on 27 carries the rest of the way.

Led by an explosive offense that averaged nearly 30 points per Big Ten game, the Buckeyes won their 10th undisputed Big Ten Championship and were awarded the Football Writers' Association National Championship.

The Buckeyes scored 40 or more points two times and passed the 30-point plateau one other time. Just as they had in 1957 with an 18-14 win in Columbus, Texas Christian's Horned Frogs denied the Buckeyes a perfect season with a 7-7 tie, but it was the only time all season that an opponent was within one touchdown of the mighty Scarlet and Gray.

The offense was led by three outstanding running backs (Matt Snell, Bob Ferguson and Paul Warfield). Ferguson led the Big Ten in rushing with 671 yards in conference games, while Warfield was fourth with 307 in Big Ten contests. Ferguson finished his career ranked second on the OSU all-time rushing list with 2,162 yards and was runnerup to Ernie Davis for the Heisman Trophy that year.

Still, the Buckeyes did not play in the Rose Bowl when the OSU Faculty Council voted to reject the bid. The Buckeyes ended the season ranked No. 2 in both the UPI and AP polls, one slot behind Bear Bryant's Alabama Crimson Tide.

After the TCU tie, the Buckeyes defeated the eventual Pac-8 Champions, UCLA, 13-3 in Columbus. OSU scored all 13 points in the fourth quarter on rushing touchdowns by Snell and Warfield. While the offense took its time getting warmed up, the defense was smoking, holding the high-powered Bruin offense to 166 yards and a field goal.

One week later, the Buckeyes destroyed Illinois 44-0, outgaining the Illini 424-180 and forcing four turnovers. Eight Buckeyes rushed for 10 or more yards in the game, including quarterback John Mummey (63) and Warfield (62). Ferguson totaled only 45 yards on the ground, but had four scores.

The Buckeyes beat Northwestern and Wisconsin before hosting a Homecoming thriller against the Iowa Hawkeyes. Holding a slim 12-7 lead at the end of the third period, the Buckeyes scored on each of their first three possessions in the final stanza to tally a 29-13 win and keep their undefeated season intact. Ferguson rushed for 144 yards and a score and Joe Sparma passed for 88 yards and two scores, both to Charles Bryant, who caught four passes for 94 yards.

Hayes' squad posted wins over Indiana and Oregon for wins six and seven before traveling to Ann Arbor for the annual battle with arch-rival Michigan.

OSU led 21-12 entering the fourth quarter before the Buckeye offense exploded for 29 fourth-quarter points and a 50-20 win. Ferguson rushed for 152 yards and four touchdowns and Warfield added 122 yards and a score as OSU totaled 512 yards offense in chalking up all-time win No. 400.

After being stunned in the season opener by Texas Christian (18-14), Ohio State rolled to a 9-1 record and the UPI and Football Writers' National Championships.

This edition of the Buckeyes had everything, including an offense ranked 11th nationally and a defense that allowed only 9.2 points per game. Don Clark led the rushing attack with 655 yards and eight touchdowns, but seven players had at least 195 yards rushing and nine Buckeyes scored touchdowns. Ohio State was particularly tough late in the game as it allowed only six points in the fourth quarter all season.

Clark, Aurealius Thomas and Leo Brown earned all-Big Ten recognition and Thomas was an All-American for Woody Hayes' second National Championship team. Also, Jim Parker was drafted in the first round by the Baltimore Colts after the season.

After the loss to the Horned Frogs, the Buckeyes went on the road to battle the Washington Huskies and came away with a 35-7 victory. A week later, the Buckeyes opened the Big Ten season with a 21-7 win over Illinois and followed that win with a 56-0 pasting of the Indiana Hoosiers.

OSU faced a stern test the next week at Wisconsin, but came out on top, 16-13. Don Sutherin's third-quarter field goal provided the margin of victory.

After relatively easier wins over Northwestern and Purdue, the Buckeyes had their hands full in week eight against Iowa. Trailing 13-10 in the fourth quarter, OSU put together a patented Hayes march that culminated with a five-yard touchdown plunge by Bob White and a 17-13 triumph.

The next week OSU headed north to Ann Arbor to battle Michigan. The Buckeyes trailed 14-10 entering the second half, but took control after intermission and downed the Wolverines 31-14 to earn a trip to the Rose Bowl.

After the win over the vaunted Wolverines, the Buckeyes met Pac-8 Champion Oregon in the Rose Bowl. The Buckeyes scored first, when Frank Kremblas scored on a one-yard dive over the center, but the Ducks tied the score with a five-yard run in the second quarter. The game remained tied through the third quarter and into the fourth, but the quarter that was so kind to the Buckeyes all season was good once again.

On a drive that started with more than five minutes remaining in the third period, the Buckeyes drove 56 yards in 14 plays to take a 10-7 lead on a 34-yard field goal by the sure-footed Sutherin.

From then on, it was the defense as the Ducks were unable to get an offensive attack going and the Buckeyes grabbed their third National Championship.

It didn't take Woody Hayes long to put his mark on the Ohio State Buckeyes. In his fourth season at the OSU helm, Hayes pushed his team to the limit and came away with the ultimate prize, his first National Championship.

It would be the first of five for Hayes, who won 205 games at OSU. Woody's 1954 team was the first in Ohio State history to win 10 games and had one of the Buckeyes' best ever players in Howard "Hopalong" Cassady.

Cassady, who won the Heisman trophy the next season, accounted for 849 yards and earned first-team All-American honors in 1954. He led the team with 609 rushing yards and 12 receptions. End Dean Dugger also earned All-America honors and four other players earned all-Big Ten honors, as the Buckeyes ran roughshod over their opponents that season, outscoring the opposition 249-75.

The defense was led by Jim Parker, who became an All-America guard the next two years, won the Outland Trophy as a senior and was a first round NFL draft pick of the Baltimore Colts. On the year, Ohio State held its foes to 7.5 points and 110 rushing yards per game, recovered 17 fumbles and had 18 interceptions and did not give up more than two touchdowns in a game.

OSU opened the season with a 26-0 victory over Indiana in Columbus. Quarterback Will Leggett rushed for 45 yards and passed for another 64 to lead the way.

The Buckeyes defeated western powerhouse Cal 21-13 the next week in Columbus as Cassady rushed for 104 yards and had touchdown runs of 29 and 26 yards. He also led the squad with four catches for 50 yards.

OSU drilled Illinois 40-7 the next week and then beat Iowa, Wisconsin and Northwestern in its next three outings. Robert Watkins had a pair of big games in that span, rushing for 112 and 106 against Illinois and Iowa, respectively.

Wins over the Pitt Panthers, 26-0, and the Purdue Boilermakers, 28-6, preceeded the annual Michigan finale.

The Buckeyes and the Wolverines battled to a 7-7 tie through the first three quarters and neither team could gain an edge. But, led by the running of Cassady and the passing of Leggett, Ohio State scored 14 fourth-quarter points for a 21-7 victory. Cassady ended the day with 94 rushing yards while Leggett had 42 and 58 yards passing. Leggett accounted for the first two Buckeye scores with passes to Frederick Kriss and Richard Brubaker, and Cassady iced the game with a one-yard dive late in the game. Ohio State was 9-0 and headed to Pasadena.

The Rose Bowl was a titanic battle between the Scarlet and Gray and the Southern California Trojans. The Buckeyes played flawless football with 22 first downs, 370 yards and no fumbles lost, and they rolled to a 20-7 victory as the Trojans had seven fumbles and totaled only six first downs.

It was an amazing squad that grabbed the National Title in 1942 with an overwhelming offense and a smothering defense.

Coached by Hall of Famer Paul Brown, the offense averaged 33.7 points per game while piling up 281.2 rushing yards per game and 5.2 yards per carry. The defense, on the other hand, allowed only 114 points and held its opponents to seven or fewer points four times in the 10-game season.

End Robert Shaw, tackle Chuck Csuri and guard Lindel Houston earned All-America honors, and seven players earned all-Big Ten honors. It was truly a team of stars. Fullbacks Gene Fekete and Paul Sarringhaus were among the conference's leaders in rushing with 916 and 672 yards, respectively. Fekete led the Big Ten in scoring with 92 points, while Sarringhaus was second with 72. On defense, George James and Tom Lynn each ranked among the Top 10 in the Big Ten with five interceptions.

The amazingly talented team rolled through the regular season with only a single blemish (a 17-7 loss to Wisconsin) and finished the season ranked No. 1 in the AP poll.

OSU opened the season with a 59-0 pasting of Fort Knox. Fekete and Dick Palmer scored two touchdowns each as the Buckeyes rolled up 440 yards rushing to -14 for the service squad. The Buckeyes had 19 first downs to only one for Ft. Knox. OSU poured it on in the second half with 20 points in both the third and fourth quarters.

Ohio State battled Big Ten rival Indiana the next week, grabbing a 32-21 victory in front of the home crowd. Fekete rushed for 132 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Buckeyes back from a 21-19 third-period deficit to the victory.

OSU rolled to easy wins over USC, Purdue and Northwestern before making the trip to Madison for the battle with the Badgers. In that game, Wisconsin All-Americans Elroy Hirsch, Marlin Harder and Dave Schreiner dominated the Buckeyes, with Hirsch and Harder combining for 212 yards and 11 points. OSU narrowly avoided a shutout with a fourth-quarter touchdown run by Sarringhaus.

The Buckeyes rebounded from the loss with a 59-19 dismantling of the Pittsburgh Panthers. A week later, they pounded Illinois to set up a showdown with the Michigan Wolverines. The Wolverines, who had beaten Notre Dame a week earlier, were a heavy favorites, but the Buckeyes dazzled the Maize and Blue with three passing touchdowns and prevailed 21-7. The win gave them the Big Ten title.

One week later, the Buckeyes clinched the National Championship with a 41-12 win over the Iowa Seahawks.

Woody Hayes

Head Coach 1951-1978

For 28 years Woody Hayes was Ohio State football. Between 1951 and 1978 the legendary coach took the Buckeyes to heights never before achieved in the school's rich football history.

While Hayes stalked the Ohio Stadium sidelines, the Buckeyes won five national titles (and narrowly missed out on four others), captured 13 Big Ten crowns and won 205 games, including 152 conference games. On two different occasions the Buckeyes won a conference record 17 straight league games.

Under Woody, the Buckeyes played in 11 bowl games, including eight Rose Bowls. Ohio State is the only Big Ten school to play in four consecutive Rose Bowls, traveling to Pasadena following the 1972-73-74 and '75 seasons.

Under Hayes' guidance, 56 different Ohio State players garnered first-team All-America berths. Additionally, he coached three Heisman Trophy winners, three Outland Trophy recipients and two Lombardi Award honorees.

Four of Hayes' teams notched unbeaten records and five others suffered just one loss. Between 1968 and 1970, the Buckeyes were 27-2 and won three Big Ten titles. From 1972 to 1977, OSU reeled off six consecutive league championships and fashioned a combined record of 49-8.

The list of former Hayes assistants includes Bill Mallory, Glen Mason, Gary Moeller, Lou Holtz, Bo Schembechler, Earle Bruce and Joe Bugel, just to name a few.

Hayes' lifetime record of 238-72-10 places him sixth in all-time NCAA Division I-A coaching victories. During his stay with the Buckeyes, Hayes twice won National Coach of the Year honors. And during the Hayes era, the Buckeyes led the nation in attendance 21 times and finished second in each of the other seven years.

Hayes, who grew up in Newcomerstown, graduated from Denison in 1935. He spent his entire coaching career within the state of Ohio, coaching at Denison for three years and at Miami for two.

Hayes was also a noted historian with a passion for military history. He held the rank of associate professor at Ohio State and took great pride in being able to teach during the off-season. He was as proud of his players' high graduation rate as he was of their success on the football field.

Wayne Woodrow "Woody" Hayes was born on Feb. 14, 1913, in Clifton, Ohio. He died on March 12, 1987, but his influence lives on through the many thousands of people he touched during his 28 years at Ohio State. Woody Hayes holds a very special place in college football history.

Heisman Heritage

Archie Griffin Two-Time Heisman Trophy Winner (1974-75)

In 1974, Ohio State tailback Archie Griffin became just the fifth junior ever to win the Heisman Trophy. In 1975, Griffin became the first player ever to win a second Heisman. Twenty-one years later he is still the only player to have two of the coveted bronze statues, which go annually to the nation's top college football player.

But even though more than two decades have passed, honors continue to befall Griffin, now an associate director of athletics at his alma mater.

Most recently, Griffin has been selected to the National High School Hall of Fame. He will be inducted into that organization this fall. He is also a member of the National Football Foundation and the Rose Bowl halls of fame, and, of course, belongs to the Ohio State University Athletics Hall of Fame.

"It's hard to believe it has been 21 years," says Griffin, who to this day remains as one of the most popular Ohio State players of all time. "I was extremely fortunate to be on great teams, surrounded by great players and a tremendous coaching staff.

"I learned a lot about football while I was at Ohio State, but I also learned a lot about being a person and I have tried to live my life according to the values that I learned while playing for Coach (Woody) Hayes. He and my father (the late James Griffin) were the two most inspirational men in my life."

Archie Griffin

Griffin was the Buckeyes' starting tailback for four years, leading Ohio State to a 40-5-1 record and four Big Ten titles between 1972 and 1975. He started in four consecutive Rose Bowls, the only player ever to do so, and was a three-time first-team All-American.

At 5-9 and 180 pounds, Griffin was small by college football standards even then, but he played with the heart of a lion and no football accomplishment was beyond his reach.

In just the second game of his freshman year, Griffin ran for a school record 239 yards. It was the start of a brilliant career that would see him amass an OSU record 5,589 yards and 26 touchdowns.

Griffin At Ohio State

1972: Set a then OSU single-game rushing record with 239 yards against North Carolina. Rushed for 867 yards during the year, then an OSU freshman record.

1973: Became the first OSU sophomore ever to rush for 1,000 yards (1,577) and was named to a first-team spot on the U.P.I. All-American team. Winner of the Chicago Tribune's Silver Football as the Big Ten Player of the Year.

1974: Rushed for a then school record 1,695 yards and was a unanimous All-America choice. Won the Heisman Trophy, a second straight Silver Football and was the U.P.I. and Walter Camp Player of the Year.

1975: Made college football history by winning his second Heisman. Again chosen by U.P.I. and Walter Camp as Player of the Year. Was also everyone's All-American.

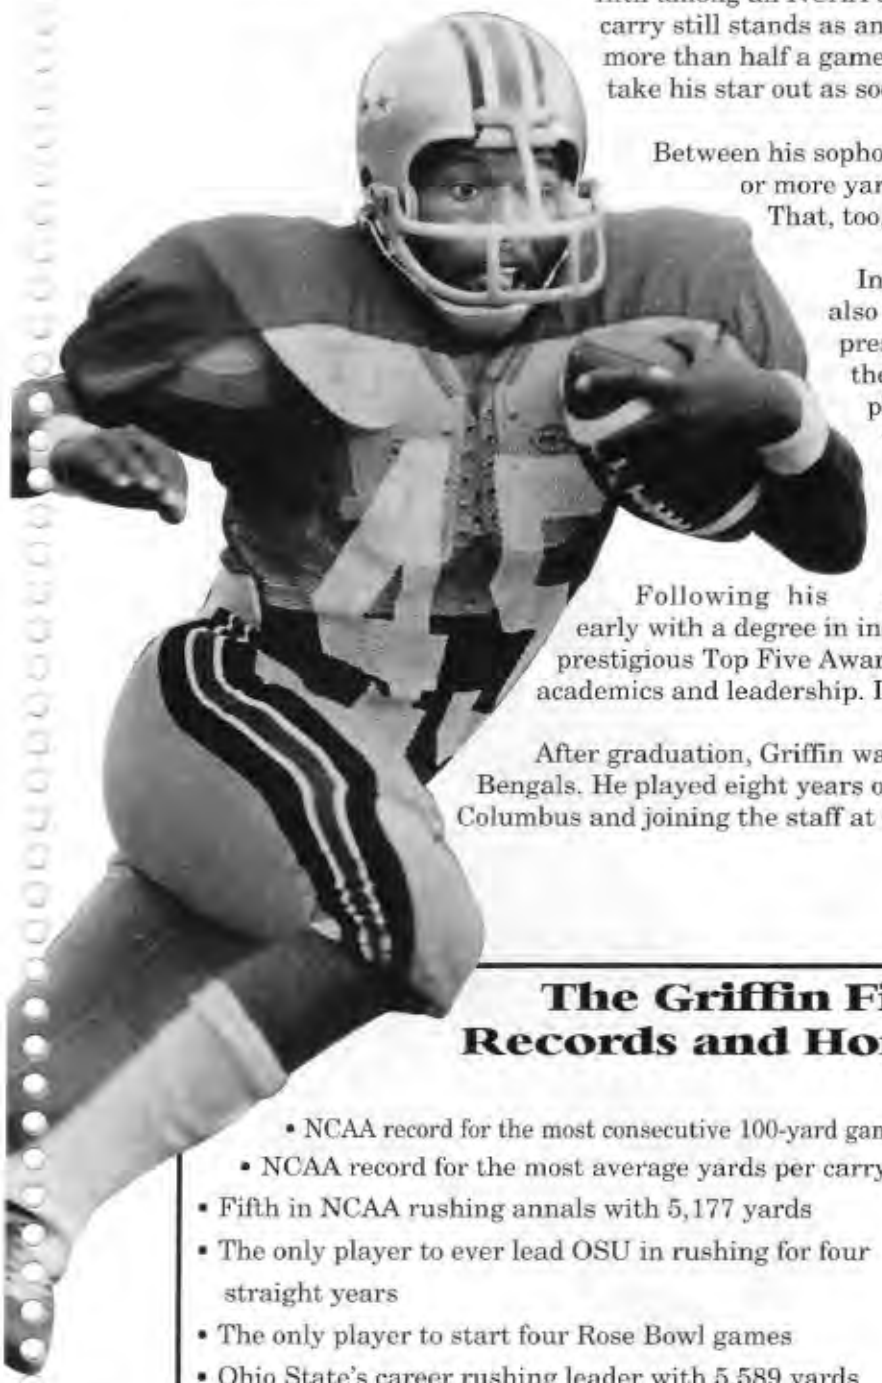
Excluding bowl games, Griffin rushed for 5,177 yards on 845 carries. The former figure ranks him fifth among all NCAA career ball carriers, and his 6.13 yards per carry still stands as an NCAA record. And Griffin rarely played more than half a game, his coach, Woody Hayes, always opting to take his star out as soon as the Buckeyes were in control.



Between his sophomore and senior seasons, Griffin ran for 100 or more yards in 31 consecutive regular-season games. That, too, is still an NCAA record.

In addition to two Heisman Trophies, Griffin also has a pair of Silver Footballs, an award presented annually by the Chicago Tribune to the Big Ten's MVP. He is one of just three players to win that award twice. Griffin also was a two-time pick as National Player of the Year by both United Press International and the Walter Camp Foundation. He won those honors as a junior and senior.

Following his senior year, Griffin, who graduated a quarter early with a degree in industrial relations, received the NCAA's prestigious Top Five Award for combined excellence in athletics, academics and leadership. It is the highest award the NCAA can bestow.

After graduation, Griffin was a first-round draft choice of the Cincinnati Bengals. He played eight years of professional football, before returning to Columbus and joining the staff at Ohio State.

The Griffin File
Records and Honors

- NCAA record for the most consecutive 100-yard games-31
- NCAA record for the most average yards per carry-6.13
- Fifth in NCAA rushing annals with 5,177 yards
- The only player to ever lead OSU in rushing for four straight years
- The only player to start four Rose Bowl games
- Ohio State's career rushing leader with 5,589 yards
- Member of the Ohio State University Athletic Hall of Fame
- Member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame
- Member of the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame
- Member National High School Hall of Fame

Archie, with brothers Ray (44) and Duncan (46) were OSU teammates in 1975.

Les Horvath 1944 Heisman Trophy Winner (1921-1995)

In 1944, Les Horvath made Ohio State history by becoming the school's first Heisman Trophy winner. With Horvath at the controls, the Buckeyes posted a perfect 9-0 record and won the Big Ten championship.

Les Horvath

Horvath enjoyed a brilliant senior campaign in 1944. In addition to leading the Big Ten in rushing (669 yards) and total offense (953 yards), the Parma, O., native also accounted for 1,248 all-purpose yards.

Horvath, who played both quarterback and halfback on offense and safety on defense, was the Big Ten's Most Valuable Player in 1944. Shortly after being accorded that honor, he became the first of Ohio State's four Heisman recipients.

Ironically, Horvath almost didn't play in 1944. After helping lead the 1942 Buckeyes to a 9-1 record and the school's first national championship, Horvath entered Dental School at Ohio State and did not play in 1943. But when Coach Carroll Widdoes went to him prior to the 1944 season, the 23-year-old Horvath, who had an extra year because of wartime rules, agreed to return to the gridiron.

"At first I wasn't sure I wanted to play," said Horvath on one of his last visits to Columbus. "Dental school was quite taxing. But Coach Widdoes said I wouldn't have to practice all the time and agreed to fly me to the games, both of which gave me more time to study."

Horvath, who still ranks in OSU's top 20 in total offense with 2,055 yards, went on to play professional football with the Los Angeles Rams and Cleveland Browns. Following his professional career, he returned to Los Angeles and practiced dentistry.

Horvath, who died last November, belonged to the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Athletic Hall of Fame.

As Ohio State's first Heisman winner, he will always hold a special place in the hearts of Ohio State fans.

Les Horvath was Ohio State's first Heisman winner. He won the award in 1944, when he accounted for 1,248 yards in total offense and led the Buckeyes to a 9-0 record.

Vic Janowicz 1950 Heisman Trophy Winner (1930-1996)

How good was Vic Janowicz? Good enough to win the 1950 Heisman Trophy as a junior on a team that posted a modest 6-3 record. And good enough that to this day most historians consider him the greatest athlete ever to play football at Ohio State.

Vic Janowicz

Rich, but deserved, praise for Janowicz, who in addition to being a triple threat on offense also played safety on defense.

In the words of his former coach, Wesley Fesler, "Vic excelled in every phase of the game. He not only was a great runner, passer and blocker, he also did all of our kicking, including punting, field goals, quick kicks, kick offs and extra points. He was one of the finest, most versatile athletes I have ever seen."

Janowicz enjoyed his finest year in 1950, accounting for 16 touchdowns and 938 yards in total offense. He also led the Buckeyes in scoring with 65 points. In an 83-21 win over Iowa, he ran for two touchdowns, passed for four more and set a Big Ten record with 10 extra points. He completed five of six passes for 128 yards against the Hawkeyes.

Perhaps even more remarkable was a 27-yard field goal against Michigan in the now famous 1950 Snow Bowl. That kick, into a driving snow storm with the goal post barely visible, is one of the greatest individual accomplishments in Ohio State sports history.

Janowicz, who was a consensus All-America in 1950, also set another record in the Snow Bowl, punting 21 times for 685 yards. Both are school records.

After graduation, Janowicz played two years of professional baseball with the Pittsburgh Pirates, even though he had been away from the game nearly six years. He returned to football in 1954, signing with the Washington Redskins and winning the starting job at halfback as a rookie. In 1955, Janowicz barely missed out on the NFL scoring title, losing the crown on the last day of the season. His pro career was cut short the following fall, when he was involved in a near fatal car accident that left him unconcious for 30 days.

A member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Hall of Fame, Janowicz died this past February.

Vic Janowicz, believed by many to be the greatest athlete ever to play football at Ohio State, won the Heisman in 1950 as a junior. A true triple threat, he led the Buckeyes in rushing, passing and punting that year. He also kicked 23 field goals, including a 27-yarder in the "Snow Bowl."

Howard "Hopalong" Cassady 1955 Heisman Trophy Winner

It didn't take Ohio State fans long to realize why Howard "Hopalong" Cassady was something special. In his very first collegiate game, the season opener against Indiana in 1952, the 150-pound freshman came off the bench to score three touchdowns and lead the Buckeyes to a 33-13 victory. From then on, Hop was a regular in the OSU lineup, playing in 36 of a possible 37 games and leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 29-8 during the next four years.

In 1954, Cassady won unanimous All-America honors, rushing for 701 yards and eight touchdowns and averaging 5.7 yards per carry. He also caught 13 passes for 148 yards in helping the Buckeyes to a perfect 10-0 record and the first of five national championships for Coach Woody Hayes. The '54 season concluded with a convincing 20-7 win over Southern Cal in the Rose Bowl.

Howard "Hopalong" Cassady

Howard "Hopalong" Cassady capped off a brilliant four-year career by winning the 1955 Heisman Trophy. As a junior, Cassady accounted for 849 yards and won first-team All-America honors for the national champion Buckeyes. He had an even better year in 1955, accounting for 964 yards and 15 touchdowns.

Cassady again won All-America acclaim in 1955, when he rushed for 964 yards and 15 touchdowns. At the end of the year, Cassady's list of accolades included the Heisman Trophy and recognition by the Associated Press as the 1955 Athlete of the Year.

Cassady, who also was an outstanding defensive back, finished his collegiate career with 2,466 rushing yards. That total still ranks eighth on the all-time OSU rushing list.

Cassady, who prepped at Columbus Central and as a boy would sneak into Ohio Stadium to see the Buckeyes play, also played baseball at OSU, starting at shortstop for three years.

After graduation, Cassady was a first round pick of the Detroit Lions. He played defensive back with Detroit, Cleveland and Philadelphia before retiring.

"Hop" lives in Tampa, presently, but spends his summers in Columbus as a coach for the Columbus Clippers, the Yankees' AAA farm club.

Jim Stillwagon

1970 Outland Trophy & Lombardi Award Winner

Jim Stillwagon made college football history in 1970 by becoming the first player to win the Outland Trophy and the Lombardi Award in the same year.

Stillwagon, a three-year starter at middle guard for the Buckeyes between 1968 and 1970, was a unanimous All-America as a junior and senior.

During "Wagon's" three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes compiled a 27-2 record, won three Big Ten championships, played in two Rose Bowls and won a pair of national championships.

With Stillwagon clogging the middle, the Ohio State defense simply shut down opposing offenses. In 1969, the Buckeyes gave up just 93 total points. In 1970, only two opponents scored more than 13 points and five were held to under 10 points.

Tough, strong, aggressive, intelligent, relentless. All are adjectives that can be used to describe Stillwagon. He was quite simply the best defensive lineman in college football in 1970. No one was surprised when he walked off with the Outland and Lombardi awards. The surprise would have come if someone else had been chosen.

After graduation, Stillwagon was drafted by the Green Bay Packers. He chose instead to play in the Canadian Football League and was one of the premiere defensive linemen in that league before retiring.

Stillwagon, a member of the College Football Hall of Fame and the Ohio State Hall of Fame, is president of Stillwagon Enterprises in Columbus.

John Hicks

1973 Outland Trophy & Lombardi Award Winner

John Hicks came within an eyelash of pulling off one of the biggest triple plays in college football history in 1973. That was the year that Hicks, a 6-3, 258-pound offensive tackle, won the Outland Trophy and Lombardi Award as the nation's best interior lineman and also finished second in the Heisman Trophy voting.

How close did Hicks come to becoming the first interior lineman ever to win the Heisman? Well, while he finished second that year, teammates Archie Griffin and Randy Gradishar were fifth and sixth, respectively, in the balloting. By combining Ohio State's total votes, Hicks would have had enough votes to move ahead of winner John Capaletti.

Hicks enrolled at Ohio State in the fall of 1970. Freshmen were not eligible that year, but it didn't take the Ohio State coaching staff long to figure out that the Cleveland native was destined for greatness.

Hicks became a starter as a sophomore in 1971, but suffered a major knee injury at Illinois and missed the last six games of the season.

But he returned in 1972 and was a starter the next two years, winning All-America honors both of those seasons and playing a major role in the Buckeyes' two Big Ten championships and two Rose Bowl appearances. During his two years as a starter, Ohio State posted a combined record of 19-2-1.

Hicks, a fiery, emotional leader, was a first-round draft choice of the New York Giants following the 1973 campaign. His promising career was cut short by injury, however, and he returned to Columbus to enter private business.

Jim Parker
1956 Outland Trophy Winner

Jim Parker was Ohio State's first Outland Trophy winner as the nation's top interior lineman. He is also the player by which his former coach, the late Woody Hayes, measured all other offensive linemen.

"Jim Parker was the greatest offensive lineman I ever coached. I'm not sure there has ever been a better offensive guard," claimed Hayes upon Parker's induction into the Ohio State Athletic Hall of Fame. "He was everything an offensive lineman should be."

Indeed, Parker could do it all. A tremendous athlete, the 6-2, 200-pounder could pull and run block with the best of them. And on the relatively few occasions when the Buckeyes decided to throw the ball, getting around the agile, quick-footed Parker was next to impossible.

Parker was a three-year starter and two-time All-America for the Buckeyes. He won the Outland Trophy as a senior in 1956. During his three years as a starter, Ohio State won 23 of 28 games, captured the 1954 national championship and won back-to-back Big Ten titles in 1954 and '55.

Parker, who was born in Macon, Ga., but played his last two years of high school football in Toledo, O., was the Buckeyes' MVP in 1956. A first round pick of the Baltimore Colts the following spring, he went on to enjoy a distinguished career in the NFL as a perennial all-pro pick.

In addition to being a charter member of the Ohio State Athletic Hall of Fame, Parker is also a member of the College Football Hall of Fame and the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

His play set a standard of excellence for all future Ohio State linemen.

Chris Spielman
1987 Lombardi Award Winner

Chris Spielman is in the Ohio State records book for a number of reasons. He led the Buckeyes in total tackles in 1986 and 1987 and he is Ohio State's all-time leader in solo tackles. He also holds the OSU record for most total tackles in a game. A three-time all-Big Ten choice and a two-time All-America, Spielman concluded his brilliant career in 1987 by winning the Lombardi Award.

But it was not so much what he did as the way he did it. Intense and competitive almost beyond description, Spielman played every down of every game as if the national championship were on the line. Few players have ever been as focused when they stepped onto the playing field.

Spielman was a three-year starter and would have been a four-year regular were it not for two sprained ankles that greatly limited his playing time as a freshman. Still, he collected 546 career tackles, a total that places him third on the all-time OSU list behind Marcus Marek (572) and Tom Cousineau (569).

Spielman's tackle total includes a school record 283 solo stops. The Massillon, O., native had his best year in 1986 as a junior, recording 205 total stops, including an OSU record 105 solos. His best game that year was a school record 29 total tackles against Michigan.

Spielman's Ohio State teams won two Big Ten titles. He played in the Rose and Cotton bowls and was defensive MVP in the latter as a senior.

Since leaving Ohio State, Spielman has become recognized as one of the NFL's top players.

Those people who claim "You can't measure heart," never saw the 6-2, 240-pound Spielman play.

Buckeye Greats

Keith Byars (TB, 1982-85)

Keith Byars won first-team All-America honors, was the Big Ten MVP and runner-up for the Heisman Trophy in 1984, when he rushed for a then school record 1,764 yards and 22 touchdowns. Included in those totals were 274 yards and five TDs against Illinois in one of the most brilliant individual performances in OSU annals. Byars, who missed most of his senior year with a foot injury, is still fourth on the all-time rushing list with 3,200 yards.

Cris Carter (WR, 1984-86)

In his three seasons as a starter at Ohio State, Cris Carter caught 164 passes for 2,725 yards and 27 touchdowns. His reception and TD totals are school records and his yardage figure is the second highest total in OSU history. Carter, a first-team All-America in 1986, also holds the school's single-season record for catches with 69 in 1986. He is without question one of the greatest receivers in OSU and Big Ten history.

Tom Cousineau (LB, 1975-78)

Tom Cousineau was a two-time All-America for the Buckeyes in 1977 and '78. His 211 tackles in 1978 still stand as a single-season school record. Against Penn State in 1978, "Cous" was in on 29 total tackles, at the time an OSU record that has since been tied by Chris Spielman versus Michigan in 1986. Cousineau also holds the school record for most solo tackles in a single game, 16 against SMU in 1978. He is second on the all-time OSU tackle list with 569, three behind Marcus Marek.

Buckeye Greats

John Frank (TE, 1980-83)

John Frank distinguished himself both as a football player and as a scholar while at Ohio State. A tight end, Frank ranks third on the all-time Ohio State receiving list with 121 catches for 1,481 yards and nine touchdowns. He was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes, catching a personal high 45 passes in 1981 and again in 1983. In the classroom, John was a two-time Academic All-America and was a Rhodes Scholar nominee as a senior. After winning two Super Bowl rings with San Francisco, he returned to Ohio State to continue his medical studies. He received his doctor of medicine in June, 1992, and is currently doing his residency in Chicago.

Randy Gradishar (LB, 1971-73)

Randy Gradishar was a two-time All-America for the Buckeyes and is considered one of the most versatile, mobile and complete linebackers ever to play college football. Gradishar was a three-year starter for Ohio State between 1971 and 1973 and was credited with 320 total tackles — 155 solos and 165 assists. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy balloting as a senior and was the backbone of the 1973 defense, which recorded four shutouts and allowed just 64 points all season long. After graduation, he was a consensus all-pro pick with the Denver Broncos. He was inducted into the Academic All-America Hall of Fame in 1992.

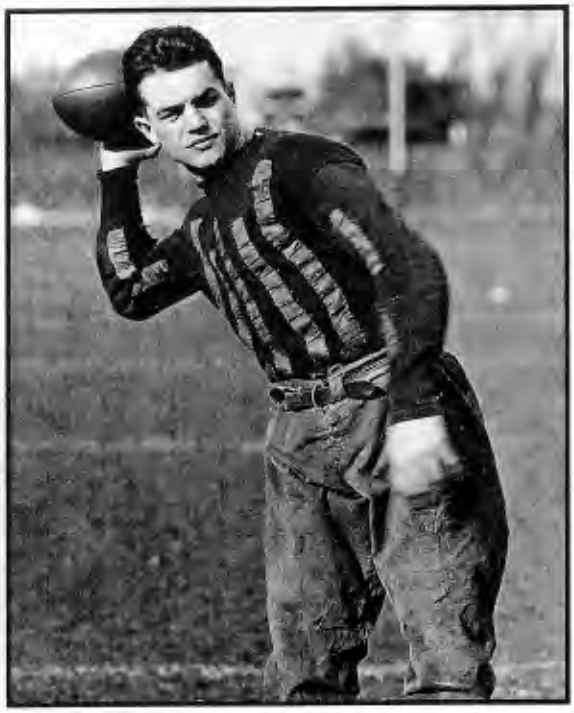
Wesley Fesler (End, 1928-30)

Wes Fesler was Ohio State's second three-time All-America, winning first-team recogniton at end in 1928, '29 and '30. Fesler, who also played fullback for the Buckeyes, was team captain as a senior. He also was the Ohio State and the Big Ten MVP in 1940. Fesler, a superb all-around athlete, earned nine letters with the Buckeyes and won all-Big Ten honors in basketball.

After graduating, Fesler served one year as an assistant on the OSU staff and then was head football coach at Princeton and Penn. In 1947, he returned to his alma mater as head coach and spent four years at Ohio State, compiling a 21-13-3 record and winning the 1949 Big Ten championship and the 1950 Rose Bowl.

Buckeye Greats

Chic Harley (RB, 1916-17, '19)



Charles "Chic" Harley was Ohio State's first three-time All-America. A product of Columbus East High School, Harley was a threat to go all the way any time he touched the ball.

Harley won All-America honors as a running back in 1916 and '17. He spent 1918 in the military but then returned to OSU in 1919 and picked up where he had left off, again winning All-America acclaim. In addition to running the football, he also punted, kicked extra points (he used the drop kick) and played defense.

Fans turned out in record numbers to watch Harley play. He didn't disappoint, leading the Buckeyes to their first-ever Big Ten title in 1916, a repeat championship in 1917 and a second-place finish in 1919. During his three seasons at Ohio State, the Buckeyes posted a combined record of 21-1-1.

The Buckeyes played at old Ohio Field during the Harley era. But largely because of his play, Ohio Stadium was built in 1922 and in the years since has been known as the "House that Harley built."

Bobby Hoying (QB, 1992-95)

Bobby Hoying was a three-year starter for OSU, leading the Buckeyes to a combined record of 30-7-1. As a senior, Hoying rewrote the OSU records book by throwing for 3,269 yards and 29 touchdowns. He also set school records for completion percentage (.619) and passing efficiency (163.4) as a senior. Additionally, his 57 career TD passes are a school record, as are the 16 games in which he passed for 200 or more yards. Hoying led the Big Ten in total offense as a senior and wound up second nationally in passing efficiency. His 7,232 passing yards (most of which came his last two years) rank second in OSU annals.

Pepper Johnson (LB, 1982-85)

Pepper Johnson played for the Buckeyes between 1982 and 1985, earning All-America honors as a senior. During his career, he was credited with 379 tackles, good for fourth place on the all-time OSU list. During the 1984 and '85 seasons, he teamed with Chris Spielman to give the Buckeyes one of the most formidable linebacking tandems in college football. Johnson is currently a starting linebacker for the Cleveland Browns and has become one of the most feared hitters in professional football.

Rex Kern (QB, 1968-70)

With Rex Kern at the helm, Ohio State rolled to a 27-2 record, won the 1968 National Championship, captured two Big Ten titles and played in two Rose Bowls. Additionally, the Buckeyes narrowly missed out on the 1969 and '70 national championships, losing the final game of the year in both of those years after being ranked No. 1 going into their respective season finales. Kern's statistics, as impressive as they were, tell just half the story. The fiery red-head was an emotional leader who displayed a penchant for making big plays when they were most needed. He was a winner in every sense of the word.

Jack Tatum (DB, 1968-70)

Jack Tatum was one of the dominant defensive players in college football during his career at Ohio State. A three-year starter, a two-time All-America and the National Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, Tatum was known for his tenacity and fierce style of play. The 6-1, 208-pound Tatum came to Ohio State as a running back, but moved to defense in the spring of his freshman year and was a mainstay of the defense for the next three years as OSU rolled up a 27-2 record and won the 1968 National Championship.

Tom Skladany (Kicker, 1973-76)

The Buckeyes' most recent three-time All-America, multi-talented Tom Skladany did all the OSU punting and most of the placekicking between 1973 and 1976.

A native of Bethel Park, Pa., Skladany was the first kicking specialist ever to receive a football scholarship at Ohio State. He proved his worth immediately, landing the job as the Buckeyes' No. 1 punter as a freshman and averaging 35.6 yards per kick in a solid rookie year.

Skladany also kicked off as a freshman and sophomore. As a junior and senior, he added PATs and field goals to his list of responsibilities.

Skladany averaged 45.6 yards per punt as a sophomore and was named to the Football Writers All-America Team. He was a consensus All-America choice the next two years, again leading the country in 1975, this time with a 46.7 average. As a senior, he averaged 42.3 yards per kick.

Skladany finished his career with a 42.7 average on 160 punts. That's good for second on the all-time OSU list, as is his yardage figure of 6,838.

Skladany, who now makes his home in Columbus, was co-captain of the 1976 squad, the only specialist ever chosen as a captain at OSU.

Bill Willis (Offensive, Defensive Line, 1942-44)

Considered one of the all-time great athletes ever to play for Ohio State, Bill Willis, has the unique distinction of belonging to the Ohio High School, the College and the Professional Football halls of fame. He is also a member of The Ohio State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Willis was a three-year starter for the Buckeyes between 1942 and 1944, playing both offense and defense. A willowy 6-2 and 215, he was a devastating blocker on offense and a punishing, relentless tackler on defense.

Willis earned All-America honors in 1943 and 1944, becoming Ohio State's first black All-America. After his career with the Buckeyes he went on to a distinguished career with the Cleveland Browns. Willis, a native of Columbus, is generally considered the first black starter in professional football.

After his pro career ended, he returned to Columbus and served as director of the Ohio Youth Commission.

Ohio State's National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholarship Winners

Each year, the National Football Foundation awards a scholarship to the top 13 seniors in college football. The $18,000 grant for graduate work is based upon combined excellence in athletics and academics. Over the years, Ohio State has had 16 recipients, including Bobby Hoying in 1995. At its annual awards banquet, the Foundation also presents the Vincent dePaul Draddy Award to the top senior in the group. Last year's winner of that very prestigious award, which is based on athletics, academics and community involvement, was Bobby Hoying.

Ohio Stadium

Stately Ohio Stadium is now in its 75th year as the home of the Buckeyes. Dedicated in 1922, the horseshoe-shaped structure is one of college football's most recognizable landmarks.

Over the years, more than 30 million spectators have passed through the Ohio Stadium archways to see the Buckeyes play. Between 1951 and 1973, Ohio State led the nation in attendance 20 times and finished second the other two years. In 1995, the Buckeyes averaged a school-record 93,510 fans, breaking the old mark of 93,500 set in 1991. Additionally, the largest crowd in Ohio Stadium history (95,537) was on hand last year to witness the Ohio State-Notre Dame game on Sept. 30.

Built at a cost of slightly more than $1 million and funded largely through private donations, the stadium had an original seating capacity of 66,210. Skeptics doubted that it would ever be filled, but those fears were dispelled on Oct. 21, 1922, when an overflow crowd of 71,385 attended the dedication game against Michigan.

Inevitably, expansion followed. With the addition of field and box seats, and later the south stands, the capacity of Ohio Stadium now stands at 89,841, making the giant horseshoe the fourth largest facility in college football. The latest addition was approximately 5,000 seats in the south stands, added prior to the 1991 season.

Various surfaces have been used to cover the Ohio Stadium floor. Between 1922 and 1970 it was natural grass. In 1971, thanks to the generosity of former OSU player Lou Fischer, Astro Turf was installed. In 1979, a second artificial carpet, this time Super Turf, was put down. Prior to the 1990 season, Prescription Athletic Turf, the current surface, was installed.

In 1984, a state-of-the-art scoreboard was installed in the south end of the stadium. The cost of the new board, which conforms to the architecture of the stadium, was $2.6 million, more than double the original cost of the stadium.

In addition to Ohio State football, Ohio Stadium has also served as host for Ohio High School state football playoffs and, for a brief period, was home to the World League of American Football's Ohio Glory. Presently, the Columbus Crew plays its home soccer games there. It is also used for concerts to generate money for the university. Now in its seventh decade, Ohio Stadium, nestled on the banks of the Olentangy River, truly is synonymous with college football.

The Rose Bowl Selection Process

The following are the criteria for determining the Big Ten representative in the event of a tie.

1. Designation of Representative Team

A. The Conference champion shall be the representative team. The championship shall be determined on the percentage basis of Conference games (tie game counts $^1/_2$ win and $^1/_2$ loss).

B. An ineligible team shall not be considered in the standings for determination of the Conference representative.

C. If there is a tie for the championship, the winner of the game between these two teams shall represent the Conference.

D. If there is still a tie, or if the tied teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on the percentage basis of all games played.

E. If there is still a tie, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated.

F. If there are more than two teams tied for the championship, the same selection procedure shall be followed with the following exceptions:

1. If three teams are tied, and if one team defeated both of the other teams, then that team shall be the representative.

2. If three teams are tied, and if two of the three teams defeated the third team, the third team is eliminated, and the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

3. If three teams are tied, and there is a tie game between two of the three teams, or if two of the three teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage basis of all games played.

4. If three teams are tied, and one of the three teams is eliminated through the percentage basis of all games played procedure, the remaining two teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

5. If three teams are tied, and all three teams have the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

G. If there are four teams tied for the championship, the following selection procedure shall be followed:

1. If one team defeated each of the other three teams, then that team shall be the representative.

2. If two of the four teams defeated each of the other two teams, the latter two teams shall be eliminated, and the two remaining teams shall revert to the two-team tie procedure.

3. If three of the four teams defeated the fourth team, the fourth team is eliminated, and the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

4. If there is a tie game between two of the four teams, or if two of the four teams did not play each other, the representative shall be determined on a percentage of all games played.

5. If one of the four teams is eliminated through the percentage of all games played procedure, the remaining three teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

6. If all four teams share the same winning percentage of all games played, the most recent team representing the Conference shall be eliminated and the three remaining teams shall revert to the three-team tie procedure.

Cal finished an undefeated season by spoiling OSU's first-ever Rose Bowl appearance, and tagging the Buckeyes with their first loss of the year. It was a season in which the Bears rolled up 510 points to 14 for the opposition, and a team that would remain undefeated from 1920 until 1924.Cal quarterback Harold "Brick" Muller was named the player of the game and was credited with a 53-yard touchdown pass.

It marked only the second time that a Big 10 team had met a Pac 8 squad in the Rose Bowl, with Michigan having played Stanford in the very first game in 1902. It would be 26 years before the conferences would again butt heads on the West Coast (Illinois and UCLA in 1947).

The Buckeyes avenged a loss to Cal in their first Rose Bowl trip by breaking a 14-14 tie in the fourth quarter to snatch a victory from the Bears.

With just more than three minutes remaining in the game, Cal quarterback Bob Celeri was back to punt at his own 16 on fourth down. A low snap forced Celeri to kick the ball off his wrong (left) foot, the ball dribbling out of bounds at the Cal 13.

Three plays advanced Ohio State to the 6, where Jimmy Hague kicked the winning field goal with under two minutes remaining.

It was a dramatic end to a game OSU had dominated early, outgaining Cal 143-15 in total yards in the first half and driving inside the Bears' 20 three times with nothing to show for it. Two Ohio State touchdowns had been called back by penalty.

For the game, OSU held a 255-239 advantage in yardage, gaining 221 on the ground. Fred Morrison topped all carriers with 127 yards for the Buckeyes.

Woody Hayes made his first trip to the Rose Bowl a memorable one, as the Buckeyes dominated the Trojans in the rain and mud. OSU and UCLA had tied for national championship honors, but the Bruins were excluded from the bowl because of the "no repeat" rule that was in effect.

Led by Howard "Hopalong" Cassady, the Buckeye ground game drove for 304 yards, helping OSU to a 360-206 advantage in total offense. Cassady ran for 92 yards, Dave Leggett for 67 and Bob Watkins for 64. Leggett, the Ohio State quarterback, was named the outstanding player of the game. He completed six of 11 passes on the day for 63 yards and a touchdown.

The lone bright spot for USC fans came when halfback Aramis Dandoy set a Rose Bowl record with an 86-yard punt return for the Trojans' only score.

Already proclaimed national champions, the Buckeyes were heavy favorites against the Ducks. But the game wasn't decided until the fourth quarter.

Ohio State drove 79 yards on its first possession to take an early 7-0 lead. Frank Kremblas capped the drive by going in from a yard away, then converted the extra point.

Oregon came back to tie it at 7-7 before the half, and actually had a chance to lead the Buckeyes in the third period with a field goal attempt that failed from the Ohio 24.

The game came down to Don Sutherin's 24-yard field goal with 14:02 to go in the game. Oregon was stopped by a fumble on its next possession, and drove to the OSU 47 on its last drive before running out of downs.

1969 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	0	10	0	6	16
Ohio State	0	10	3	14	27

The Buckeyes put the finishing touches on a perfect 10-0 season and a national championship by coming from behind to beat Southern Cal. The game had matched unbeaten teams for the first time in the 22-year history of the Big 10-Pac 8 meeting at the Rose Bowl.

Heisman Trophy winner O.J. Simpson had followed a USC field goal with an 80-yard run to take the Trojans to a 10-0 lead midway through the second period. Ohio State answered with a 69-yard drive, climaxed with a one-yard plunge by Jim Otis, and a 16-yard field goal by Jim Roman to tie before the half.

OSU would put it away with 14 points early in the final quarter. A USC fumble at the Trojans' 21 set up a Rex Kern pass to Leo Hayden for the final four yards, then a fumbled reception cost Southern Cal the ball again at its own 16. Kern hit Ray Gillian on the Buckeyes' first down for the score and a commanding 27-10 lead with 10:05 remaining. USC turned the ball over five times on the day, while OSU was error-free.

Kern was named the outstanding player of the game, rushing for 35 yards and passing for 101 and a pair of touchdowns. Jim Otis and Hayden combined for 191 yards, while Simpson closed out his career with 171 yards rushing and eight receptions for 85 yards.

Stanford	10	0	3	14	27
Ohio State	7	7	3	0	17

Heisman Trophy winner Jim Plunkett quarterbacked Stanford to a come-from-behind win over the favored and previously unbeaten Buckeyes.

Plunkett passed 30 times, completing 20 for 265 yards and a touchdown.

His performance offset a tremendous rushing day for Ohio State, as the Buckeyes rolled up 364 yards on the ground, and actually led the Cardinal in total offense, 439-408. Rex Kern led OSU with 129 yards rushing, while John Brockington added 101 and both Buckeye touchdowns.

Stanford scored the first two times it had the ball, only to see Ohio State gain a 14-10 lead at the half. After trading third quarter field goals, OSU drove from its own 6 to the Stanford 19 to begin the final period. On fourth and less than a yard, the Cardinal defense stopped Brockington short of the first down. Plunkett then ran and passed down the field for the go-ahead score.

An interception of Kern on the next OSU series set up a Plunkett to Randy Vataha 10-yard scoring toss that sealed the win.

Southern Cal	7	0	21	14	42
Ohio State	0	7	3	7	17

Led by tailback Anthony Davis, Southern Cal broke a 7-7 halftime tie with three third quarter touchdowns to sideline the Buckeyes. Davis collected 157 of USC's 207 rushing yards and set up a Rose Bowl-record four Sam Cunningham touchdown runs.

The Trojans scored each time they touched the ball in the third period, Cunningham going in twice and Davis once from 20 yards. The final tally was set up by a 48-yard interception return by Charles Phillips to the OSU 32.

The third period overshadowed a fine first half effort by Ohio State, which dominated USC in the first 20 minutes. At the half OSU held a 151-75 edge in rushing yards. The Buckeyes' Archie Griffin tallied 73 yards on 15 carries in the first half, to Davis' 86 on 12.

Ohio State appeared to be in gear when fullback Randy Keith capped a 56-yard, eight-play drive with 13:37 to go in the first half. But OSU could manage only a Blair Conway field goal in the third period and a five-yard John Bledsoe dash that ended an 87-yard drive with :44 showing to play in the game.

Ohio State used a powerful running attack, led by Archie Griffin's 149 yards, to break open a close game and run past USC. Pete Johnson added 94 yards and three touchdowns for the Buckeyes, who totaled 320 yards on the ground for the day.

OSU fell behind, 21-14, early in the third period before scoring the final 13 points of the quarter. The first score was set up by a Cornelius Greene to Fred Pagac pass good for 39 yards to the USC 4. Johnson bulled over for the tally, and a blocked extra point kick left it 21-20.

Ohio State took the lead for good after Neal Colzie set up the go-ahead score with a 56-yard punt return to the USC 9. Greene covered the final yard with 2:12 left in the period for a 27-21 lead.

Griffin capped the final scoring drive with 4:35 remaining in the game by dashing 47 yards over right tackle for his only score of the day.

Greene was good on six of eight passing attempts for 129 yards and helped OSU to a 449-406 advantage in total offense. The USC passing attack, led by Pat Haden, netted 239 yards.

Flanker Shelton Diggs made a diving catch of a Pat Haden pass for a two-point conversion with slightly more than two minutes left in the game to bring the Trojans from behind and spoil Ohio State's national championship hopes. It ended a wild final stanza in which 25 of the game's 35 points were scored.

The third period was one of missed opportunities for the Buckeyes, who twice had the ball inside the USC 10 but failed to score.

Ohio State had staked itself to a 17-10 lead by scoring on its first two possessions of the fourth period, however. Cornelius Greene engineered an 82-yard drive, covering the final three himself for the first score. Following a USC fumble at its own 30, Tom Klaban kicked a field goal when the Buckeyes stalled out at the 15.

Haden, starting at the USC 17, took the Trojans 83 yards to the eventual winning touchdown and conversion. The game ended on OSU's ensuing drive when Tom Skladany's 62-yard field goal try fell short.

Southern Cal outgained OSU 461-286 in total offense. Heisman Trophy winner Archie Griffin was held to 75 yards rushing.

UCLA	0	0	16	7	23
Ohio State	3	0	0	7	10

All-American quarterback John Sciarra led UCLA to 23 second-half points to upset top-ranked and previously unbeaten Ohio State. Sciarra hit on nine of 13 second-half attempts for 173 yards, helping the Bruins amass 366 yards in total offense in the half.

Despite the backfield of Big 10 MVP Cornelius Greene, two-time Heisman Award winner Archie Griffin and national scoring leader Pete Johnson, OSU was limited to 124 yards in the second half.

Ohio State was impressive offensively in the first half, gaining 174 yards and 11 first downs, but managed only a 3-0 lead. Defensively, the Buckeyes held the UCLA offense to 48 yards.

But sparked by Sciarra and the running of Wendell Tyler, the Bruins roared back to dash OSU's national championship hopes and spoil a fourth straight Rose Bowl trip for the Buckeye seniors. Sciarra directed drives of 61 and 83 yards in the third quarter, hitting Wally Henry with scoring tosses of 16 and 67 yards.

OSU answered with a 65-yard scoring march to close it to 16-10, but Tyler broke away for a 54-yard touchdown run to up the margin and close out the scoring.

A last ditch drive by the Buckeyes ended after an incompletion on fourth-and-17 at the Ohio State 46.

Colorado	10	0	0	0	10
Ohio State	7	10	3	7	27

After Colorado jumped out to an early 10-0 lead, Rod Gerald jumped off the Buckeyes' bench to lead OSU to its ninth victory of the season.

Gerald, idle since the seventh game of the schedule with a bone chip in his lower back, rushed 14 times for 81 yards, including 17 on his first snap. That run set up a 36-yard scoring dash by Jeff Logan to get OSU on the board with 3:11 to go in the first quarter.

The Buckeyes would go on to score on the next two possessions, beginning with Tom Skladany's 28-yard field goal with 9:33 left in the half. Pete Johnson went in from three yards out to cap a 99-yard march following a blocked Buffalo field goal attempt to give OSU the lead for good with 24 seconds remaining before intermission.

Gerald ended the scoring with a 4-yard run late in the fourth period, and was later named the back of the game.

OSU outgained Colorado 330-271, including 271 yards rushing. Ron Springs led all rushers in the game with 98 yards for OSU. Skladany, who handled all the placement and punting chores, was good on two of four field goal tries, missing only from 56 and 53 yards.

In a first-ever meeting between coaching legends Woody Hayes of Ohio State and Paul "Bear" Bryant of Alabama, the Crimson Tide made a pitch for the national championship with a convincing performance. It also marked OSU's first appearance in the Sugar Bowl.

Alabama's Jeff Rutledge was the game's most valuable player. Rutledge was good on eight of 11 passing attempts for 109 yards, including scoring strikes of 27 yards to Bruce Bolton and a three-yarder to Rick Neal to stake the Tide to a 21-0 lead in the third quarter.

Alabama rolled up 389 yards in total offense, 286 on the ground. Ohio State was limited to 263 yards, and gave up the ball three times on interceptions. The lone Buckeye score was a 38-yard Rod Gerald to Jim Harrell pass which capped an 85-yard drive.

The Buckeyes' defense did cause 10 Crimson Tide fumbles on the day, but Alabama lost only two of the miscues.

Clemson	0	10	7	0	17
Ohio State	0	9	0	6	15

Clemson won its 10th straight game of the season and 11th overall by holding off Ohio State in Woody Hayes' last game as head coach at OSU.

After Bob Atha gave Ohio State an early 3-0 lead with a 27-yard field goal, Clemson's Steve Fuller, named the game's outstanding player, directed the Tigers on an 80-yard, seven-minute drive. Fuller passed for 25 yards and ran for 36, including a scoring jaunt of four yards, in the drive.

OSU freshman quarterback Art Schlichter answered with a 78-yard drive, scoring himself from four yards away. Vlade Janakievski's extra point kick was blocked, but Ohio State had the lead, 9-7.

Clemson scored the next 10 points before Schlichter tallied again at the end of an 88-yard march with 8:11 left in the game. His two-point conversion run was stopped short of the goal line.

OSU got a chance at victory when Tim Sawicki covered a Fuller fumble on the Clemson 24 with 4:22 remaining. But on third-and-five at the 24, the Tigers' Charlie Bauman stepped in front of a Schlichter pass intended for Ron Springs, and Ohio State's hopes were dashed.

The Buckeyes did win the statistical battle, outgaining Clemson 355-331 in total offense. Schlichter outdueled Fuller, 205-123 in the air and 70-38 on the ground.

Not even ranked in the pre-season polls, the Buckeyes posted an 11-0 regular season record. But, thanks to Charles White, their fairy tale season came to an end in the Rose Bowl.

White, the Heisman Trophy winner, shattered the Rose Bowl rushing record with 242 yards, including 71 yards on USC's game-winning drive.

Trailing 16-10 with 5:21 to play, the top-ranked Trojans marched 83 yards in eight plays, with White diving over from the one for the score. The all-important point after knocked the No. 2 Buckeyes out of national championship contention.

Penn State	7	3	7	14	31

A record crowd of 66,738 had hardly settled into its seats when Penn State's Curt Warner ran 64 yards for a touchdown on the Nittany Lions' first play from scrimmage.

The rest of the first half, however, belonged to the Buckeyes as quarterback Art Schlichter threw for 244 yards and three touchdowns to stake OSU to a 19-10 lead at intermission. Flanker Doug Donley was on the receiving end of two of those scoring passes and split end Gary Williams hauled in the third.

But after rolling up 339 yards in the first half, the Buckeyes were held to just 73 in the second by a fired up Penn State defense. And while the Nittany Lions' defense was pitching a shutout in the final two quarters, their offense tallied three touchdowns to win the second half and the game.

Underdog Navy put up a valiant fight for three quarters before finally falling to the Buckeyes. The win snapped a string of four straight bowl losses for Ohio State, dating back to the 1978 Sugar Bowl.

OSU led early, 10-0, but Navy, led by quarterback Marco Pagnanelli and running back Eddie Meyers, refused to quit and took a 20-17 lead midway through the third period.

Ohio State finally opened up a 31-20 lead early in the fourth quarter, but Navy cut the deficit to three with eight seconds left on a TD pass and a two-point conversion. OSU recovered the on-side kick and ran out the clock.

Brigham Young	0	10	0	7	17
Ohio State	3	14	17	13	47

There were those who thought Ohio State was the best team in the country during the last six weeks of the season. The Holiday Bowl did nothing to alter that line of thinking.

BYU led only once, 10-7, early in the second period. Tim Spencer's 61-yard run took care of that. Spencer scored two of the Buckeyes' TDs as did his backup, Jimmy Gayle.

OSU broke the game open with 17 points during a three-minute stretch beginning at the 8:57 mark of the third quarter.

While the OSU offense was rolling up 466 yards, the defense pretty much held the high scoring BYU offense in check, allowing 371 yards.

BYU quarterback Steve Young threw for 341 yards and two TDs, but he was intercepted once and sacked four times. Linebacker Marcus Marek had eight tackles to pass Tom Cousineau as OSU's all-time leading tackler.

Pittsburgh	0	7	0	16	23

Ohio State and Pittsburgh combined for 897 yards and scored 30 of their 51 points in the final 15 minutes of play to keep everyone in their seats.

Trailing 23-21 after a 37-yard field goal by Snuffy Everett had given Pitt its first lead with 2:39 to play, Ohio State marched 89 yards for the winning score.

Still it wasn't over. Pitt had one more at bat and quarterback John Congemi marched the Panthers to the Ohio 24 before being injured. He watched helplessly as sub Chris Jelic failed in his two tries to produce the winning score before time ran out.

Keith Byars scored two touchdowns for the Buckeyes, one on a 99-yard kick return. Jemison, who tied a Fiesta Bowl record with eight catches, was the game's MVP.

1985 Rose Bowl

Southern Cal	10	7	3	0	20
Ohio State	3	3	3	8	17

Ohio State outgained USC, 403-261, but the Trojan defense steadfastly refused to let the Buckeyes cross the goal line.

The Buckeyes found out early about the USC defense. On the third play of the game, tailback Keith Byars broke over right tackle, cut to the outside and raced 50 yards down the sideline to the USC five. Five plays later, OSU had to settle for the first of Rich Spangler's three field goals.

USC led 17-6 at the half on a pair of TD passes by Tim Green. Spangler made it 17-9 with a Rose Bowl record 52-yarder, but USC offset that score with Steve Jordan's second field goal of the afternoon.

Ohio State finally scored a TD with 7:34 to play on a Mike Tomczak to Cris Carter pass. Tomczak's run on the PAT made it 20-17.

OSU had one final possession and moved to the USC 43. But the next four plays resulted in a sack and three incompletions, and the Buckeyes' three-game bowl winning streak was ended.

Brigham Young	0	7	0	0	7
Ohio State	0	3	7	0	10

Three years later and on the opposite coast, the Buckeyes again defeated Brigham Young. But this time the game was in doubt until the final seconds. Surprisingly, it was the defenses and not the offenses that sparkled.

Ohio State held the high octane Cougars to 349 yards, limiting quarterback Robbie Bosco to 261 yards passing—about half his average. And each time Bosco threatened to bring his team back, the Buckeyes thwarted him with four interceptions.

All four of those intercepts came in the second half. The first two were by Larry Kolic. Kolic, the Buckeyes' middle guard, picked off his first on the second play of the third quarter and returned it 14 yards for a touchdown and a 10-7 OSU lead. That was the last score by either team.

In the fourth quarter, cornerback William White and safety Terry White each had interceptions in the end zone. The latter came with three seconds left.

In addition to four interceptions, BYU also lost a pair of fumbles to the hard hitting OSU defense.

Texas A&M	3	3	0	6	12
Ohio State	0	7	14	7	28

Ohio State, the first Big Ten team to play in the Cotton Bowl, made a successful debut with a convincing 28-12 win over Southwest Conference champion Texas A&M. The Buckeyes resurrected several defenses from previous years to keep the explosive Aggie offense under control. The surprise defenses limited A&M to a single touchdown and a pair of field goals. Ohio State set a Cotton Bowl record by intercepting five Aggie passes, two of which were returned for touchdowns.

Aside from the turnovers and the return yardage, the statistics were fairly even, but Ohio State made the most of big plays.

Buckeye quarterback Jim Karsatos passed for 195 yards, with his prime targets being Nate Harris and Cris Carter.

Defensively, the entire Buckeye team deserved special accolades. Chris Spielman, with 11 tackles and two pass interceptions, was chosen "Top Defensive Player" in the game. Spielman's first interception was a 24-yard return for a touchdown that came at a point in which Ohio State led 7-6.

Michael Kee made Ohio State's fifth interception a memorable one, when he ran it back 49 yards for a Buckeye touchdown that put the game out of reach.

Auburn	3	7	7	14	31
Ohio State	7	7	0	0	14

Auburn rode the hot arm of Reggie Slack, who accounted for all four Tiger touchdowns, in a 31-14 win over Ohio State.

The Buckeyes took an early 14-3 lead and appeared to have things going their way. But the momentum changed abruptly just before the half when Slack teamed up with Greg Taylor on an 11-yard scoring pass with 11 seconds left to play. The TD drive covered 32 yards and took just three plays.

The War Eagles kept the pressure on after intermission, scoring on their first possession, Slack and Taylor again teaming up, this time from four yards out.

Two fourth quarter TDs by the Tigers put the game out of reach. Slack, who completed his last 11 passes and was a near unanimous choice as MVP, ran five yards for the first and flipped a two-yard toss to Herbert Casey for the second.

OSU flanker Jeff Graham was an early star for Ohio State, setting up the Buckeyes' second TD with a 68-yard catch-and-run. Graham finished with five receptions for 103 yards, but didn't play the second half due to a pulled groin muscle.

The Buckeyes, playing in their first ever Hall of Fame Bowl, closed out the season at 8-4.

Syracuse	14	0	3	7	24

The Buckeyes made their second trip in three years to the Tampa. Ohio State entered the game with an 8-3 record, while Big East foe Syracuse sported a 9-2 mark for the New Year's Day showdown.

Syracuse's vaunted speed and the arm of Marvin Graves turned out to be the difference in the ball game.

Graves staked the Orangemen to a 14-0 first quarter lead, throwing a 50-yard scoring pass on the Orangemen's first possession and later running three yards to paydirt as the period expired.

The Buckeyes battled back to tie the score at 17-17, however, when All-America linebacker Steve Tovar blocked a punt that was recovered in the end zone by Tito Paul. The latter came with 8:03 to play in the game.

But the Buckeyes' jubilation was short lived. Less than a minute later, Graves connected with wide receiver Antonio Johnson on a 60-yard bomb that buried the Buckeyes.

Ohio State had two more possessions after Graves' game winner, but did not mount a serious threat either time.

Georgia	7	0	7	7	21

Ohio State and Georgia, two of college football's most storied teams, were paired against one another for the first time ever in the Florida Citrus Bowl. The two teams qualified for the trip to Orlando by virtue of second-place finishes in their respective conferences.

The Buckeyes, 8-2-1 during the regular season, posted a 5-2-1 record in Big Ten play and closed out the regular season with five straight wins and a tie.

Georgia's overall record of 9-2 included a 6-2 mark in the Southeastern Conference. The Bulldogs won eight of their last nine games.

The two teams battled back-and-forth early and were tied at 14-14 at the end of the third quarter. Midway through the final quarter the Buckeyes drove deep into Georgia territory and appeared ready to take the lead. But a fumbled handoff, that Georgia recovered at its own 16-yard line, thwarted the OSU drive.

Given new life, the Bulldogs marched 84 yards in 11 plays and scored the winning touchdown with 4:32 to play.

All-America tailback Garrison Hearst had an All-America day for Georgia, rushing for 163 yards and two touchdowns on 28 carries. But it was the passing of QB Eric Zeier, who threw for 241 yards, that kept the Buckeyes off balance.

1993 Holiday Bowl

Brigham Young	7	14	0	0	21
Ohio State	14	7	7	0	28

In its relatively short 10-year history, the Holiday Bowl has developed a reputation for exciting finishes. The third-ever meeting between Ohio State and BYU was no exception.

In the early going, the 9-1-1 Buckeyes appeared to be too much for the 6-5 Cougars, OSU jumping off to a 21-7 lead with 14:55 to play in the second quarter. But BYU, healthy for the first time all year, roared back with two TDs before halftime and the two teams were tied at 21 at intermission.

Ohio State regained the lead with 4:11 to play in the third quarter when tailback Raymont Harris scored his third touchdown of the evening. That was all the scoring, but certainly not all the excitement.

Using their vaunted passing game, the Cougars drove deep into OSU teritory three times in the fourth quarter. But the Buckeyes' defense was equal to the challenge each time, all three drives ending with a fourth down incompletion.

The last of those drives began on the BYU 42-yard line with 43 seconds to play. A 52-yard pass on the first play of that drive gave the Cougars a first-and-goal at the OSU six with 35 seconds to play. But four incompletions followed in a tension filled finish and the Buckeyes posted their first 10-win season since 1986.

While BYU did damage through the air, the Buckeyes relied on the brilliant running of Harris, who set a Holiday Bowl record with 235 yards on 39 carries. Harris, a 6-2, 225-pound senior, was named Player of the Game, while linebacker Lorenzo Styles, who had eight tackles, including four for losses, was the Defensive MVP.

Although the Crimson Tide dominated statistically, the game went back and forth all day and neither team had more than a one touchdown advantage. Ohio State	7	0	0	7	14
Tennessee	0	7	7	6	20

The first-ever meeting between Ohio State and Tennessee resulted in a 20-14 Vols' victory and kept the 11-2 Buckeyes from becoming the first team in school history to win 12 games in a season. Playing in a driving rainstorm that reduced the field to a quagmire, OSU jumped off to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a two-yard dive by Eddie George. The TD followed a blocked punt by OSU's Central McClellion that gave the Buckeyes the ball on the Tennessee 23-yard line. OSU was in control most of the first half, but Jay Graham's 69-yard scoring run with 23 seconds left in the half tied the score and gave UT momentum heading into the locker room. The Vols maintained that momentum by taking a 14-7 lead on their first possession of the second half on a 47-yard pass from Peyton Manning to Joey Kent that followed a roughing-the-kicker penalty against the Buckeyes. OSU battled back to tie the score at 14-all on a 32-yard pass from Bobby Hoying to tight end Rickey Dudley with 14:40 to play in the fourth quarter. But Tennessee responded by marching 59 yards in 13 plays on its next possession to take a 17-14 lead on a 29-yard field goal by Jeff Hall, and when Hall added another three pointer with 2:06 to play, the Vols were on top 20-14. OSU mounted one last drive, but a fumble at the Tennessee 38 ended that threat and the Vols ran out the remaining 57 ticks on the clock for their 11th win of the season against just one defeat. Dudley was OSU's offensive MVP, while defensive end Matt Finkes was the defensive MVP for the second straight year. The Buckeyes played most of the game without cornerback Shawn Springs, who suffered a shoulder injury on Tennessee's first possession of the game.

A unique trade took place in early 1946. Carroll Widdoes (right) and Paul Bixler switched jobs. Bixler moved up to become Ohio State's head coach, while Widdoes stepped down to be an assistant.
